

Nebraska Post-Game Notes

Nebraska at Northwestern, Sept. 24, 2016, Memorial Stadium, Lincoln, Neb.

4—Nebraska improved to 4-0 for the second time in three seasons (2014) and this marks the fourth time Nebraska has started 4-0 since 2010.

- Nebraska's win improved the Huskers to 4-2 in Big Ten openers.
- Nebraska won its first Big Ten road game for the first time since 2013 at Purdue.
- Nebraska's victory improved the Huskers to 7-3 all-time against Northwestern, including a 4-2 record against the Wildcats as Big Ten foes.
- Nebraska's win marked the fifth time in six games the road team has won the Nebraska-Northwestern game, dating back to 2011.

132—Quarterback Tommy Armstrong Jr. rushed times for a career-high 132 yards in the game, bettering his 131 rushing yards vs. McNeese State in 2014. Tonight's game marked Armstrong's second career 100-yard rushing game. He rushed for 95 yards last week against Oregon.

1,500—With his 132 rushing yards, Armstrong increased his career rushing total to 1,558. He is the seventh Nebraska quarterback with 1,500 career rushing yards.

9,000—In addition to his 132 rushing yards, Armstrong passed for 246 yards and one touchdown and accounted for 378 yards of total offense. Armstrong increased his career total offense to 9,210 and became the second Husker with 9,000 career yards of total offense. He trails only Taylor Martinez's school-record 10,233 career yards of total offense.

- Armstrong topped 300 yards of total offense for the 12th time in his career, continuing to extend his own Nebraska record.

200—The Huskers are now 7-0 under Head Coach Mike Riley when rushing for at least 200 yards, including 3-0 in 2016.
