Huskers Look for 34th Consecutive Homecoming Win vs. Kansas

Nebraska (6-4, 2-3) will look to rebound from its first home loss in four seasons and extend a 33-year Homecoming winning streak when it takes on Kansas on Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. Kansas enters the contest with a 2-8 record after a 64-0 loss against Kansas State last week. Kickoff for Saturday's contest at Memorial Stadium is set for 12:30 p.m. and the game will not be televised.

The Huskers are coming off a 27-24 loss to No. 7 Texas at Memorial Stadium last Saturday night, ending a 26-game home winning streak. The game was not decided until Texas secured the victory with an interception deep in Longhorn territory with 10 seconds remaining. The interception ended a game of big plays and momentum changes between two of college football's most storied programs.

The Husker-Kansas game is Homecoming Day in Lincoln and Nebraska has a long history of success at Memorial Stadium in Homecoming tilts. NU has won 33 straight on Homecoming since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968. Kansas is Nebraska's most frequent Homecoming victim, having lost 21 times to the Huskers on Homecoming Day. Nebraska carries two 33-game win streaks into the contest. In addition to its 33-game Homecoming win streak, the Huskers also own a 33-game victory streak against Kansas.

Kansas enters Saturday afternoon's game at 2-8 overall and 0-6 in Big 12 Conference play under first-year head coach Mark Mangino. The Jayhawks stood at 2-3 in early October, but have since lost five consecutive games and KU is 1-4 on the road in 2002.

Nebraska's 26-Game Home Win Streak Ends with Heartbreaker vs. No. 7 Texas

Nebraska's hopes for a second consecutive fourth-quarter rally fell just short on Saturday at Memorial Stadium and seventh-ranked Texas escaped Lincoln with a 27-24 victory. The loss ended Nebraska's nation-leading home winning streak at 26 games and dropped the Huskers to 6-4 overall and 2-3 in Big 12 Conference play.

After Texas opened a 27-17 advantage with 3:24 remaining, the Huskers quickly drove 60 yards in four plays and scored on a Dahrran Diedrick two-yard run to slice the lead to three points. The Blackshirt defense forced Texas to punt and All-America candidate DeJuan Groce again showed why he is the nation's best punt returner with an electrifying 44-yard return down the Nebraska sideline to the Texas 16-yard line. The Huskers did not pick up any yardage on their first two plays and on third down, Texas cornerback Nathan Vasher made a leaping interception of a Jammal Lord pass to end Nebraska's comeback hopes.

The dramatic finish capped one of the most memorable games in Memorial Stadium's 80-year history. The first half was highlighted by missed scoring opportunities by both teams. Josh Brown opened the scoring with a 48-yard field goal on Nebraska's first offensive possession. Nebraska moved inside the Longhorn 32-yard line four other times in the first half, but was unable to muster any points on those possessions. Nebraska was twice stopped on fourth-and-one plays and also had a field goal blocked and a bad snap on another field goal try.

Texas moved inside the Nebraska 35-yard line four times in the first half and converted those possessions into a pair of field goals. The Longhorns were forced to settle for a field goal after driving to the NU 7 and also had a missed field goal in the first half.

Both offenses got untracked in the second half. Nebraska took the opening kickoff of the half and drove 79 yards in seven plays capped by a two-yard TD pass from Lord to tight end Jon Bowling to give NU a 10-6 lead. Lord rushed for 71 yards on two carries on the drive, including a 54-yard scamper. Texas quickly responded, driving 79 yards in five plays behind the passing of Chris Simms, who completed all three of his pass attempts on the drive, including a 49-yarder to fullback Ivan Williams and a 16-yard TD pass to wideout Roy Williams.

Nebraska was forced to punt, and Texas put together an impressive drive to extend its lead to 10 points. The 'Horns took over on their own 3-yard line and drove 97 yards in 17 plays, taking 7:45 off the clock in the process. Simms completed seven-of-eight passes on the drive and again connected with Roy Williams on a TD pass, this time from two yards out.

The Huskers bounced back on their next possession with an 80-yard, four-play scoring drive. Lord connected with freshman tight end Matt Herian for a 60-yard scoring strike to cut the UT lead to three points. Texas again forged a 10-point lead late in the fourth quarter, with a 10-play, 81-yard drive capped by Cedric Benson's three-yard TD run. The touchdown gave the Longhorns a 27-17 advantage and set the stage for the game-ending excitement.

The contest featured record-setting nights by both quarterbacks. Lord's 234 rushing yards were a Nebraska quarterback record and he passed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the season. UT's Simms passed for a school record 419 yards and Roy Williams caught a school-best 13 passes.

Recapping Game 10...No. 7 Texas 27, Nebraska 24

▶ The Texas victory ended Nebraska's 26-game home winning streak. The Huskers' previous home loss was on Oct. 31, 1998, a 20-16 setback against the Longhorns. Nebraska has won 73 of its past 75 home games with Texas the only team to find success at Memorial Stadium.

▶ Jammal Lord rushed for a Nebraska quarterback record 234 yards in the game, breaking his own record of 218 yards set earlier this season against McNeese State. The game marked the fifth time this season Lord has topped 100 yards rushing and the seventh time in 2002 he has led Nebraska in rushing. In Saturday night's game Lord became the 26th Husker to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and also broke the NU season record for quarterback rushing yards. Lord now has 1,155 rushing yards this season, bettering Eric Crouch's 1,115 yards last season. Lord's 332 yards of total offense were the third-most in school history. He now has 2,112 yards of total offense this season, the most ever in a junior season by a Husker and the seventh-best total in school history. Lord also threw two TD passes, the second time this season he has had two scoring strikes.

▶ Nebraska picked up 320 rushing yards against the Texas defense, which entered the game ranked third nationally in total defense. It marked the fifth straight game NU has rushed for 259 yards or more.

▶ Freshman tight end Matt Herian has three catches this season, all of 33 yards or longer, including a 60-yard TD reception vs. the Longhorns.

▶ Split end Ross Pilkington extended his streak of games with at least one reception to eight. His nine-yard reception in the second quarter was his 13th of the season, breaking the NU frosh receptions record.

▶ Tight end Jon Bowling had a two-yard TD reception to give NU a 10-6 lead in the third quarter. It was Bowling's first TD of the season and the third of his Husker career.

▶ Place-kicker Josh Brown connected on a regular season career-long 48-yard field goal in the first quarter. Brown has now made six field goals of 40 yards or longer in 2002.

▶ Senior cornerback DeJuan Groce led Nebraska with a career-high 15 tackles, tying the most by a Husker this season. Groce also had a 44-yard punt return to give Nebraska a chance for victory late in the game. Groce continues to lead the nation in punt returns at 21.0 yards per attempt. Groce now has 525 punt return yards this season and 1,011 in his career.

NU-Jayhawk Series Notes

▶ Nebraska had entered the Kansas game nationally ranked for 33 straight seasons before this week's game. In that stretch the Huskers have been in the top 10 in 26 of the games, including four games with KU where Nebraska entered No. 1 in the nation.

▶ Memorial Stadium has not been a friendly destination for Kansas football teams. The Huskers have won 16 straight games against the Jayhawks in Lincoln and have won by 28 or more points in each of the last nine meetings at Memorial Stadium. In those nine games, Nebraska's average victory margin over KU has been 44.3 points.

▶ Nebraska has shut out Kansas 32 times, more than any other opponent. Ten of the shutouts have been in the current 33-game winning streak. The Jayhawks have been held to single digits in 21 of the last 31 games in the series.

▶ Nebraska has scored 40 or more points in 25 of the last 33 meetings with Kansas, including each of the last nine games in Lincoln.

Husker-Kansas Connections

▶ Four Huskers hail from the Sunflower State, including senior SE Ben Cornelsen (Shawnee). The others are walk-ons Phillip Kniep (Belleville), Tim Weltmer (Smith Center) and Peter Atha (Topeka).

▶ Husker running backs coach served on the Kansas coaching staff from 1994 to 1997 before returning to his alma mater for the 1998 season.

Scouting Kansas (2-8, 0-6)

Kansas enters Saturday's game in Lincoln with a 2-8 record and an 0-6 mark in the Big 12 Conference. The Jayhawks stood at 2-3 through the month of September, but have dropped five straight conference games, including a 64-0 loss to in-state rival Kansas State last Saturday. Four of the Jayhawks' eight losses have come against teams ranked in this week's AP Poll, including Iowa State, Bowling Green, Colorado and Kansas State.

Kansas has been led offensively this season by quarterback Bill Whittemore who has 1,666 passing yards and 549 rushing this season. He compiled a season-best 395 yards of total offense against Tulsa earlier this season.

However, Whittemore was injured against Missouri, did not play last week and is questionable this weekend. His replacement at quarterback against K-State was senior Jonas Weatherbie, but he gave way to redshirt freshman Brian Luke. Running back Clark Green leads the Jayhawks in rushing with 606 yards and three touchdowns. Five Jayhawks have 20 or more receptions, led by senior wideout Byron Gasaway (30-334-3) and Green, who also has 30 receptions out of the backfield.

Defensively, Kansas is allowing 470.6 yards per game, including 257.1 per game rushing and 213.5 through the air. Senior linebacker Greg Cole is the defense's statistical leader with 87 tackles, including 19 tackles for loss this season. Fellow linebacker Leo Etienne has recorded 82 tackles, while cornerback Johnny McCoy has 63 stops and a pass interception. Place-kicker Johnny Beck has made five field goals this season and has hit on 20-of-24 PAT attempts. Punter Curtis Ansel is a Ray Guy Award semifinalist and heads a strong KU punting team, averaging 42.3 yards per punt. The Jayhawks rank 12th nationally in net punting at 37.7 yards per attempt.

Kansas Coach Mark Mangino

Mark Mangino is in his first season as the head coach at Kansas and his first season overall as a collegiate head coach. Mangino has directed the Jayhawks to a 2-8 mark this season. Before being named as KU's head coach, Mangino had served as an assistant coach at Kansas State (1991-1998) and Oklahoma (1999-2001). He has been assistant coach for nine bowl teams.

Nebraska-Kansas Series...NU leads 84-21-3

Saturday's game will mark the 97th straight season the schools have met on the gridiron, making the series the longest current continuous series in Division I-A. The NU-Kansas series is the third-longest in Division I-A history in terms of games (109), trailing only Minnesota-Wisconsin (112) and Kansas-Missouri (111).

NU holds a commanding 84-21-3 edge in the series and has won the past 33 meetings, dating back to a 23-13 Jayhawk victory in Lincoln in 1968. In games played in Lincoln, Nebraska has a 39-15-2 advantage, including a 30-7-2 mark against KU at Memorial Stadium.

In last year's meeting in Lawrence, second-ranked Nebraska rolled to a 51-7 victory. After a scoreless first quarter, the Huskers scored 20 points in the second quarter, then posted the first 24 points of the second half to open a 44-0 advantage. The teams traded late touchdowns to account for the final margin. Dahrran Diedrick topped 100 yards on the ground with 136 yards and two touchdowns on 21 carries. Quarterback Eric Crouch added 49 yards and a score, while Jammal Lord had a 33-yard touchdown late in the game. The Blackshirt defense limited KU to 203 total yards and forced three turnovers. Rush end Chris Kelsay led the way with eight tackles and two sacks.

- Sophomore middle linebacker Barrett Ruud had a career-high 12 tackles, including three tackles for loss and a nine-yard sack of Texas QB Chris Simms.
- Redshirt freshman free safety Josh Bullocks recorded his first career interception in the second quarter. He also had a pass breakup and contributed five tackles.
- The Husker defense limited Texas to just 79 yards rushing and has allowed a combined 132 yards on the ground the past two weeks (66.0 ypg).
- Chris Simms' 419 passing yards is the most by a Husker opponent this season and the fifth 400-yard passing effort against Nebraska in school history (fourth regular season).

Nebraska Head Coach Frank Solich

Coach Frank Solich (Nebraska, 1966) is in his fifth season at the helm of the Husker program with a 48-13 school and career record (.787). With 11 wins in 2001, Solich moved into a tie for fourth on the all-time Division I list for victories in the first four seasons as a head coach. He will officially qualify to rank among his peers after this season with five years as a head coach, and with a .787 winning percentage, would rank third among active coaches in Division I-A.

Coach Solich became just the third first-year Nebraska head coach to record nine wins in his first season at the helm, joining a pair of Hall of Fame Coaches—Tom Osborne (9-2-1 in 1973) and Bob Devaney (9-2 in 1962). Solich posted a 9-4 record in his first season, despite being hit heavy with injuries. He posted the best record of any Husker second-year coach as his team posted a 12-1 record in 1999, leading NU to a Big 12 championship and No. 2 (coaches poll) and No. 3 (AP poll) final national rankings. Solich's 21 wins in his first two years at NU bettered Devaney's previous school record of 19 and ranked in a tie for third all time among Division I coaches in their first two years at the helm. He went 10-2 in 2000 and his 31 wins in three years bettered both Osborne and Devaney's 28 wins in their first three years. His 42 wins in four years is also a school best.

Husker Staff Boasts 152 Years of Combined Experience at Nebraska

Nebraska has long been known for the continuity of its coaching staff and that has not changed under Frank Solich's direction. Since taking over the program, Solich has replaced just one assistant, defensive coordinator Charlie McBride, who retired after the 1999 season.

Including this season, Nebraska's staff owns 152 years of combined experience in Lincoln and remarkably 142 combined bowl games--or every year possible.

Note: Five members of the Husker coaching staff played at Nebraska, including Solich (1963-65, fullback), Bohl (1977-79, defensive back), Gill (1980-83, quarterback), Gillespie (1973-76, I-back) and Jamrog (1983-87, defensive end).

who won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and hired former Husker Jeff Jamrog away from New Mexico State to replace McBride in January of 2000. Counting Solich, five members of the Husker coaching staff played for Nebraska. Solich is one of 17 current Division I-A football coaches who played for and now coach their alma mater.

Solich was named Nebraska's 26th head coach on Dec. 10, 1997, after serving as an NU assistant for 19 years. He played fullback for Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney, lettering in 1963-64-65. Solich was the first Husker running back to rush for 200 yards in a game and remains the only fullback to accomplish that feat. He also lettered for the NU baseball team in 1965. After serving as a local high school football coach for 14 years, Solich took over the NU freshman program and posted a 19-1 record from 1979 to 1982. He was elevated to NU's running backs coach after four seasons, a position he held for 15 years (1983-97). He was promoted to assistant head coach in 1991 and head coach following the 1997 season. Solich earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from NU in 1966 and 1972, respectively.

Coaches' Game Day Assignments

Following the lead of Tom Osborne, Coach Solich is his own offensive coordinator, calling the plays from the sideline. Craig Bohl, who tutors the linebackers and is in his third season as defensive coordinator is also on the sideline, along with receivers coach Ron Brown, quarterbacks coach Turner Gill, defensive line coach Jeff Jamrog and kickers/offensive line coach Dan Young. Running backs coach Dave Gillespie moved to the sideline for NU's win at Texas A&M, after being in the press box for the first eight games. Assisting from the press box are rush ends coach Nelson Barnes, defensive backs coach George Darlington and offensive line coach Milt Tenopir.

Huskers Dominate Homecoming

Nebraska is 68-19-4 in Homecoming games and has won 33 straight Homecoming games at Memorial Stadium since 1968, when NU was shut out 12-0 by Kansas State. That game also marked the last time a Husker team was shut out at home. Last season Nebraska defeated Texas Tech, 41-31, on Homecoming. Kansas is Nebraska's most frequent Homecoming opponent, having played the Huskers 29 times on Homecoming, with NU holding a 21-6-2 advantage against the Jayhawks. Kansas has faced Nebraska on Homecoming in its last three visits to Lincoln, with NU winning 56-17 in 2000 and 41-0 in 1998. The 1998 shutout was one of three in Nebraska's past seven Homecoming games.

Nebraska's Home Win Streak Ends Against Longhorns

Nebraska's nation-leading 26-game home winning streak ended with Saturday's 27-24 loss to Texas. The Longhorns remain the only team to win at Memorial Stadium since 1991, also leaving Lincoln with a victory in 1998. Nebraska has won 73 of its past 75 home games and is 31-2 at home under Frank Solich. Nebraska has lost just 11 home games since 1980, with just six teams leaving Lincoln with a victory. Texas Coach Mack Brown (1998, 2002) is one of just three active coaches who have a victory against Nebraska at Memorial Stadium, joining Florida State's Bobby Bowden (1980, 1985) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (1981).

Surging Husker Running Game Continues to Roll up Big Numbers

Nebraska's running game has been back to its usual self in recent weeks. The Huskers were held to just 81 yards on the ground at Iowa State in late September, but since that game the NU ground game has been nearly unstoppable, averaging 345.8 yards per game in five contests.

Nebraska is coming off a 320-yard rushing outing against No. 7 Texas, who boasted the nation's No. 3 defense entering the game. Husker quarterback Jammal Lord gouged the Longhorn defense for an NU quarterback record 234 rushing yards on 23 carries (10.2 ypc) and NU had five rushing plays of 20 yards or more in the game.

Before the Texas game, Nebraska had an impressive outing at Texas A&M. The Huskers ran for 381 yards on a season-high 73 rushing attempts and scored five TDs on the ground. The effort was especially impressive when considering that the Aggies entered the game allowing just 76.9

yards per game on the ground and had not allowed an opponent to run for more than 129 yards in 2002. In fact, NU's 381 rushing yards were the most against Texas A&M in 32 seasons. Before facing the Husker ground game, A&M had not allowed a 100-yard rusher in 20 games, but a pair of Huskers topped that mark (Lord, 159; Horne, 128).

Nebraska has rushed for 259 yards or more in each of the last five games, including a season-high 444 yards vs. McNeese State to begin the stretch. NU followed with 325 yards in a win over Missouri, 259 yards on the ground at Oklahoma State and the strong efforts vs. excellent Texas A&M and Texas defenses. For the season, Nebraska is averaging a Big 12-best 283.2 yards rushing per game to rank third in the nation, behind West Virginia (297.3) and Air Force (290.6).

Quarterback Jammal Lord and true freshman I-back David Horne have keyed Nebraska's rushing success in recent weeks. Lord has run for 782 yards in the last five games (156.4 ypg). He has posted the only two 200-yard days by a quarterback in NU history in the period with 218 yards vs. McNeese State and 234 yards against Texas. He also had 159 yards at Texas A&M on an NU quarterback record 30 carries. Horne shed his redshirt after the Iowa State game and has gained 434 yards (86.8 ypg), including back-to-back 100-yard games at Oklahoma State and Texas A&M.

Husker O-Line Paving Way for Rushing Resurgence

Not to be forgotten in Nebraska's rushing success in recent weeks is the play of the Husker offensive line. In the past two weeks in particular the NU offensive front has opened big holes against a pair of tough defenses.

Nebraska had a school-record 110 pancakes against Texas A&M, bettering the previous high of 101 vs. Baylor in 2000. Redshirt freshman offensive tackle Richie Incognito had 28 knock-down blocks against the Aggies, the second-highest total in school history, trailing only Toniu Fonoti's 32 against Texas Tech last season. Incognito leads Nebraska with 136 pancakes, including 71 in the past three games (all 20-plus games). Incognito's pancake total is the sixth-best in school history and just 19 pancakes from second on the NU single-season chart.

Incognito led Nebraska with 22 pancakes against Texas when NU produced 320 yards on the ground. Center John Garrison (11) and guard Mike Erickson (10) also had double-figure pancakes against the Longhorns. The game marked the sixth double-figure pancake game for Garrison and fifth this fall for Erickson.

Five Husker offensive linemen had career-high pancake totals against A&M. In addition to Incognito, OT Dan Vili Waldrop's 24 pancakes were the fourth-highest total in school history, seven better than his previous career high of 17 vs. Rice in 2001. Garrison matched his career high with 20 pancakes. Erickson (16) and fellow guard Junior Tagoa'i (18) also bettered their previous best outings. Tagoa'i has three double-figure pancake efforts despite coming off the NU bench.

Huskers Nearly Pull off Second Straight Comeback

Nebraska trailed 20-10 entering the fourth quarter of Saturday night's 27-24 loss to Texas, but still had a chance for victory with just seconds remaining in the contest. A comeback victory over the Longhorns would have marked the second straight week NU has rallied from a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to win.

The Huskers showed their resilience in picking up a 38-31 victory at Texas A&M on Oct. 26, just the Aggies' 11th home loss in the past 14 years. In the game, Nebraska rallied from a 31-14 third-quarter deficit to upend the Aggies. The rally was one of the top come-from-behind efforts in school history and Nebraska's best under Head Coach Frank Solich.

A few notes on Nebraska's comeback victory at Texas A&M.

- ▶ The previous largest deficit Nebraska had overcome to win under Frank Solich was 10 points against Missouri on Oct. 24, 1998, in Lincoln. NU trailed 13-3 in the second quarter, but rallied for a 20-13 win.

- ▶ The Huskers' rally from 17 points behind was their largest in any game since a 59-23 win at Kansas in 1991. NU trailed 17-0 in the first quarter of that contest, but used six Calvin Jones TD runs to pave the way to an easy victory.

- ▶ Nebraska's previous victory when trailing after three quarters was on Nov. 27, 1998, when the Huskers trailed Colorado 14-13 after three quarters, but pulled out a 16-14 victory.

- ▶ Before the A&M game, NU had not won a game when trailing at any point in the fourth quarter since a 34-32 victory over Colorado on Nov. 24,

The Huskers trailed 19-7 entering the fourth quarter, but rallied for a 21-19 victory. Nebraska rallied from 10-point deficits entering the fourth quarter twice for bowl victories under Tom Osborne. NU trailed Florida 10-0 entering the fourth in the 1974 Sugar Bowl and won 13-10 and was behind North Carolina 17-7 heading into the fourth quarter of the 1977 Liberty Bowl, but escaped with a 21-17 victory.

Lord Rolling up Huge Numbers at Controls of Husker Offense

Nebraska junior quarterback Jammal Lord faced a variety of difficult challenges in his first season as the Huskers' starting signal caller. First, he was faced with the duty of following 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch, who started 38 games at quarterback from 1998 to 2001. Secondly, Lord guided a young Husker offense against ranked teams in his first two road contests at Penn State and Iowa State.

While those games didn't go as Lord and the Huskers would have hoped, Lord has rebounded in strong fashion and is producing one of the top total offense seasons in school history.

Lord rushed for a Nebraska QB record 234 yards on 23 carries against seventh-ranked Texas and added 98 yards and a touchdown through the air. Lord's 332 yards of total offense was the third-best output in school history, trailing only his school-record 369-yard performance against McNeese State earlier this season and Crouch's 360 yards at Colorado last season.

In the Texas contest, Lord continued to make his name prominent in the Husker record books. He has now rushed for a Nebraska season quarterback record 1,155 yards, the 13th-best rushing season by any Husker regardless of position. He also upped his season total offense mark to 2,112 yards, the most ever by a Nebraska junior and the seventh-best total in school history. He needs 514 yards (171.3 ypg) in NU's final three games to break the single-season total offense record.

Lord rushed for 159 yards on a Nebraska QB record 30 carries at Texas A&M and passed for 116 yards in the 38-31 win. In the process, Lord pushed both his career rushing and passing total past the 1,000-yard marks. He now has 1,368 career rushing yards to rank 35th on the NU list and 1,138 passing yards, good for 21st on the Husker career chart.

The 6-2, 220-pound Lord is nearing a rare milestone in 2002. He has 957 passing yards to go along with his 1,155 rushing yards and needs just 43 passing yards to become the third Husker quarterback in six seasons to rush and pass for more than 1,000 yards in the same season, joining Scott Frost (1997) and Eric Crouch (2001). Sixteen players have accomplished the feat in Division I-A history, with Lord and Kent State quarterback Josh Cribbs poised to join the club this week.

Lord began his recent surge with a record-setting afternoon against McNeese State, breaking the NU single-game total offense record with 369 yards, including a then-NU quarterback record 218 rushing yards on 17 carries. Coincidentally, both of the broken records were set last season by Crouch—360 total offense yards at Colorado and 191 rushing yards at Missouri.

The McNeese State game marked the first time that Lord topped 100 yards in both rushing and passing in the same contest, and he averaged a remarkable 10.5 yards on 35 total-offense attempts. Lord posted his second 100-100 game of the season at Texas A&M.

Lord's 234 rushing yards against Texas marked his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season. In addition to his two 200-yard outings, he also topped the century mark with 103 yards vs. Arizona State, 111 at Penn State and 159 yards at Texas A&M.

Lord has led the Huskers in rushing seven times in 2002, including each of the past two games. In addition to leading Nebraska in rushing yards (1,155) and rushing touchdowns (7), Lord averages a remarkable 6.5 yards per carry. By comparison, 2001 Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch averaged 5.5 yards per rush last season. Lord's 115.5 yards rushing per game rank 19th in the nation and third in the Big 12 Conference. Lord is second nationally in rushing among quarterbacks. His 211.2 total offensive yards per game rank seventh in the Big 12.

The McNeese State game was a career-best passing day for Lord in terms of completions (12), attempts (18), yards (151) and percentage (.667). He has topped 100 yards passing six times in 2002, including four of the past six games. Most recently he threw for 116 yards at Texas A&M.

Lord Supplies Nebraska With Big-Play Threat

One of the attributes Nebraska coaches saw in Jammal Lord from the start of the season was his big-play ability. The junior has not disappointed in that department this season, accounting for 18 plays of 25 yards or longer.

Lord has 10 rushes of 25 yards or more this season, including at least one in each of Nebraska's last five games. He has broke off five runs of 40 yards or longer, including runs of 42 and 54 yards last week against Texas. The NU signal caller has accounted for seven of NU's eight longest runs of the season.

Against McNeese State, Lord had two TD runs of longer than 50 yards (56, 57) marking the first time a Husker has had two 50-plus yard scoring runs in a game since 1999.

Lord has connected on eight pass plays of 25 yards or more, including a 60-yard scoring strike to tight end Matt Herian against Texas. He hit a season-long 90-yard TD pass to Ross Pilkington at Iowa State, good for the third-longest pass play in NU history.

The 18 25-yard plays by Lord stacks up well in comparison to 2001 Heisman winner Eric Crouch, who accounted for 24 plays of 25 yards or longer in 12 games last season (10 rush, 13 pass, 1 receiving).

Going Around the Horne

I-back David Horne has given the Husker running game a kick-start since ending his redshirt season five games ago. Horne has rushed for 434 yards in five games (86.8 ypg) and has raced for more than 100 yards twice. Horne had 125 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries at Oklahoma State and had a career-best 128 yards and four touchdowns vs. Texas A&M.

In the Oklahoma State game, Horne became the first true freshman I-back to rush for more than 100 yards since DeAngelo Evans had 130 yards in the 1996 Big 12 Championship Game against Texas. Horne was the first Husker frosh at any position to top 100 yards rushing since redshirt freshman backed that performance up with 88 yards on a team-high 20 carries against Missouri, including 46 yards on a key second-quarter TD drive. He also added his first career TD on a five-yard run in the first quarter against Mizzou.

The 6-0, 190-pound Horne is averaging 5.0 yards per carry and his 86.8 yards per game would rank seventh in the Big 12 Conference if he had played in the required number of games. With 434 rushing yards, Horne ranks seventh on the NU single-season list for most rushing yards by a freshman. He is just 66 yards from becoming the sixth Husker frosh to rush for more than 500 yards.

Diedrick Continues to Climb Husker Rushing Charts

Senior I-back Dahrran Diedrick continues to move up the Husker career rushing charts. He ran for 52 hard-fought yards and a touchdown against Texas a week after his most impressive outing of the 2002 season at Texas A&M. He rushed for 85 yards on 15 carries in the game, including 78 yards on nine carries after halftime. Diedrick also scored a touchdown on a 12-yard run on NU's opening drive and had a season-long 29-yard scamper in the third quarter.

Diedrick has totaled 622 rushing yards this season and joined an elite club against Utah State when he became the 21st Husker to rush for 2,000 career yards. He finished that game with a season-high 93 yards and now has 2,436 career yards to rank 14th on the Husker charts, just 52 yards from NU's all-time top 10.

At 6-0 and 225 pounds, Diedrick supplies the Huskers with a physical running complement to freshman I-back David Horne who gives NU a home-run threat at the position. Quarterback Jammal Lord gives the Huskers one of the nation's most lethal three-player rushing threats.

Diedrick was a first-team All-Big 12 pick last season after leading the league in rushing with 1,299 yards. He also scored 15 touchdowns and rushed for 100 or more yards in seven of 11 regular-season appearances.

Extra Special Teams

Like his predecessors Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne, NU Head Coach Frank Solich has stressed the importance of the Husker special teams. Entering the 2002 campaign, Solich has mentioned on numerous occasions that this year's kicking and coverage units had the potential to be very "special." The Husker special teams have played a key role in NU's success in 2002.

In Nebraska's season opener, the Huskers blocked two punts, one of which was returned for a touchdown, keying a 48-10 win over Arizona State. The punt return unit stole the show against Troy State. Senior DeJuan Groce tied an NCAA record with two punt return touchdowns in NU's 31-16 victory. The special teams has remained solid throughout the season and again played a big role in the 24-13 victory over Missouri. Groce had his third punt return TD of the year and Josh Davis averaged nearly 28 yards on four kickoff returns.

Here's a quick look at Nebraska's special teams dominance in 2002.

► Punt Returns...Nebraska ranks second in the nation in punt returns, averaging 18.9 yards on 30 punt returns this season. Groce has returned 25 punts for 525 yards, for a nation-leading 21.0 average. Groce's two punt return touchdowns vs. Troy State not only set a school record, but matched the NCAA record. His 89-yard TD return against Missouri was his third of the season and the third-longest punt return in school history. It also tied the NU school record for punt return TDs in a season, matching Johnny Rodgers' three in 1971. His 155 yards on two returns against Troy State was just 15 yards shy of the school record for punt return yardage in a game. Groce moved up to second on the NU career punt return chart with his performance against Missouri. Groce has five punt returns of 25 yards or longer in 2002, including a 44-yarder in the final minute against Texas.

► Place-kicking...Senior place-kicker Josh Brown is 8-of-11 on field goals in 2002 and perfect in 37 PAT attempts. Brown has six field goals of

Lord to Pilkington TD Connection at ISU Continues Nebraska Big Play History

The 90-yard TD pass from Jammal Lord to Ross Pilkington in the second quarter at Iowa State ranked as the third-longest pass play in NU history. The connection was the longest pass play by Nebraska since a school-record 95-yard TD pass from Fred Duda to Freeman White in 1965.

The 90-yard TD was the ninth play from scrimmage of 90 yards or more in school history and also marked the second straight year NU has had a 90-plus yard play from scrimmage. Last season Heisman winner Eric Crouch broke open Nebraska's win at Missouri with a school-record 95-yard TD run. The Huskers have had a scoring play of 90 yards or more in three straight seasons and four of five years under Frank Solich. Bobby Newcombe returned a punt 94 yards for a score against MU in 2000, while Joe Walker brought a kickoff back 99 yards for a score in the 1998 season opener against Louisiana Tech. Nebraska just missed another 90-yard scoring play vs. Mizzou this season as DeJuan Groce returned a punt 89 yards for a touchdown.

40 yards or longer this season. He entered the season with just four 40-yarders in 12 career attempts from that range. (NU opponents are 3-of-6 from 40-plus yards in 2002). Brown hit on field goals of 40 and 42 yards against Arizona State, marking the first time in his career he has made a pair of 40+-yard field goals in the same game and had a 44-yarder vs. Utah State. He added 42-yarders against Missouri and Texas A&M and connected on a career regular-season long 48-yard field goal against Texas. Brown missed a fourth-quarter field goal vs. Missouri, ending a streak of eight straight field goals made. Brown has hit 13 of his last 17 field goals dating back to last season. He ranks fourth at Nebraska with 288 career points. Brown's performance on kickoff duties should not be left unnoticed with 32 of his 56 kickoffs this season (2-5 vs. Texas) ending in touchbacks. Brown and Nebraska's kickoff coverage team have pinned opponents inside the 20 on eight occasions.

► Punting...NU's Kyle Larson continues to prove that he is among the nation's top punters. Larson ranks 14th in the nation in punting with a 42.9-yard average on the season. He has also pinned the opposition inside the 20 14 times, including three times each vs. Troy State and Oklahoma State. He has pinned opponents inside the 10-yard line six times, including twice at Penn State. Husker opponents have pinned Nebraska inside the 20 on punts 12 times.

Larson has averaged better than 45 yards per punt in six games this season (46.2 vs. TSU; 57.3 vs. USU, 46.8 vs. PSU, 47.2 vs. ISU, 50.5 vs. A&M, 45.5 vs. Texas) with a career-best 57.3 vs. Utah State, when he also had a career-best 71 yarder. Larson has had at least one punt of 45 yards or more in every game except McNeese State when he punted just twice, and had a season-high five punts of 45 yards or more vs. Penn State. Larson has punted a season-high six punts four times. Nebraska ranks seventh in the nation in net punting at 38.06 yards per attempt. Larson, a Ray Guy Award candidate, has been NU's nominee for Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week three times this season.

► Blocked Kicks...NU has had a history of being one of the nation's best kick blocking units. The Huskers have exhibited the same ability this season, blocking three punts. Demorrio Williams and Lannie Hopkins each blocked a punt in the second half of Nebraska' victory over Arizona State, marking the first time since a 1999 win over Kansas State that the Huskers have had two blocked punts in the same game. Williams' blocked punt was returned six yards for a score by senior linebacker Scott Shanle. The last time NU had returned a blocked punt for a TD was at Kansas State in 2000 (Keyuo Craver). NU added its third punt block of the year at Iowa State, when Williams and senior Aaron Terpening teamed to block a third-quarter Cyclone punt, setting the Husker offense up for a touchdown. Texas A&M was the first opponent to block an NU punt this season and returned the ball for a first-quarter touchdown and Texas blocked a Husker field goal this past week.

► Kickoff Returns...Junior Josh Davis finished 14th nationally in kickoff return average a year ago at 27.0 yards per return. This season Davis is averaging 23.64 yards per return, with a season-long 46-yarder vs. Texas. He has 10 kickoff returns of 25 yards or more in 2002, including three against Missouri. Davis ranks second at Nebraska in career kickoff return yardage with 1,292 yards and owns the top two season totals in school history, including his NU record 675 kickoff return yards in 2001.

► Kick Coverage...Nebraska has allowed opponents to average just 16.5 yards on kickoff returns and only 9.2 yards on 20 punt returns this season. While Groce and Davis have combined for 13 returns of 25 yards or more, NU opponents have just four such returns (one punt, three kickoffs).

Huskers Scoring in All Three Facets of Game

Nebraska has reached the end zone 38 times this season, with the offense, defense and special teams all getting into the act. Of Nebraska's touchdowns, five have been non-offensive scores, two in each of the Huskers' first two games this season and DeJuan Groce's 89-yard punt return TD vs. Missouri.

In the season opener against ASU, Nebraska scored via a blocked punt return and an interception return. DeJuan Groce supplied two special teams touchdowns against Troy State, returning punts 83 and 72 yards for scores, setting a school and Big 12 record and tying an NCAA record. The special teams set up a two-yard NU scoring drive at Iowa State when the Huskers blocked their third punt of the season. The first two games this season marked the first time Nebraska has recorded two or more non-offensive scores in consecutive games since the 1996 season. In that year, NU returned an interception (Ralph Brown) and a kickoff (Kenny Cheatham) for a TD at Oklahoma and the following week vs. Missouri returned a blocked punt for a score (Terrell Farley) and recorded a safety when the Tigers fumbled the ball out of the end zone.

The Huskers have now scored by defense or special teams in seven of their last 17 games dating back to last season (3 of 10 in 2002). Seven members of the 2002 team have scored non-offensive TDs in their careers led by Groce's five scores, all punt returns. Groce also became the first Husker to score two non-offensive touchdowns in a game since Julius Jackson had an interception return and a fumble return for TDs against Southern Mississippi in 1999.

Late Turnovers Help Key NU Comeback at Texas A&M; Blackshirts Strive for Better Turnover Ratio

In addition to special teams excellence, the Husker coaching staff regularly preaches the importance of a positive turnover margin. The Huskers were a +1 in that department in each of the first three games this season, but are a combined minus-8 in turnover margin in the past seven games, including a combined six-turnover disadvantage in four losses. Nebraska ranks 80th in the nation in turnover margin at -0.50.

Nebraska committed a pair of turnovers against Texas. The first interception led to a Longhorn field goal, while the second pick with 10 seconds remaining sealed the victory. Nebraska picked off one Longhorn pass, but did not convert it into a score as a Husker field goal attempt was blocked.

In Nebraska's season opener, the Huskers returned an interception for a touchdown against Arizona State, while the Nebraska offense did not commit a turnover. The victory over Arizona State marked the first time since 1974 (Oregon) that Nebraska did not have a turnover in its season opener. That statistic is even more impressive considering the Huskers had a new starter at quarterback in Jammal Lord and were also breaking in three starters on the offensive front. Arizona State has since proven to have an opportunistic defense, forcing 30 turnovers in winning seven of its nine games since the loss at Nebraska.

Groce Anchors Husker Secondary; Stars on Husker Special Teams

In recent years, Nebraska has a history of having an experienced cornerback on one side of the field, with a newcomer manning the other corner. In 1996, true freshman Ralph Brown started opposite senior Michael Booker. Brown then served as a mentor for both Erwin Swiney and Keyuo Craver later in his career.

Two seasons ago, Craver anchored one corner while DeJuan Groce learned the ropes as a starter at right cornerback. This season, it is Groce's turn to handle the leadership role, as true freshman Fabian Washington has taken over the left cornerback spot.

Groce has shown why he is an All-America candidate and listed on the Jim Thorpe Award watch list. He has four interceptions and six pass breakups this fall despite teams routinely avoiding his side of the field. Groce's shut-down abilities are a key factor in Nebraska ranking 29th nationally in pass efficiency defense with a 108.72 rating.

4.	469 D. Groce, CB, 2001 (33 ret.)
5.	452 Larry Wachholtz, S, 1965 (31 ret.)

Groce had a pass breakup and intercepted two passes against Troy State, helping the Husker defense hold the Trojans to just 11 of 29 in the passing department. He backed up that performance with two more interceptions and a breakup against Utah State.

Groce had a season-high three pass breakups at Texas A&M and now has 39 career PBU to rank third on the NU career list and is the Huskers' single-season PBU record-holder with 17 in 2000. He has eight career interceptions, including four this season, just off the Husker top 10 season list and three from the school season record of seven, held by three players. Groce's eight career interceptions are also just off the career top 10 list. Dana Stephenson holds the NU career mark with 14 picks from 1967 to 1969. Groce had a career-high 15 tackles in Nebraska's game against Texas.

The senior is a threat to become the first Husker to ever earn All-America honors at two positions in the same year. In addition to being among one of the nation's top corners, Groce is also an electrifying force on Husker special teams. Against Troy State, he set a school record and tied an NCAA mark with two punt return touchdowns. He added an 89-yard return for a touchdown against Missouri, giving him three this season, tying Johnny Rodgers' school record and moving him within one return TD of the NCAA record. Groce's punt return exploits earned him a spot on CNN.com's Midseason All-American team.

Groce averages 16.9 yards per punt return in his career and is averaging 21.0 yards on 25 returns this season to lead the nation. Groce totaled 114 yards on four punt returns against Missouri to move into second place on the NU career punt return yardage list, and he now has 1,011 career yards. Groce's 525 punt return yards this season already rank third on the NU single-season chart, just ahead of his 469 yards last season.

Blackshirts Look for Return of Rush End Kelsay

Nebraska continues to improve on defense despite the loss of its most dominant player in the front seven. Senior rush end Chris Kelsay has missed the majority of the past five games with a hamstring injury.

Before his injury Kelsay had shown why he was a preseason All-Big 12 pick by the league's media. In addition to his first-team all-league notice by the conference media, Kelsay was a first-team All-Big 12 pick by The Sporting News, which listed him as the nation's No. 5 defensive end. Kelsay, a senior from Auburn, Neb., was also on preseason watch lists for the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Bronko Nagurski Award.

The 6-5, 260-pound Kelsay is the anchor of the Husker defensive front. Despite missing the last 19-plus quarters of action, Kelsay is tied for the team lead with nine tackles for losses totaling 46 yards this season. He also still holds the team lead with 4.5 sacks for 38 yards and has a team-high 14 quarterback hurries. He tallied four QB hurries against both Utah State and Penn State. Kelsay recorded 1.5 sacks for 17 yards and four quarterback hurries against Arizona State and added his second career two-sack game against Utah State. Kelsay has also batted down two opposing passes, all while NU's opponents regularly double-teamed the senior captain.

Kelsay saw very limited action against McNeese State leaving in the first quarter with a strained right hamstring. The injury has forced him to miss Nebraska's games with Missouri, Oklahoma State, Texas A&M and Texas, but Kelsay still had an impact in the games with his presence from the sideline. Several of his teammates credited Kelsay with encouraging the defensive troops from the sideline throughout the Blackshirts' top performance of 2002 vs. Missouri. In addition, Kelsay was instrumental in a defensive players' meeting where the defense set goals for the game. The goals set included 13 or fewer points, less than 100 yards rushing allowed and fewer than 250 total yards by the Tigers. NU met all of those goals.

Kelsay now has 10.5 sacks and 29 tackles for loss in his Husker career. Kelsay recorded 52 total tackles as a junior, including a team-best 17 tackles for losses totaling 58 yards and five sacks.

Thomas Among Nebraska's Career Receiving Leaders

Senior split end Wilson Thomas leads Nebraska with 23 receptions and has a pair of touchdowns this season. The 6-6 Thomas played a key role in NU's win at Texas A&M with four catches for a season-high 59 yards against the Aggies. He had a season-long 28-yard catch in the second quarter that set up a David Horne TD run.

Thomas' four catches against Texas A&M pushed his career total to 61 and moved him into a tie for ninth place on the NU career receptions chart. Thomas opened the season with a nine-yard TD against Arizona State, one of his three catches against the Sun Devils, and had four grabs against Troy State. Thomas grabbed his second TD of the year against Utah State on a 23-yard connection with Jammal Lord. He caught an NU season-high five passes for 49 yards against Iowa State and had a team-high four grabs for 47 yards in the win over McNeese State.

The Texas A&M game marked the 14th game in his career that Thomas has caught three or more passes, including five times in 2002. He had three or more grabs nine times last season, including six each in key victories over Oklahoma and Kansas State. He capped the 2001 regular season with a career-best 109 receiving yards against Colorado, including a career-long 78-yard reception, the longest non-scoring pass in NU school history.

With 862 career receiving yards, Thomas ranks 18th on the NU charts and is 138 yards short of becoming just the 12th Husker in school history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards.

Thomas' 37 receptions last year were the most by any Husker since All-American Irving Fryar caught 40 balls in 1983, and the sixth-most ever by a Husker. Thomas' 616 receiving yards ranked as the fifth-best single-season total in school history and was a record for Husker split ends.

Thomas has spent his past two offseasons playing for Coach Barry Collier's Husker basketball team. Last season Thomas averaged 4.6 points and 3.8 rebounds in 16 games, including a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds against Missouri in Lincoln.

Other Huskers on Preseason Watch Lists for National Awards

Several Huskers were mentioned as preseason candidates for national awards. In addition to Groce (Thorpe), Kelsay (Lombardi) and Diedrick (Doak Walker), Husker linebackers Scott Shanle and Barrett Ruud were two of the 67 preseason candidates for the Butkus Award, which announced 11 semifinalists for the award last month.

Shanle is fourth on the team with 55 tackles, including a season-high 10 stops against McNeese State. He also returned a blocked punt for a touchdown against Arizona State. Ruud is second on the team in tackles with 58 and a team-high nine tackles for loss, despite being plagued by injuries throughout the season. Ruud had 12 tackles and three tackles for loss in Nebraska's game against Texas.

Senior center John Garrison was named to the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy and the Rimington Award, given annually to the nation's top center. The award is named in honor of former Husker Dave Rimington, a two-time Outland Trophy winner. Garrison is the leader of an offensive line that has helped NU to a Big 12-leading 283.2 rushing yards per game.

Junior punter Kyle Larson continues to prove he is one of the nation's best, averaging 42.9 yards on 46 punts this season to rank 14th nationally in punting average. Larson boomed four punts for a 57.3-yard average vs. Utah State, just off the single-game school record. Larson was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award last week.

True Freshmen Making Big Impact for 2002 Huskers

Five true freshmen have seen action for Nebraska in 2002 and all have made immediate impacts. Split end Ross Pilkington is in his first season as a Husker after two seasons of minor league baseball, while I-back David Horne, split end Mark LeFlore, tight end Matt Herian and cornerback Fabian Washington are all just a year removed from high school.

The freshmen have proven to be difference-makers throughout the season, with their biggest impact in recent weeks. Nebraska had 369 yards of total offense at Oklahoma State, 204 (55 percent) of which were accounted for by true freshmen. Horne accounted for the largest chunk of the yardage with 125 rushing yards on 24 carries. The Texas A&M game was similar as the frosh accounted for 185 yards of total offense, with Horne rushing for 128 yards and Pilkington grabbing two passes for 52 yards. Washington added three pass breakups and seven tackles in the victory. Against Texas, NU freshmen combined for five of the Huskers' seven pass receptions.

The true freshmen wasted no time this season making their presence known. In fact, three of the five scored touchdowns on their first touch of their Husker careers. In the season opener, Washington intercepted an Arizona State pass and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown. Two games later against Utah State, Herian turned his first career reception into a 33-yard TD. He has since added two pass receptions, a 44-yarder at Oklahoma State and a 60-yard TD catch vs. Texas. He averages 45.7 yards on his three catches.

LeFlore got into the act against McNeese State, taking his first career carry on a reverse 64 yards for a touchdown to give NU a 31-7 fourth-quarter advantage. Horne has scored two touchdowns and Pilkington scored on a 90-yard TD at Iowa State, the Huskers' longest pass play in 37 years.

Washington and Pilkington were the only two members of the group to play in the season opener. The 6-0, 175-pound Washington took over starting duties at left corner against McNeese State and has a nose for the football. Washington has three interceptions this season and has also recovered and forced a fumble, while breaking up six passes.

Pilkington ranks second on the team in receptions with 13 and leads the Huskers in receiving yards with 277, good for a 21.3-yard per catch average. He has caught at least one pass in eight straight games and his 13 catches have established a new Nebraska freshman receptions record. His 277 receiving yards leave him just five yards away from Johnny Mitchell's 1990 frosh receiving yardage record of 282 yards. Pilkington originally committed to the Huskers in February of 2000, but played two seasons of minor league baseball in the Colorado Rockies' organization before coming to Lincoln.

Three Huskers saw action as true freshmen in 2001—Mike 'backer Barrett Ruud, rover Philip Bland and receiver Mike Stuntz. Bland became the first true freshman to start since 1997 (Erwin Swiney and Joe Walker). Stuntz has moved back to quarterback after playing split end last year. He was the first skill-position player (QB, RB or WR) under Solich to bypass a redshirt season and this year has been joined by Pilkington, LeFlore and Horne.

Three Seniors Serving as 2002 Team Captains

Three seniors were elected team captains by their teammates before the start of the season—center John Garrison, rush end Chris Kelsay and corner back DeJuan Groce.

Kelsay is the second member of his family to serve as a Nebraska football captain, joining his brother, Chad, a captain on Solich's first team in 1998. The Kelsays are the fifth brother combination in school history to serve as team captains, joining Mike (1983) and Andy Keeler (1988), Erik (1991) and Zach Wiegert (1994), Christian (1995) and Jason Peter (1997) and Grant (1997) and Tracey Wistrom (2001). The 2002 campaign marks the first season Nebraska has had only three captains since the 1987 campaign. The Huskers had five captains a year ago and six in 2000.

Poll Position

Nebraska fell out of the top 25 in both polls after the loss at Iowa State, ending a streak of 348 straight weeks in the Associated Press Poll. Nebraska had been ranked in every AP weekly poll since October of 1981.

The Huskers have two games remaining against ranked teams—Texas, Kansas State and Colorado. Five Big 12 teams are ranked this week, including Oklahoma (1 AP/2 Coaches) Texas (4/4), Kansas State (12/12), Colorado (18/21) and Iowa State (21/22). Two of Nebraska's non-conference opponents are ranked with Penn State listed 19th in both polls and Arizona State listed at 24th by the coaches and 25th in AP.

Nebraska opened the 2002 season ranked in the Associated Press preseason top 25 for the 33rd consecutive season. The Huskers were ranked No. 10 in this year's AP preseason listing, the 10th consecutive season Nebraska has opened in the Top 10. The Huskers were ranked eighth in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches preseason poll.

Nebraska's AP preseason ranking was its lowest since opening at No. 11 in 1992, but marked the fifth straight season under Solich that NU was in the preseason top 10. Under Solich, NU's loftiest preseason ranking came in 2000, when the Huskers were listed first in both AP and coaches polls.

Nebraska Personnel/Injury Update

Senior rush end Chris Kelsay has missed Nebraska's past four games with a hamstring injury, but hopes to return to action this week. His injury is the latest in a series of injuries to hit Nebraska's defensive front four. In the preseason, senior nose tackle Jason Lohr was lost for the season with a torn left ACL. In game one vs. Arizona State, redshirt freshman defensive tackle Jared Helming also tore the ACL in his left knee and was lost for the season. In addition, redshirt freshman Seppo Ewvarayeis out for the season with an injury to his right shoulder, while freshman DT Brandon Greeson, who is redshirting this fall, will also miss the remainder of fall practice with a shoulder injury. Rover Lannie Hopkins suffered a concussion against Texas A&M and missed the Texas contest, but should be available this week.

35 Former Huskers on NFL Opening-Day Rosters

Nebraska remains among the nation's leaders in supplying talent to the National Football League. In fact, the Huskers had a Big 12-best 45 players in 2002 NFL training camps and 32 of those players currently find themselves on 2002 rosters. Nebraska had 30 players on active 2002 opening day rosters to rank eighth nationally and tops among Big 12 schools.

Among Nebraska's notable alumni on NFL rosters are 10-year veteran offensive guard Will Shields of the Kansas City Chiefs, who has appeared in seven consecutive Pro Bowls. Green Bay's Ahman Green finished fourth in the NFL in rushing last season with 1,387 yards, while St. Louis DE Grant Wistrom has been a key component in a Ram defense that has helped the team to the Super Bowl in two of the last three years. Carolina Panther defensive end Mike Rucker was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month in September and is among the league leaders in sacks and fumbles caused. Safety Mike Minter, Carolina's all-time leading tackler has intercepted two passes, including one that he returned for a touchdown.

Since 1994, NU has had 53 players selected in the NFL Draft, the third-most of any school in the nation and tops among Big 12 Conference schools.

Huskers in the NFL

Nebraska had 35 players on NFL opening day rosters. The Huskers had a conference-best 45 players on NFL training camp rosters in 2002. Below is a current list of 32 former Huskers on NFL rosters, including players on injured reserve and practice squads.

Hassebroek, Two Other Student-Athletes Among Homecoming Court

Three members of the Husker athletic family are members of this year's Homecoming Royalty Court and for the first time in recent history, a football player is represented on the court. Senior wingback Troy Hassebroek (Lincoln, Neb.) earned the honor. The son of Ron and Helen Hassebroek, Troy is a senior in Teachers College, majoring in middle level education and minoring in coaching. Hassebroek has been recognized often for his continued community service and as an active member of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Board. Two members of the men's cross country team are also represented in the 20-member group. The son of Robert and Kathleen Gray, Ian Gray (Eugene, Ore.) is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, majoring in biochemistry and biological sciences, and minoring in business administration. Kyle Wyatt (Albion, Neb.), son of David and Ruth Wyatt, is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, majoring in English, with a theory and criticism concentration, and minoring in history.

The homecoming king and queen will be voted on by the student body and crowned Nov. 9 at the halftime of the Nebraska-Kansas football game in Memorial Stadium.

Husker Team and Individual Notes...

NU Continues 113th Season with Streaks in Place

Nebraska's streak of being ranked in the Associated Press poll ended at 348 weeks after Nebraska's loss at Iowa State. Despite the end to that streak, Nebraska continues its 113th season of intercollegiate football with several streaks in place, including an unprecedented 33 consecutive nine-win seasons.

▶ NCAA-record 254 consecutive sellouts in Memorial Stadium—Nebraska's game with Kansas will mark the 254th straight sellout at Memorial Stadium. "Nebraska football fans are the best football fans in the world," said famed broadcaster Keith Jackson. Since the North and South end zones were built in 1964, Husker fans started a tradition of saluting the opposing team as it leaves the stadium with a standing ovation—regardless of the game's outcome. Among Big 12 Conference schools, Oklahoma has the next longest string of consecutive sellouts with 23, 231 fewer than Nebraska.

▶ 40 consecutive winning seasons—Nebraska holds the current NCAA record and ranks second all time behind Notre Dame's 42 consecutive winning seasons from 1889 to 1932. The streak began in 1962, the first year under Coach Bob Devaney, who was lured to Nebraska from Wyoming by Director of Athletics Tippy Dye.

▶ 33 consecutive nine-win seasons—Even more incredible than 40 consecutive winning seasons is Nebraska's NCAA record for consecutive nine-win seasons. Although some called for his resignation after a pair of 6-4 seasons in 1967 and 1968, Devaney stayed and redesigned the offense to an I-formation with an unbalanced line at the suggestion of then-assistant coach Tom Osborne. The Huskers won nine games in 1969 and have won at least that many in every year since.

▶ 40 bowl appearances—Biff Jones accepted the Huskers' first bowl bid following the 1940 season, agreeing to play in the 1941 Rose Bowl. The celebration in Lincoln lasted 24 hours and classes were canceled. While Nebraska lost to Stanford, 21-13, Nebraska has now appeared in 40 bowl games and is tied for fourth among all NCAA Division I-A schools behind Alabama's 51. Devaney used to joke that he lived in Lincoln several years before he found out Nebraska lost that first bowl game—a true testament to the support Nebraska football receives in Lincoln.

▶ 33 consecutive bowl bids—NU's streak of 33 consecutive bowl appearances is an NCAA record and dates back to 1969 when Devaney's eighth team defeated Georgia 45-6 in the Sun Bowl. Michigan is the only other school with an active streak of 20 or more straight bowl appearances with 27.

▶ 33 consecutive years ranked in AP top 25—Since the 1969 season, Nebraska has been ranked each season among the top 25 in the final AP poll. NU has also been ranked in the top 25 in every AP preseason poll since 1970.

▶ 108-16 record since 1993—In the last nine years, Nebraska has lost just 16 games and has lost more than two games in a season just twice (1998, 2002). In that span, the Huskers went undefeated three times, winning national championships in 1994, 1995 and 1997. Nebraska also played for the national title in 1993 and 2001.

Unprecedented Winning Tradition

Nebraska, the nation's third-winningest program all time (fourth by percentage), boasts a 770-305-40 record in 1,115 games (.709). In the last 34 years, NU is tops, posting a record of 336-64-5 for an .836 winning percentage (405 games), an average of more than 10 wins per year. In terms of victories, the Huskers are third in NCAA Division I-A history with 770.

NU has won 10-or-more games 22 times in the Devaney/Osborne/Solich eras (since 1962), went undefeated and untied through the regular season seven times, played in 13 national title games (for at least one of the teams) and won the championship five times. Since the first Nebraska season in 1890, Husker teams have won 11 or more games 12 times, including seven of the last nine years. NU has won 12 or more games seven times, and 13 games three times (1971, 1994 and 1997).

No one can match Nebraska's current 40-year winning season streak, or its 33-year nine-win streak, and by the same token, no other school has averaged 10 wins per season over the last 33 years. Nebraska's 40 years of consecutive winning records rank second all time behind Notre Dame's 42 (1889-32) and third in terms of non-losing seasons, behind Penn State's 49 (1939-87) and Notre Dame's 42 (1889-1932) and tied with Texas's 40 (1893-32). Nebraska (702), Michigan (705), Alabama (728) and Notre Dame (736) were the only four programs to have won 700 games in the last century. Nebraska became the first Division I team to win 100 or more games in back-to-back decades, ranking first in the 1980s (103-20-0, .837) and second in the 1990s (108-16-1 record, .890) and posted a nation's best 309-56-5 record in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s.

Huskers Win Three National Titles in Four Years

In 1993, the Huskers went 11-1 losing only to Florida State, 18-16, in the Orange Bowl for the national championship. That loss began a run of wins, records and crystal collections. Nebraska followed 1993 with three perfect seasons in four years, winning national titles in 1994 (13-0), 1995 (12-0) and 1997 (13-0). No other team won three titles in the 1990s. Nebraska posted incredible numbers from 1993 on, consider...

In the Past Nine Years, the Huskers Have...

- ▶ Posted a 108-16 record
- ▶ Played in five national title games (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997, 2001)
- ▶ Won three national titles (1994, 1995, 1997) in four years
- ▶ Won five conference crowns (three Big Eight, two Big 12)
- ▶ Posted a 64-10 conference record (.865)
- ▶ Won 62 of 64 home games
- ▶ Gone 28-12 vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams (14-6 vs. top 10)

NU First to Win 100 Games in Back-to-Back Decades

Nebraska recorded its 100th win of the 1990s with a 40-10 win over Missouri in Columbia on Sept. 25, 1999, and finished with a 108-16-1 mark in the decade (.868, second behind Florida State). Nebraska is the first Division I program to win 100-plus games in consecutive decades as NU won 103 games to 20 losses in the 1980s. The only other team to post 100-plus wins in the 1980s was Brigham Young with 102 wins and 26 losses. Oklahoma (102-13-3) and Alabama (103-16-1) posted 100-plus wins in the 1970s, while Nebraska came close to achieving the mark in three consecutive decades, as NU won 98 games in the 1970s. Florida State finished the 1990s with a 109-13-1 record (.890, first), but had just 87 wins in the 1980s.

By decade, the Huskers were 75-30-1 in the 1960s (.712); 98-20-4 in the 1970s (.820, fifth nationally), 103-20-0 in the 1980s (.837, first), 108-16-1 in the 1990s (second) and are 27-8 in this decade. Nebraska's 1990s record was aided by an unprecedented 60-3 five-year run from 1993 to 1997. Nebraska owns the best record over the past three-plus decades with a 336-64-5 record, including an NCAA-best 309-56-5 record (.842) from 1960 to 1999. The Huskers have not lost more than 20 games in any of the last three decades.

Devaney Established Tradition

Retiring as the winningest active coach in the nation, Tom Osborne took over a program firmly entrenched in solid ground in 1973, when Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney named Osborne as his successor. Devaney posted a 101-20-2 record in his 11 years at Nebraska, won two national championships (1970 and 1971) and was the winningest active coach in the nation upon his retirement in 1972 with a 136-30-7 career record (.806) including a 35-10-5 record at the University of Wyoming.

Osborne followed suit and was selected to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame shortly after he announced his retirement (inducted on Dec. 8, 1998). Osborne retired as the nation's winningest active coach, posting a 255-49-3 record (.836). Among all divisions of coaches with career winning percentages of .800 or better over a span of at least 10 years, Osborne is the fifth-winningest coach in Division I-A history, while the late Devaney is not far behind at No. 11.

Devaney and Osborne were the third Division I coaching duo to post back-to-back 100-win careers at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but were the first pair to do so in an unbelievable 21 years. Devaney and Osborne had a combined 356-69-5 record for an incredible .834 winning percentage (36 years, 430 games).

Frank Solich went 9-4 in his inaugural season, matching the wins of Devaney and Osborne in their first years and posted a school-record 12-1 second-year record (winning the Big 12 championship), a 10-2 record his third season, was 11-2 last year, playing in the national championship game, and is 6-4 in 2002, for a 48-13 five-year record. Devaney went 10-1 his second year (1963) winning his first Big Eight championship, while Osborne first won 10 games his third year when he also won a share of his first Big Eight title (1975).

NU in Big 12 Conference Action

Nebraska is 438-146-16 all time vs. Big 12 Conference teams. Since the Big 12 was formed in 1996, Nebraska is 43-10 in the league (24-2 at home), losing to Texas A&M in College Station (28-21), Texas in Lincoln (20-16) and Kansas State in Manhattan (40-30) in 1998; to Texas (24-20) in Austin in 1999; and to Oklahoma in Norman (31-14) and K-State in Manhattan (29-28) in 2000; at Colorado (62-36) in 2001; and at Iowa State (36-14), at Oklahoma State (24-21) and vs. Texas (27-24) this season. Nebraska is 27-

10 in the Big 12 under Coach Solich. Nebraska's loss to Texas ended a streak of 14 straight home conference victories. It was NU's first home loss since Texas defeated the Huskers on Oct. 31, 1998, which ended NU's school-record 47-game home winning streak.

NU Leads Conference in Crowns

Nebraska is the only team to capture two Big 12 titles in the first six years of the championship game, winning titles in 1997 and 1999. Nebraska also appeared in the league title game in 1996.

The Huskers lost to Texas, 37-27, in the inaugural championship in St. Louis in 1996, defeated Texas A&M in 1997 in San Antonio, 54-15, and defeated Texas in San Antonio in 1999, 22-6. The Nebraska vs. Texas matchup in the 1999 Big 12 Championship Game marked the first time the game featured two teams that played each other in the regular season.

In the last nine years, Nebraska has won five conference crowns (three Big Eight, two Big 12). Nebraska has won 43 football conference championships overall, including eight under Coach Bob Devaney, 13 under Coach Tom Osborne and one under Coach Solich.

Memorial Stadium Dominance

Nebraska's nation-best 26-game home winning streak ended with last week's loss to Texas and gave NU a 5-1 record at home this season. Nebraska is 94-4 at home the last 14 years, losing to two teams that went on to win a share of the national championship (Colorado in 1990 and Washington in 1991), and to Texas in 1998 and 2002. Head Coach Frank Solich is aware of the special edge the Huskers have in Lincoln. "I think every team that plays at home has a home-field advantage, but we have a special one here. That is due to the fans and how they react."

The Huskers are 461-123-20 (.779, 604 games, 113 years) in Lincoln, 336-100-13 (.763, 449 games, 80 years) in Memorial Stadium (since 1923) and 31-2 at home under Coach Solich. Nebraska has not lost more than one home game in a season since a 5-2 home record in 1980. Since then, the Huskers are 138-11 at Memorial Stadium, with eight of those losses coming against teams that finished in the top six in the final AP poll (Texas is No. 4 in this week's poll). Included in that stretch are four of the six longest home winning streaks in school history, including a school-record 47-game streak (fifth longest in nation all time) from 1991 to 1998, a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990, a 21-game streak from 1981 to 1984 and the 26-game string that ended with the 27-24 loss to Texas last week.

Nebraska also had a 33-game home winning streak from 1901 to 1906 (which is tied for the 11th-longest streak in Division I-A). Since 1986 (16 years), NU is 106-6 in Lincoln, with losses to Colorado, Washington, Oklahoma (twice) and Texas (twice). Five of those teams posted a combined mark of 53-6-1 in their respective seasons, while Texas is 8-1 this fall.

Nebraska has not been shut out at home since a 12-0 loss to Kansas State in 1968 (219 games). NU has posted 40 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including 2001 when NU went 8-0. Against Utah State on Sept. 7, the Huskers set a new attendance record in Memorial Stadium with 78,176 fans.

NCAA Record 253 Consecutive Sellouts

Nebraska's Memorial Stadium boasts an NCAA-record 252 consecutive sellouts dating back to Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney's first year in 1962 (vs. Missouri on Nov. 3). Notre Dame is second in all-time consecutive sellouts with 166, 87 fewer than Nebraska.

Team Snippets...

► FieldTurf...Nebraska is 25-1 on FieldTurf, the artificial grass surface installed in NU's Memorial Stadium before the 1999 season. FieldTurf emulates the look and feel of blades of grass by blending polyethylene and polypropylene, which specially treats the surface to be soft, smooth and strong. The 2.50-inch blades are resistant to extremes in temperature and have an ultraviolet protectant to help resist fading. Memorial Stadium was filled with 200,000 pounds of ground rubber, recycled from Nebraska tires, and silica sand, before the turf was installed. NU was the first Division I school to install the surface, which has also been installed at other professional facilities and Division I schools. Memorial Stadium featured a grass playing field from its opening in 1923 through the 1969 season. Astro-Turf was first installed in 1970 and replaced in 1977. Artificial All-Pro Turf was installed in 1984 and replaced with AstroTurf-8 in 1992 before the FieldTurf was installed in July of 1999.

► Positively Speaking on Turnovers...In the last 28 years, NU has had just one season with a negative turnover margin (minus five in 1984). Under Solich, NU has a cumulative turnover margin of plus nine.

► When Nebraska Trails...Nebraska has trailed in six games in 2002, rallying to defeat Missouri after trailing 13-7 and Texas A&M after falling behind 31-14. NU failed to recover from deficits at Penn State, Iowa State and Oklahoma State and vs. Texas. The Huskers trailed in seven games in 2001, but rallied to win the first five before losing at Colorado and against Miami. The Texas A&M game was the first time in 2002, NU had trailed at the half and won (previously against Kansas State in 2001, erasing a 14-13 halftime deficit). The last time Nebraska led at the half and lost was a 24-21 setback at Oklahoma State after NU led 7-3 at halftime. The Texas A&M contest also marked the first time in two seasons NU had trailed in the fourth quarter and won (previously against Colorado on Nov. 24, 2000, where the Huskers marched 44 yards in 47 seconds to set up Josh Brown's 29-yard field goal as time expired). The CU win marked the first time since statistics have been kept (since 1946) that the Huskers won on the last play of regulation. The 17-point deficit Nebraska rallied from at Texas A&M was the largest NU has overcome under Coach Solich, (previous was 10 points vs. Missouri in 1998, when NU trailed 13-3 in the second quarter, but rallied for a 20-13 victory. The biggest halftime rally under Solich was when Nebraska was down 9-0 at Kansas in 1999, before winning 24-17.

► After a Loss...Nebraska has lost back-to-back games just 12 times since 1962. Nebraska's consecutive losses at Penn State and Iowa State marked the first time since 1976 that NU had lost back-to-back regular-season games. Nebraska ended the 2001 season losing its last two games, at Colorado and to Miami, but has not lost three straight games since the 1961 season. Of the 12 back-to-back losses in the past 40 years, eight were losses to end the regular season followed by a loss in the bowl games.

► In Overtime...The Huskers are 3-0 in overtime games, defeating Missouri, 45-38, in Columbia in 1997; Colorado, 33-30, in Boulder in 1999; and Notre Dame in South Bend, 27-24, in 2000. In 1997, Missouri won the coin toss and Nebraska scored in three plays on a 12-yard Scott Frost run, then held the Tigers. Against CU, Nebraska won the coin toss, held the Buffs to a field goal, then scored five plays later on a one-yard Eric Crouch run. Against Notre Dame, NU won the toss, chose defense, held the Irish to a field goal, then scored five plays later on a Crouch seven-yard run. All three of NU's overtime wins were on the road and were won by rushing touchdowns (two by Crouch).

NU is 226-27 during the 253 sellouts (50-9 under Devaney, 145-16 under Osborne, 31-2 under Solich). The mark includes a 37-19 record against ranked teams. NU is 5-0 in the four milestone sellouts during that period (50th, 100th, 150th, 200th and 250th sellouts), including a 24-7 win over No. 2 Colorado on Oct. 29, 1994 (No. 200) and a 44-13 victory over Utah State on Sept. 7 (No. 250). Nebraska's remaining two games are sold out, which will give the Huskers 255 consecutive sellouts at the end of the 2002 season.

Huskers Own 15 NCAA Rushing Titles

The Nebraska running game was not its usual self early in the season, but has gotten untracked in recent weeks. Nebraska has averaged 345.8 yards the past five weeks, including a season-high 444 yards vs. McNeese State. The Huskers now average 283.2 yards per game to lead the Big 12 Conference and rank third nationally. Over the years, the Huskers have rolled up unparalleled rushing numbers in college football.

The Huskers have led the nation in rushing 15 times in school history, including 2001. The Huskers averaged 314.7 yards a year ago, 33 yards per game more than runner-up Rice's total of 281.5. NU led the nation with 47 touchdowns (six more than second-place BYU) and yards per rush (5.62), edging out BYU, which averaged 5.61 per carry.

The Huskers averaged a nation-leading 349.3 yards per game in 2000. The Huskers have won the rushing title seven times in the last 10 years and 13 of the last 22 titles. Since 1978, Nebraska has ranked in the top six in rushing average every year and has averaged 300 or more yards rushing per game in all but four of the last 25 years (1993, 1996, 1998 and 1999).

More Husker Rushing Numbers

NU is 191-7-0 in the last 30 years when rushing for 300 or more yards in a game (most recently 320 vs. Texas) and had won 110 straight when rushing for 300-plus yards before the loss at Colorado last season, when the Huskers rushed for 354 yards. Nebraska lost to Texas 27-24 despite rushing for 320 yards. Nebraska is 96-0 since 1973 when rushing for 400 or more yards, most recently rushing for 444 yards against McNeese State.

NU has had 372, 100-yard rushing performances all time (59 under Coach Solich, most recently Jammal Lord, 234, vs. Texas) including 57 games in which two or more Huskers rushed for 100 yards (most recently at Texas A&M). Before having four rushers top the century mark against Baylor on Oct. 13, 2001, NU had three rushers top the 100-yard mark in a game only twice in school history, recording the feat against Kansas in 2000 (Dan Alexander, Correll Buckhalter and Crouch) and against Arizona State in 1988 (Ken Clark, Steve Taylor and Terry Rodgers). The Iowa game in 2000 marked the only time in the 56 games where there were two-or-more 100-yard rushers, and Nebraska failed to score at least one rushing touchdown. Jammal Lord's 234-yard effort vs. Texas (NU quarterback record) was NU's 32nd all-time 200-yard performance.

Nebraska is 26-2 under Coach Solich when the team rushes for 300 or more yards; 11-0 when rushing for 400 or more and 2-0 when rushing for 500 or more. Solich is 32-9 when a Husker rushes for at least 100 yards, and 8-8 when an opponent has a 100-yard rusher (most recently 182 yards by Oklahoma State's Tatum Bell). Among current Huskers, Diedrick has seven 100-yard games, all coming in 2001 to lead the team. Lord has five 100-yard games this season, while true freshman David Horne has posted his first two 100-yard games vs. Oklahoma State and Texas A&M. Fullback Judd Davies topped 100 yards last season at Baylor.

Iowa State became the first opponent to hold Nebraska to less than 100 yards rushing (81 yards) since Oklahoma State held the Huskers to 73 yards in 1998.

Nebraska rushed for an NCAA and school-bowl-record 524 yards vs. Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl on a school-bowl-record 68 attempts with a school-bowl-record six rushing touchdowns. NU also had six rushing touchdowns in the 1998 Orange Bowl vs. Tennessee.

Adding up the Points

Nebraska is averaging 28.9 points per game in 2002 to rank ninth in the Big 12. The Huskers have a long history of ranking among the nation's leaders in scoring offense and have averaged more than 35 points a game 15 times in the last 16 years. Last season NU finished with an average of 37.4 points per game to finish sixth nationally and second in the Big 12. NU scored 35 or more points eight times last season and has topped 35 points four times in 2002.

Nebraska has averaged 30 or more points per game for 24 straight years (since 1978) and has averaged 40 or more points eight times since 1982, including four of the past seven seasons. The Huskers have ranked among the nation's top 10 in scoring average for 22 of the last 24 years (since 1978) and finished first on four occasions (1982, 1983, 1994 and 1997).

Before the loss at Colorado last season, NU had won 236 consecutive games when scoring 35 or more points, and the Huskers are 302-2 all time when scoring 35 or more points, losing only to Oklahoma, 49-35, in 1950 and at Colorado, 62-36, in 2001.

The last time the Huskers were shut out was a 19-0 loss at Arizona State in 1996. Nebraska has since scored in 85 straight games. Nebraska has not been shut out at home since KSU shut out the Huskers, 12-0, on Homecoming in 1968 (219 games). Offensively, the Huskers have been shut out just five times since 1962, including once at home during that span. The Huskers have not been shut out by a conference opponent since a 27-0 loss at Oklahoma in 1973. NU was shut out by Miami in the 1992 Orange Bowl (22-0), the only time the Huskers have been shut out in a bowl game.

Nebraska was held scoreless in the first half at Kansas in 1999, marking the first time that a regular-season opponent had accomplished that feat since the Arizona State game in 1996. Miami also held the Huskers scoreless in the first half of the 2002 Rose Bowl. The Huskers have scored 30 or more points in six of their last eight bowl games, including a school and NCAA bowl-record 66 vs. Northwestern in the 2000 Alamo Bowl.

Shutting Down the Opposition

The Huskers have won 102 straight games when holding opponents to 10 points or less dating back to a 10-7 loss to Iowa on Sept. 12, 1981. In fact, NU is 210-5-1 since 1962 (Devaney's first year) when holding opponents to 10 or fewer points, including 20-0 under Solich. NU has posted 100 shutouts in school history with 62 of them taking place since Bob Devaney's first season in 1962. The Huskers have four shutouts under Solich, most recently a 59-0 whitewash of Baylor in 2000.

Attack Defense Historically Solid vs. the Rush

Since going to the 4-3 attack defense in 1993, the Husker "D" has posted five of the school's top seven rush defense averages, allowing 79.3 ypg in 1994, 78.4 ypg in 1995 (back-to-back national championship teams), 83.8 ypg in 1996, 73.4 ypg in 1997 and 77.1 ypg in 1999. The 1997 average ranked second all time at NU and third nationally. Nebraska has never led the nation in rushing defense, but has ranked in the top 20 in six of the last eight years. Since 1946, the Nebraska defense has allowed 100 or fewer rushing yards per game over the course of the season 13 times, the first of which was 1963. NU is allowing 126.2 rushing yards per game in 2002 to rank 36th nationally. The Husker defense has put together two straight good rush defense outings, holding A&M to 53 yards and limiting Texas to just 79 yards on the ground.

Associated Press Poll Record Halted at 348 Weeks

Nebraska's loss at Iowa State dropped the Huskers out of the Associated Press Poll, ending its AP poll record at 348 consecutive weeks (every weekly AP poll since Oct. 17, 1981 to Sept. 22, 2002).

Nebraska has now been in 522 of the last 531 AP polls since 1969 (33 consecutive years), missing one week in 1977, two weeks in 1981 and the past six weeks. Nebraska was ranked among the top 10 in the 2002 preseason poll, which marked the 27th time in the last 30 years that NU has opened the season in the top 10. With a No. 8 final AP ranking in 2001, NU finished among the AP top 10 for the 30th time since the first poll in 1936 and for the 24th time since 1970.

Nebraska has been among the top 10 in the final AP poll eight of the last nine years (all except 1998). NU is the nation's fifth-most successful program based on AP rankings since the poll began, scoring 547 points, and NU was the only team to be ranked in every poll of the 1990s.

Nebraska's nation-leading streak of consecutive weeks in the AP top 10 ended at 54 with the loss at Penn State, but the Huskers have been ranked in the top 10 for 151 of the last 165 weeks, beginning with the 1993 preseason poll to present. Nebraska spent 96 straight weeks in the top 10 from 1993 to 1998.

Against AP Ranked Teams

Nebraska is 89-94-3 (.487, 186 games) all time vs. AP ranked opponents, not a bad percentage considering NU started with a 7-35 mark before Coach Bob Devaney came on the scene in 1962. Over the last nine seasons, the Huskers have gone 28-12 against ranked foes, with none of the losses at home. Nebraska has won 14 of its last 19 games against top 10 AP teams (since 1994).

The Huskers are 0-2 this season against AP ranked opponents, losing at No. 19 Iowa State 36-14 and to No. 7 Texas 27-24. Penn State was unranked by AP when it defeated NU, 40-7. Over the last 29 years, NU is 71-47-1 (.601, 119 games) vs. ranked teams. In the 1990s, NU was 27-10-1 (counting the Jan. 2, 2000, win over Tennessee).

Solich is 10-10 vs. ranked teams (4-5 vs. top 10 AP teams), and has not lost at home to a ranked AP team (6-1 home, 1-7 away, 3-2 neutral). Two remaining 2002 opponents are ranked in this week's AP poll, including 12th-ranked Kansas State and No. 18 Colorado.

NU vs. the Unranked

The Huskers have lost just 15 of 248 games to unranked AP opponents since 1973 (38-3 record under Solich). Nebraska has lost just five games to unranked opponents at home in that time. Oklahoma State's 24-21 win over Nebraska was the Huskers' second setback against an unranked foe in 2002. Although Penn State was ranked 25th according to the coaches at game time, the Nittany Lions were unranked by the Associated Press, marking NU's first loss to an unranked foe since a 20-16 defeat vs. Texas on Oct. 31, 1998. Nebraska had won 27 straight vs. unranked foes before the loss at Penn State.

Before the Oct. 19 loss in Stillwater, Iowa State's 19-10 upset of the Huskers in 1992 was the last time NU had lost a road game against a team that was not ranked in either poll. In the last 30 years, Nebraska has gone 231-15-2 against unranked AP opponents (.935, 248 games, six losses since 1990) and suffered only one loss to a team that finished the season below .500 (Iowa State in 1992). The last time NU lost in Lincoln to a team with a losing record at game time was to Kansas State (12-0) in 1968 (2-5 record at game time).

Husker Title Runs

Nebraska has played in 13 national championship bowl contests, winning back-to-back national championship titles in 1970 and 1971 and again in 1994 and 1995. In 1997, Nebraska went 13-0 and played in its fourth title game in a five-year period, winning the national title as named by the coaches poll, but not by the AP. Most recently, the Huskers played Miami for the national title in the 2002 Rose Bowl.

The Huskers' back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995 marked the ninth time overall (by just six Division I schools) and first time in 16 years that a team had repeated, since Alabama won back-to-back titles in 1978-79. Nebraska is only the second school to win undefeated and consensus back-to-back national titles, the first since Oklahoma accomplished that feat in 1955-56. No Division I-A school has won three consecutive national championships.

Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney (who passed away in May of 1997) won Nebraska's first national title in 1970 and repeated in 1971. Three teams, counting Nebraska, have repeated twice, including Oklahoma (1955-56 and 1974-75) and Alabama (1964-65 and 1978-79). Nebraska and Oklahoma are the only schools, since the coaches began picking national champions, to be unanimous repeat champions, in both polls, posting perfect, back-to-back national championship seasons. OU went 11-0 in 1955 and 10-0 in 1956. Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997 by coaches) and Notre Dame (1946, 1947, 1949 by AP) are the only two teams to win three national titles in a four-year period.

NU Tied for Fifth in AP Titles

Notre Dame leads the nation winning eight Associated Press national titles since 1936, with Oklahoma (7), Alabama (6), Miami (5), Nebraska and Minnesota are tied for fifth with four. While the Huskers were awarded the national title by the coaches in 1997, NU finished second to Michigan in the Associated Press poll. In 1970, NU was awarded the AP national title, but not the coaches (Texas was first, Ohio State second and NU third as the final poll was released before the bowl games were played). In the coaches poll (since 1950), Nebraska is tied for third with USC and Miami with four titles, behind Alabama's and Oklahoma's six.

The Huskers vs. AP No. 1

In the past 12 years, the Cornhuskers have faced seven teams that finished the season ranked No. 1 and won or shared the national title—Colorado and Georgia Tech (Citrus Bowl) in 1990, Washington and Miami (Orange Bowl) in 1991, Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl; Oklahoma in 2000; and Miami in the 2002 Rose Bowl. In addition, Nebraska's 1993 Federal Express Orange Bowl opponent, Florida State, missed winning the 1992 national title by a

Big 12 Conference Home Opener

Nebraska opened its 2002 Big 12 home schedule with a 24-13 victory against Missouri last Saturday. The win marked the 25th straight season Nebraska has won its conference home opener, dating back to a 24-21 loss to Iowa State in 1977. The win over Missouri was NU's fourth against the Tigers in the 25-game streak.

NU Continues Non-League Success in 2002

Nebraska completed its 2002 non-conference schedule with a 38-14 victory over McNeese State on Oct. 5. The Huskers finished their non-conference season with a 4-1 record, marking the 21st straight season Nebraska has lost one game or fewer in non-league action. The Huskers are 18-1 in non-conference games under Head Coach Frank Solich and have not lost a non-conference game at home under his direction. In fact, Nebraska's last non-conference home loss came in 1991 at the hands of fourth-ranked Washington. Since that loss, Nebraska has reeled off 31 straight non-conference home victories.

Darlington Top 300 Wins at Nebraska

Nebraska secondary coach George Darlington has been a part of the Husker coaching staff since 1973, Tom Osborne's first season as head coach. Darlington was a part of all 255 of Osborne's victories at Nebraska and has been a part of 48 Husker victories with Frank Solich at the helm—good for a total of 303 victories as a member of the NU coaching staff. The long-time NU coach was presented the game ball and a plaque on the field by Solich at the conclusion of the Husker win over Utah State.

"You can travel all across the country and it would be hard to find another coach that has reached that accomplishment," Solich said. "That is an amazing feat that George has accomplished. He is a great coach that has recruited a number of great athletes."

Solich was on the mark regarding Darlington's accomplishment. Research indicates that Darlington is the first Division I-A assistant to be a part of 300 victories at the same school. Husker offensive line coach Milt Tenopir who joined Osborne's staff after one season is not far behind Darlington with 294 wins as a Husker assistant.

'97 Husker Team Fills NFL Rosters

Nineteen members of Nebraska's 1997 national championship team are on NFL rosters. Seven of Nebraska's 11 defensive starters from that season are currently playing in the NFL, including starters Mike Rucker (Carolina), Grant Wistrom (St. Louis), Jay Foreman (Houston), Eric Warfield (Kansas City) and Mike Brown (Chicago). Other current NFL starters who started for the 1997 NU include RB Ahman Green (Green Bay), FB Joel Makovicka (Arizona) and PK Kris Brown (Houston).

field goal and finished No. 2.

The 1996 Fiesta Bowl game between Nebraska and Florida was the 30th meeting between the No. 1 and No. 2 AP teams, including 11 bowl games. The Huskers won 62-24, as Nebraska's 38-point margin of victory over Florida was the second largest in such games. Nebraska is 3-2 in No. 1 vs. No. 2 games, and 3-1 as the No. 1 team.

NCAA-Best Streak of 33 Straight Bowls

Including the 2002 Rose Bowl against Miami, Nebraska has now participated in 33 straight bowls, a continuing NCAA record. Nebraska's 40 bowl appearances overall are tied for fourth best, trailing Alabama's 51, Tennessee's 42, Texas' 41 and tied with USC's 40.

Nebraska has participated in a "major" bowl (BCS, Jan. 1 or top four) in 19 of the past 21 years. The 1998 Holiday Bowl appearance broke a streak of 17 consecutive major bowls. NU's 33 consecutive bowls streak began with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Nebraska is 20-20 all time in bowl games, 6-2 over the last eight years (2-2 under Solich). The 2002 Rose Bowl marked the 15th time in 17 bowl games that Nebraska has squared off against a team ranked among the top six. Nebraska's 1941 Rose Bowl appearance against Stanford (L, 13-21) was the school's first bowl appearance. Nebraska won four of its five national championships at the Orange Bowl, defeating Louisiana State in 1970, Alabama in 1971, Miami in 1994 and Tennessee in 1997. Nebraska defeated Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl for the national championship following the 1995 season.

Nebraska is one win from becoming bowl-eligible in 2002.

Huskers Continue Academic Tradition

Nebraska continues to lead the nation in Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for all sports and all teams with 196; in first-team winners for all sports with 104; and also leads the nation in football academic honor winners with 59 first-team certificates and 76 football all-teams certificates. The 196 is 51 better than second-place Notre Dame, while the 59 is 21 more than second-place Notre Dame's 38.

Last season, Nebraska continued its streak of 15 straight years with at least one first-team Verizon/CoSIDA All-American when tight end Tracey Wistrom won first-team honors, following in the footsteps of his older brother Grant (1996, 1997). NU had nine Huskers qualify academically (3.2 or better cumulative GPA) and athletically (starter or important reserve) in 2001. Of those, Wistrom, fullback Judd Davies, rush end Chris Kelsay and offensive tackle Dave Volk were first-team Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-District VII selections.

The Husker football program also leads the nation with nine NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners, 30 NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners and 20 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes, including Wistrom last season.

NU Grad Rates Rank High Nationally

Nebraska has led the Big 12 in four of the past five years in graduation rates (all except 2000). Nebraska's four-class (1990-91 to 1993-94) graduation rate was 57 percent. That figure is higher than the national average for all students (56 percent) and football student-athletes (50 percent). Nebraska's student-athlete graduation rate for all sports, which includes only those students who completed their eligibility at NU, is an outstanding 87 percent (national average is 81 percent). Nebraska was one of nine schools honored by the American Football Coaches Association, when the school received the 2002 Academic Achievement Award in late June. Nebraska was recognized for graduating 90 percent or more of its football student-athletes from the freshman class of 1996-97. Since Coach Solich's first year at the helm in 1998, 86 of his 95 seniors have earned their degree, including 22 of 23 last season.

This year's team has five student-athletes playing with degree in hand including Demoine Adams, who became the second Husker all time to graduate in three years (also Bobby Newcombe 1999), Patrick Kabongo (also a junior), Justin Smith, Dahrran Diedrick and Ben Cornelsen.

Kelsay Awarded National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award

Nebraska senior rush end Chris Kelsay is one of 14 college football players named to the 2002 National Scholar-Athlete Class by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The honorees will all receive postgraduate scholarships in the amount of $18,000 from the NFF/HOF.

The honorees come from all NCAA divisions as well as the NAIA and Kelsay is one of six honorees from the Division I-A ranks. The Auburn, Neb., native is a finance major and carries a 3.549 cumulative grade-point average. On the field, Kelsay is a three-year starter and is one of three Husker captains for the 2002 season. Kelsay is scheduled to graduate this December and has already begun work on his MBA.

The postgraduate scholarship adds to the long list of academic awards Kelsay has received during his Husker career. He is a three-time first-team academic All-Big 12 selection and was a Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-District VII pick in 2001. He is also an eight-time Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll member and a three-time High Honors Academic Medallion recipient.

Kelsay is one of three Big 12 players among the six Division I-A scholarship recipients. Oklahoma State offensive tackle Kyle Eaton and Texas Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury will also be awarded $18,000 postgraduate scholarships. In addition, this year's NAIA selection was Nebraska Wesleyan wide receiver Luke Klinker, an Omaha native. Kelsay is the 20th Husker to receive a NFF/HOF postgraduate scholarship, giving Nebraska the most of any school. He is the fourth player to receive a postgraduate scholarship during Frank Solich's tenure as head coach, joining fullback Joel Makovicka (1998), rush end Kyle Vanden Bosch (2000) and tight end Tracey Wistrom (2001).

To be eligible for a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame postgraduate scholarship, a player must be a senior or graduate student in his final year of eligibility, have a grade-point average of 3.0 or higher, have shown superior academic application and performance, have outstanding football ability as a first-team player, and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship.

Hassebroek Named to AFCA Good Works Team; Honored with Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship

Nebraska wingback Troy Hassebroek was presented the Brook Berringer Memorial Scholarship before the start of the McNeese State game. The scholarship is presented annually to a senior player, who is active in the community, following in the footsteps of quarterback Brook Berringer, who helped the Huskers to national championships in 1994 and 1995 before he was killed in a plane crash on April 18, 1996.

Earlier this fall, Hassebroek was one of 11 Division I-A players named to the American Football Coaches Association Good Works Team. The Good Works Team annually honors players for their dedication and commitment to community service. From 1992 to 1996, the Good Works Team was selected by the College Football Association and when the CFA disbanded in 1997, the AFCA began selecting the team.

Hassebroek is a senior who originally joined the Husker program as a walk-on from Lincoln High. He is currently the vice president of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Board after serving as a representative from the football team in 2001-02. He is also a member of the Nebraska Football Unity Council. In the Lincoln community Hassebroek has volunteered for Meals on Wheels and participates in Team Spirit hospital visits. Hassebroek also created and implemented Trick or Treat Street "Halloween Fun Night," a program in which each of Nebraska's 23 teams hosted a game booth and interacted with at-risk youth from the community.

Since the start of the Good Works Team Nebraska has had a nation-leading eight players selected to the team. Previous Husker Good Works honorees include Troy Branch (LB, 1992, 1993); Donta Jones (OLB, 1994); Aaron Graham (C, 1995); Jared Tomich (RE, 1996); Dan Alexander (IB, 1999) and Patrick Kabongo (DT, 2001).

Husker Sideline Report...

► Walk-ons Remain Crucial to Success...On the preseason depth chart, 29 of the 94 Huskers listed (30 percent) were walk-ons when they first came to Nebraska. Of those, seven have started in 2002, including Sam linebacker Scott Shanle and punter Kyle Larson, who are both returning starters, wingback Troy Hassebroek, left cornerback Pat Ricketts, rover Aaron Terpening, cornerback Shane Siegel and split end John Klem. In reward of their hard work and dedication, five of the seven (not counting Siegel and Klem) have since been awarded scholarships.

► Nebraska Natives...Twelve Huskers who hail from Nebraska are listed as first-teamers on the NU depth chart, including seven on the offensive side of the ball, SE Wilson Thomas (Omaha), LG Mike Erickson (Omaha), RG Wes Cody (Fremont), TE Aaron Golliday (York), FB Judd Davies (Omaha), IB David Horne (Omaha) and WB Troy Hassebroek (Lincoln); four on the defensive side of the ball, LRE Chris Kelsay (Auburn), SLB Scott Shanle (St. Edward), MLB Barrett Ruud (Lincoln), RRE Trevor Johnson (Lincoln); and punter Kyle Larson (Funk).

► Family Connections...It's all in the family at NU, as several Huskers followed their fathers and brothers to NU. Those who followed in their older brothers' footsteps include: DB Delrick Williams (2002-present, brother, Jamel, 1994-96); RE Chris Kelsay (1998-present, brother Chad, 1995-98); FS Dan Burrow (2000-present, brother Jamie, 1998-2001); LCB Cole Biodrowski (2002-present) and SE Brandon (2001-present); WB Adam Hassebroek (2001-present) and WB Troy (1998-present); and FS Andrew Shanle (2002-present) and SLB Scott (1998-present). The Huskers welcomed the first set of scholarship twins in the program's history last year in redshirt freshmen Josh (FS) and Daniel Bullocks (Rover).

Second generation Huskers include the Burrows (father Jim played in 1974-75 and is now a graduate assistant for NU); junior rover IB Josh Davis (father Tony played in 1973-75); FS Brett Lindstrom (father Dan played in 1978-80); MLB Barrett Ruud (father Tom played in 1972-74 and Ruud's great-grandfather Clarence Swanson played for NU from 1918 to 1921 and is a member of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame); RE Trevor Johnson (father Robert wrestled for NU in 1973-76) and RCB Shane Siegel (father Robert played basketball for NU in 1974-77).

► Non-Redshirts...Along with five true freshmen who have played this season, nine other Huskers have bypassed redshirt seasons during their careers. The following are listed along with their true freshman year: Philip Bland (2001); Barrett Ruud (2001); Mike Stuntz (2001); Willie Amos (2000, will redshirt in 2002 due to injury); Terrell Butler (2000); T.J. Hollowell (2000); Benard Thomas (2000, may redshirt in 2002); John Garrison (1999); and Jason Lohr (1998).

► Huskers in the NFL...35 former Huskers were listed on opening day NFL rosters in 2002. With four selections in the 2002 draft, NU has had 221 players picked since 1970, an average of seven per year. The Huskers rank 11th nationally with 30 first-round draft picks (including 11 in the last 16 drafts). Huskers drafted in 2002 include Outland Trophy finalist Toniui Fonoti (second round, San Diego), Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch (third round, St. Louis), All-American Keyuo Craver (fourth, New Orleans) and Tracey Wistrom (seventh, Tampa Bay).

► Husker Running Back Success in the NFL...A pair of former Husker I-backs found success in the NFL in 2001. Green Bay's Ahman Green (1995-97) ranks among the NFL rushing leaders and topped 1,000 yards for the second straight season and was selected to the Pro Bowl, while Correll Buckhalter (1997-2000) ranked among the Eagles' rushing leaders with nearly 600 yards, including an Eagles' rookie record with 134 yards against Arizona in October. Four former NU running backs are on NFL teams, including starting fullbacks Joel Makovicka (1995-98) with the Arizona Cardinals and Cory Schlesinger (1992-94) with the Detroit Lions.

► Pipeline to the NFL...Under longtime Husker offensive line coach Milt Tenopir, Nebraska offensive linemen have enjoyed unparalleled success with six Outland Trophy winners, two Lombardi Award winners and 21 All-Americans in Tenopir's 28 seasons at NU. Eight former Husker linemen are in the NFL, including former Outland winners Will Shields (1992, Kansas City) and Zach Wiegert (1994, Jacksonville). Adam Treu (Oakland), Dominic Raiola (Detroit) and Brenden Stai (Washington) join Shields and Wiegert as starters for their respective teams. Other Husker offensive linemen in the NFL include Chris Dishman (Arizona), Aaron Graham (Tennessee) and Toniui Fonoti (San Diego). Raiola and Hochstein both earned first-team All-America honors in 2000. Of the 15 linemen chosen for the Walter Camp All-Century team in 1999, nearly a quarter of the players selected were NU linemen coached by Tenopir (guards Aaron Taylor, Will Shields and Dean Steinkuhler and center Dave Rimington).

► Orange Bowl Record...Coach Frank Solich holds the Orange Bowl record for most kickoff return yards in a game, with 130 in 1966. Solich was the first Husker to rush for more than 200 yards (204 vs. Air Force, 1965) and remains the only fullback to do so.

► Former Head Coach Tom Osborne...Former coach and current Congressman Tom Osborne coached the Huskers to three national championships (1994, 1995, 1997) and retired as head football coach on Dec. 10, 1997. He is the only collegiate football coach to retire as a reigning national champion. Osborne now serves in the United States Congress, as a representative of Nebraska's third congressional district. Osborne's and his Teammates mentoring program will be recognized at the Nebraska-Colorado game on Nov. 29 at Memorial Stadium.

A Look at the Numbers

► Scoring Drives...

The Huskers' 41 scoring drives (33 TD, 8 FG) by the offense have covered an average of 53.9 yards (2,209 total yards/41 drives). Nebraska produced its shortest drive in terms of plays, yards and time with a one-play, 2-yard drive in just four seconds with Judd Davies' 2-yard run against Iowa State. NU had two, one-play drives against ISU, including Jammal Lord's 90-yard TD strike to Ross Pilkington. NU's other one-play drive came with a Lord 23-yard pass to Wilson Thomas against Utah State. The Huskers marched on their longest drive with a 16-play, 91-yard drive that took 6:59 against Troy State. NU added a 16-play, 82-yard drive that resulted in a Josh Brown field goal vs. McNeese State. Texas managed a season-long 97-yard drive that lasted 17 plays and 7:45 in the third quarter. Troy State owns a season-short one-play, six-yard drive that lasted just seven seconds.

► Long Season Plays (25 or more yards)...

The Huskers have produced 42 long plays on the year, including season highs with six long plays against Missouri and Texas. NU got three long runs, one long pass and two long returns against Texas, while notching two long runs and four long returns against the Tigers, including the third-longest punt return in school history with DeJuan Groce's 89-yard return for touchdown. Groce, who has five long punt returns on the season, added TD returns of 83 and 72 yards against Troy State to tie an NCAA record. Josh Davis has 10 long kickoff returns on the year, including a season-long 49-yarder against Texas. NU's other long return on the year came with Fabian Washington's 29-yard interception return for a score against Arizona State. Jammal Lord has added big-play potential with 10 of Nebraska's 18 long runs on the year, including a career-long 57-yard scoring run against McNeese State. Lord has also connected on eight long pass plays, including a career-long 90-yard scoring strike to Ross Pilkington at Iowa State. Mark LeFlore owns two long runs, including NU's longest run of the year with his 64-yard touchdown run on his first career carry against McNeese State. Texas A&M's Byron Jones produced the longest opponent play this season with his 66-yard fumble return for a touchdown. Troy State's Hansell Bearden hit Heyward Skipper on a 60-yard pass play, while Missouri's Zack Abron owns the longest run by an opponent (48).

► Nebraska Points Off Turnovers...

On the year, NU has intercepted 11 passes and recovered three fumbles for 14 turnovers gained. DeJuan Groce leads the Huskers with four interceptions, including a pair of interceptions in back-to-back games against Troy State and Utah State. Fabian Washington has added three interceptions, including two picks of Seneca Wallace, and a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown against Arizona State. Pat Ricketts owns two interceptions (Utah State and Texas A&M), Philip Bland added an interception at Texas A&M and Josh Bullocks nabbed his first career interception vs. Texas. The Huskers converted both of Groce's interceptions against Utah State, and Washington's fumble recovery at Oklahoma State into touchdowns, and NU turned Ricketts' interception at Texas A&M into a field goal to give NU 31 points off turnovers this season. Washington also forced a fumble recovered by Bland at Iowa State, while Jon Clanton stripped Troy State's DeWhitt Betterson, and Ricketts recovered NU's first fumble of the season.

▶ Husker 100-Yard Rushing Games (7)

The Huskers produced their seventh 100-yard rushing game of the year when Jammal Lord broke his own school quarterback record with 234 yards on 23 carries against Texas. Lord's effort tied Roger Craig (Florida State, 1981) for the 10th-best single-game total in NU history. It was Lord's second 200-yard performance of the year, joining his 218 yards on 17 carries vs. McNeese State. Lord owns five of NU's seven 100-yard games, while true freshman David Horne possesses Nebraska's other two 100-yard games. Lord (159) and Horne (128) combined for NU's first double 100-yard rushing game of the season in Nebraska's 38-31 win over Texas A&M. Lord set an NU quarterback record with 30 carries against Texas A&M, and Horne set career highs with 128 yards and four touchdowns, while tying his career best with 24 carries against the Aggies. Three opposing backs, Penn State's Larry Johnson (19-123-2), Iowa State's Michael Wagner (19-107-0) and Oklahoma State's Tatum Bell (33-182-0) have managed 100 yards.

▶ Starting Field Position

Nebraska has started 26 of its 135 drives beyond midfield, but has started 26 drives inside its own 20, with a worst start at the 1-yard line at Penn State. Opponents have started 17 drives on NU's side of the field. Kyle Larson has buried opponents inside the 20 on 14 occasions, including three each against Troy State and Oklahoma State. Larson pinned Texas at its own 2 for the worst start by an opponent. Josh Brown has boomed 32-of-56 kickoffs for touchbacks, while eight of his 24 others have stuck opponents inside the 20, including a worst start at the 6 by Arizona State. The best field position off a Brown kickoff came at the Oklahoma State 46 on NU's unsuccessful on-side kick attempt. The best opponent starts off returns have come at the 39 (Texas A&M and Texas).

Nebraska Media Information and Policies

▶ All player and coach interviews must be arranged at least one day in advance through the Husker Sports Information Office. Contact Chris Anderson, Keith Mann, Jeff Griesch, or graduate intern Josh Maxson (402) 472-2263. All interviews will be conducted in the South Stadium Offices, or on the field. Please do not approach players for interviews in the weight room, Hewitt Center, training room or hallways. The Nebraska locker room, training room and football office meeting rooms are OFF-LIMITS to the media and general public. Please check in at the SID Office, when arriving for interviews.

▶ Players home phone numbers will NOT be given to the media. NU players are available (by prearrangement and depending on class schedules) at the Tuesday press conferences from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. and after practice on the field. No player interviews will be allowed the two days prior to a game (Thursday and Friday for Saturday game).

▶ Practices are closed to the media and to the general public; however, photographers and videographers are allowed to shoot the first 15 minutes of each practice (or until warmups are over), then will be asked to leave until practice is completed.

▶ After all games, Nebraska's locker room is closed, requested players and coaches will be brought to the Postgame Interview Room/Players' Lounge after a 10-minute cooling off period. The postgame interview room is located on the field level at the Southeast Corner of the Stadium.

▶ During the season, Coach Solich is available on the Big 12 teleconference on Monday, the Nebraska teleconference on Tuesday and in person on the field each day after practice.

Coach Solich/Player Press Conferences:

Nebraska Head Coach Frank Solich will conduct weekly Tuesday press/teleconferences in the Don Bryant Media Facility Level 6, prior to home and away games. After an 11 a.m. lunch, Coach Solich will address the media at Noon and will answer questions until approximately 12:30. Nebraska Volleyball Coach John Cook will be available each week at 11:15 a.m. and soccer coach John Walker will be available on request. Nebraska Defensive Coordinator Craig Bohl will precede Solich at 11:50 a.m. Each press conference will be available via the Huskers subscription website (HuskersNside) on Huskers.com. NU's press conferences on Tuesday will also be televised live by ESPN News, which has exclusive live rights to the press conference satellite feed. Stations other than ESPN are prohibited from using its satellite feed for live coverage, but are welcome to use the satellite feed on a delayed basis.

Please contact Vicki Cartwright in the Nebraska Sports Information Office at 402-472-2263 to obtain the press conference 800 number and weekly passcode. Players are available by request from 12:30 - 1:30 p.m., and at least two players will be on the conference line, before those in attendance break up for individual player interviews. Player requests must be a day in advance. Solich quotes will be transcribed and placed on fax on demand and on Huskers.com, NU's official athletic department website. Audio quotes from the press conference are edited and placed on NewsNetNebraska, courtesy of UNL Broadcasting.
