2024 SEASON NOTEBOOK

MATT RHULE SET FOR SECOND SEASON

Matt Rhule is in his second season at Nebraska in 2024. Rhule is in his 12th season as a head coach after previously leading programs at Temple (2013-16) and Baylor (2017-19) along with an NFL stint as head coach of the Carolina Panthers (2020-22).

- Rhule owns a career record of 52-50 in his eight seasons as a college head coach. He took on a rebuilding project in each of his three college stops and excluding his first year at each school, Rhule boasts a 44-22 record with three 10-win seasons in five years.
- He has a proven record as a program builder. Rhule's college teams have taken a step forward in his second season at each school. Temple improved by four wins in Rhule's second season in 2014 and Baylor improved by six wins in his second season in 2018, an improvement that led all power conference teams and ranked third in the FBS.
- In his first season at Nebraska, Rhule led the Huskers to five victories, tying its most wins since 2016. The Huskers also posted their first undefeated October since 2001.
- Nebraska ranked among the nation's 15 most improved teams in numerous statistical categories, including rushing offense, rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense. The Huskers also boasted their top rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense since joining the Big Ten in 2011.

HUSKER STAFF BOLSTERED BY NCAA RULE CHANGE

The Huskers return eight of their 10 full-time assistants from last season, welcoming two new full-time assistants to the coaching staff. In addition to the two new assistants, an NCAA rule change has permitted additional staff members to provide on-field coaching.

- Glenn Thomas has joined Nebraska as quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator. He came to Lincoln after one season as an offensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers, helping the Steelers to a berth in the AFC playoffs in 2023.
- Thomas spent five seasons on Matt Rhule's coaching staffs at Temple and Baylor, serving as the offensive coordinator for the Owls in 2016 and as the co-offensive coordinator at Baylor from 2017 to 2019. Thomas also has recent experience as a quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at Arizona State (2022) and UNLV (2020-21).
- John Butler is the Huskers' new secondary coach and pass game coordinator. Butler came to Nebraska after spending the previous six seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. Buffalo had a top-five pass defense rating in five of his six seasons, helping the Bills win four AFC North titles and make five playoff appearances.
- With the removal of the NCAA rule limiting the number of on-field coaches, Matt Rhule announced 10 additional staff members who will provide additional on-field coaching this fall.

ADDITIONAL COACHING RESPONSIBILITIES

- Josh Bringuel (assistant linebackers)
- Ron Brown (fullbacks and returners)
- Aaron Coeling (assistant offensive line)
- Adam DiMichele (assistant secondary/safeties)
- Josh Martin (assistant special teams)
- Kevin McGarry (senior defensive analyst)

A LOOK AT THE HUSKER OFFENSE

Nebraska returns 18 offensive players who started at least one game last fall, including 10 players who made at least six starts in 2023. The 2023 Husker offense relied on a strong running game, averaging 176.8 yards per game on the ground to rank second in the Big Ten in rushing.

Nebraska returns 56 percent of its rushing yards, nearly 60 percent of its passing yards and 75 percent of its scoring from the 2023 season.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Nebraska returns a group of veteran linemen who are among the Huskers' most battle-tested performers. The group has a combined 153 collegiate starts, with three players with at least 30 career starts.

Bryce Benhart started all 12 games last season and has 41 career starts, tying the most ever by a Husker offensive lineman. Benhart returns for his sixth season after earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors last fall.

Ben Scott was also an honorable-mention all-conference choice in his first year with the Huskers. He started 11 games and has 39 career starts including his time at Arizona State.

Turner Corcoran started seven games before suffering a season-ending injury and has 31 career starts at Nebraska. Teddy Prochazka made six starts in 2023 and has 11 starts in his Nebraska career.

Justin Evans moved into a starting role late last season as the Huskers battled injuries and returns for his sophomore season. Junior Henry Lutovsky also has four career starts on the offensive line. Adding to the returnees is veteran transfer Micah Mazzucca who has 21 career starts between his time at Baylor and Florida.

QUARTERBACK

Junior Heinrich Haarberg is NU's lone returning quarterback with collegiate experience. A dual threat quarterback, Haarberg started eight games in 2023, leading NU to a 5-3 record. He is Nebraska's leading returning passer and rusher. Luke Longval is the only other returning quarterback while four new players enter the mix. The new quarterbacks include 2023 NAIA Player of the Year Jalyn Gramstad and a pair of highly recruited freshmen: Daniel Kaelin and Dylan Raiola, with Raiola regarded as the No. 1 high school quarterback in his class.

RUNNING BACK

The Huskers return three running backs with extensive experience at Nebraska and add a talented transfer at the position. Sixth-year senior Rahmir Johnson missed the final nine games of 2023 with an injury but has nearly 1,000 career all-purpose yards including 739 rushing yards. Junior Gabe Ervin Jr. has also been slowed by injuries throughout his career, but has more than 400 career rushing yards.

Emmett Johnson emerged last season after Rahmir Johnson and Ervin were sidelined by injuries. Johnson played in every game with six starts and ran for more than 400 yards as a redshirt freshman. Kwinten Ives saw action as a true freshman and looks to build on his role this season. Sophomore Dante Dowdell played in six games at Oregon last fall before joining the Huskers in January. Barret Liebenritt returns at fullback after seeing playing time last season.

WHAT NEBRASKA RETURNS ON DEFENSE

CATEGORY	RETURNING	% RET.	RET. LEADER
Tackles	511	66%	Gifford (86)
Tackles For Loss	58.0	76%	Butler (8.5)

RECEIVER/TIGHT END

Nebraska returns several pass catchers who made an impact last season and added a pair of veterans through the transfer portal. Junior tight end Thomas Fidone II made 25 catches for 260 yards and four touchdowns last season, topping Husker returnees in each of those categories. Fellow junior Nate Boerkircher has played in 27 games with 11 starts in his career at Nebraska, while Luke Lindenmeyer saw significant action as a third tight end as a redshirt freshman.

Junior Alex Bullock is the most veteran of Nebraska's returning wideouts after making eight starts last season and catching 15 passes. Malachi Coleman (8 catches, 1 TD) and Jaylen Lloyd (6 catches, 3 TD) both saw action as true freshmen last season and could grow into larger roles this fall. Isaiah Garcia-Castaneda was injured in the first game last season but has 766 career receiving yards, the most of any returning Husker. Janiran Bonner played a key role at fullback last season and has moved to wideout.

Nebraska added a pair of veteran wideouts in the transfer portal. Jahmal Banks (Wake Forest) and Isaiah Neyor (Texas/Wyoming) add big-body targets and extensive game experience to the NU passing game. Banks (1,404) and Neyor (1,140) own the most career receiving yards of any players on Nebraska's roster.

A LOOK AT THE HUSKER DEFENSE

Nebraska returns a strong core of veterans who helped the Huskers rank as one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2023. Nebraska finished 11th nationally in total defense and was eighth against the run. Six players who started at least eight games last season return for the Blackshirts in 2024. The Huskers return at least two-thirds of last season's total in tackles, tackles for loss, sacks and interceptions.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive front is anchored by a pair of returning All-Big Ten players in nose tackle Nash Hutmacher and defensive end Ty Robinson. Hutmacher was among the league's most disruptive interior players, racking up eight tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks among his 40 tackles. Hutmacher spent the winter wrestling for Nebraska as the starting heavyweight.

Robinson has started 34 games in his Husker career and returns for a sixth season. He had four tackles for loss, six breakups and led the Huskers with 11 quarterback hurries. Jimari Butler started six games at defensive end last season and led Nebraska with 8.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. Cam Lenhardt returns for his sophomore season after making a splash in 2023 with five tackles for loss and three sacks. Riley Van Poppel and James Williams showed flashes in their debut seasons last year and are poised for a larger role in 2024.

LINEBACKER

Nebraska returns five players who started at least one game at linebacker last season. The leader of that group is sixth-year senior John Bullock who made 10 starts and ranked fourth on the team with 50 tackles. Fellow senior MJ Sherman started five games at the JACK position and finished the season with 16 tackles.

Senior Javin Wright made only one start last season, but established himself as a playmaker. He was NU's second-leading tackler with 51 stops and had two interceptions and a forced fumble. Mikai Gbayer has the versatility to play inside or at the JACK position. He started four games in 2023 and finished with 24 tackles and three TFLs. Princewill Umanmielen was one of the top freshmen linebackers in the Big Ten in 2023 and made 22 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss.

SECONDARY

The secondary features four returnees with at least 13 career starts. Leading the way is fifth-year senior Isaac Gifford, a Lincoln native who started every game at rover last season. Gifford led the Huskers with 86 tackles, including 6.5 tackles for loss, while adding eight pass breakups. Gifford is one of three safeties with extensive experience. Marques Buford Jr. played in only the final four games last season after recovering from a knee injury. Buford has 13 career starts and 80 career tackles. DeShon Singleton proved to be a great fit in NU's defensive scheme early last season before missing the final seven games with a knee injury. Singleton made 19 tackles and 2.5 TFLs in his shortened campaign.

Malcolm Hartzog is the most versatile defender in the secondary. The junior has started at both cornerback and safety in his career and had 40 tackles with six pass breakups in 2023. Cornerback Tommi Hill was one of the league's best cornerbacks over the second half of the 2023 season. Hill led the Huskers with four interceptions and nine breakups and had 26 tackles.

A pair of transfers will bolster the secondary. A late summer addition, USC transfer Ceyair Wright joins Nebraska after starting 15 games in two seasons as a Trojan. FCS transfer Blye Hill was impressive during the spring but suffered an injury that could limit his availability this fall.

A LOOK AT THE HUSKER SPECIAL TEAMS

Nebraska returns both its starting place-kicker and punter for the 2024 season. Tristan Alvano connected on nine field goals and all 27 of his PAT attempts as a true freshman last fall. He also handled the majority of the Huskers' kickoff duties.

Punter Brian Buschini returns for his third season with the Huskers. Buschini averaged nearly 41 yards per punt last season and downed 20 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

Nebraska returns numerous players with kickoff return experience led by Rahmir Johnson and Tommi Hill. Receiver Alex Bullock also saw time at punt returner last fall.

OFFENSIVE, DEFENSIVE LINES FULL OF VETERANS

Nebraska boasts returning experience throughout its roster, but no position group matches the Husker offensive line in game experience. Seven of Nebraska's returning offensive linemen have played in at least 12 games in their college careers, including five players who have seen action in at least 26 contests.

- Nebraska's offensive linemen have a combined 224 games played in their college careers with an impressive 153 career starts between them. The 153 combined starts rank fourth nationally among all FBS teams entering the 2024 season.
- Sixth-year senior right tackle Bryce Benhart leads the way with 47 games played and 41 career starts. His 41 starts are tied for the most in school history by an offensive lineman. By the end of the 2024 season, Benhart is in line to set Nebraska records for career games played and career starts for any player at any position.
- Along with Benhart, Ben Scott (39), Turner Corcoran (31) and Micah Mazzucca (21) give the Huskers a quartet of linemen who have each started more than 20 games, all at a power conference program.
- Nebraska is also experienced along the defensive front heading into the 2024 season. The Huskers return four defensive linemen who made at least four starts last season in Ty Robinson (12), Nash Hutmacher (12), Jimari Butler (6) and Cam Lenhardt (4).
- Robinson has started 33 games in his Nebraska career. His 33 career starts are 11 more than any other defensive player on the NU roster.

NOTING NEBRASKA'S SCHEDULE

Nebraska will play three non-conference games and nine Big Ten contests in 2024, including games against UCLA and USC, each of whom are in their first season as a Big Ten member. The 2024 season marks the first time since Nebraska joined the conference in 2011 that the Big Ten will not utilize a divisional format.

- Nebraska will play Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Ohio State, Purdue, Rutgers, UCLA, USC and Wisconsin. The Huskers will not play Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Northwestern, Oregon, Penn State or Washington.
- The 2024 season begins on Aug. 31, when the Huskers host UTEP at Memorial Stadium. This year marks the first season since 2019 that Nebraska is playing its first game of the season at home, and it is also the first time since 2019 that the Huskers have opened the season against a non-conference opponent.
- The Huskers are also playing in August for the fourth straight season and for the fifth time in the past five full seasons (2020 excluded).
- Nebraska will play each of its first four games at home. The four straight home games to open the season marks the Huskers' longest season-opening homestand since 2013 (five games).
- Beginning with the Colorado game on Sept. 7, the Huskers will play three consecutive home night games for only the third time in program history (also 2002 and 2008).
- The Big Ten opener is against Illinois on Friday, Sept. 20 at Memorial Stadium. That contest will likely mark Nebraska's NCAA-record 400th consecutive sellout while also being the Huskers' first weekday home game since 2001, when Nebraska played Rice on Thursday, Sept. 20, in a game postponed five days due to the Sept. 11 attacks.

NEBRASKA AMONG TOP ALL-TIME PROGRAMS

Nebraska will play its 135th season this fall, and the Huskers have historically been one of the top programs in college football history.

- Nebraska ranks eighth in NCAA history with 917 wins and eighth with 53 all-time bowl game appearances.
- NU has won five national championships. The Huskers' four AP national titles (1970, 1971, 1994, 1995) rank seventh all-time and NU's four coaches poll titles (1971, 1994, 1995, 1997) rank fourth.
- Nebraska's 46 conference titles rank second in NCAA history.
- The success extends to the classroom as well. Nebraska football has produced more Academic All-Americans (108) and NCAA Top 10 Award winners (9) than any other team in any sport in NCAA history.

HUSKER POWER

HUSKER POWER: A NATIONAL LEADER

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Football.

NEBRASKA WAS THE FIRST TO:

- Have a paid strength coach
- Lift weights in-season
- Hold a summer conditioning class
- Offer a degree for strength coaching

In the spring of 2024, Nebraska moved into a 32,000-square foot facility as part of the Osborne Legacy Complex. This facility overlooks the Gass Practice Fields and is adjacent to the Hawks Championship Center. The advanced strength and conditioning facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming.

Led by Corey Campbell, a total of five full-time strength and conditioning coaches are devoted to working with the football team. The staff works with Husker football student-athletes teaching proper strength and conditioning techniques, allowing them to reach their maximum potential. Nebraska also has a full-time football sports science coordinator.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American. Today, all major national award winners and College Football Hall of Fame inductees at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

HISTORY OF THE BLACKSHIRTS

One of Nebraska's most well-known traditions is the Blackshirts, the common nickname for the Husker defense. The term originally dates back to the early 1960s and refers to the black jerseys that Nebraska's first-string defenders wear in practice.

With the return of the two-platoon system in college football in 1964, Head Coach Bob Devaney looked for a way to distinguish the defensive units on the practice field. Devaney sent an assistant coach to a local sporting goods store to find "contrast jerseys", a sleeveless pullover that went on top of the players' practice jerseys. While the top offensive unit practiced in red jerseys and the second-string offense worked in green pullovers, the first-string defense wore black and the second string wore contrasting gold jerseys.

The term quickly caught on and then gained momentum during Monte Kiffin's tenure as defensive coordinator in the mid-1970s. The Blackshirts earned national recognition under Charlie McBride, who served as the Huskers' defensive coordinator from 1982 to 1999.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

- Under first-year defensive coordinator Tony White, Nebraska was 11th nationally in total defense and 13th nationally in scoring defense in 2024.
- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total defense 22 times since 1964.
- Nebraska has ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense 23 times since 1964, including leading the nation in scoring defense in 1984 and 2009.
- Nebraska has ranked among the top 10 in all four major defensive categories (rush defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense) on five occasions, including national title seasons in 1994, 1995 and 1997, and most recently in 2009.
- Opponents have traditionally found moving the ball through the air difficult against the Blackshirts, as the Huskers have ranked in the top 10 in passing defense 18 times in the past five decades.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. Tutorial support is provided both in-person and virtually. Nebraska's tutorial program is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Student-athletes attend a supervised study hall within the newly-opened Osborne Legacy Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week and/or a list of academic tasks as determined by their academic counselor, learning specialist and coach.

MENTORING

Academic staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and select returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

All student-athletes are provided the opportunity to have a laptop for use during their academic career at Nebraska. The Osborne Legacy Complex has printers and desktop computers available for student-athletes to use in the facility. A full-time computer specialist is on-site and available to assist with technology needs.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

The purpose of the Performance Nutrition department is to provide services that enhance the student-athlete's overall health and recovery.

GOALS

- To offer a variety of food and beverage products that are readily available and accessible for all student-athletes.
- To provide a wealth of education and resources that each student-athlete can utilize to enhance their overall level of knowledge and awareness as it pertains to fueling their body for competition and recovery.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

Performance Nutrition seeks to provide fueling options and education to Husker student-athletes, so they are adequately prepared and knowledgeable on the impact nutrition can have in their lives as athletes and after sport.

NUTRITION OVERVIEW

Our Training Table is the primary resource for student-athletes to seek out holistic fueling options. Our Training Table operates and sets its menus with a student-athlete first mentality. We seek to provide healthy, accommodating nutrition options for all our athletes at breakfast, lunch and dinner. The Training Table also features a demo kitchen, allowing our student-athletes to practice their culinary skills and learn more about making nutritious meals.

Our fueling stations are the secondary resource for student-athletes to fulfill their fueling needs. The primary goal of our fueling stations is to provide quick and easy sources of nutrition and hydration to supplement training and competition.

Husker Bucks are provided to student-athletes to supplement meals on their own. Athletes have the chance to purchase a meal at local restaurants or to use for groceries at the grocery store.

EDUCATION AND CONSULTATION

Each team has a sport specific dietitian who oversees the nutritional needs per team. Our dietitians are a great resource for education and consultation to our student-athletes. The dietitians conduct DEXAs for bone density and lean mass trending, hydration testing, consult with athletes individually, provide nutrition education team talks (hydration, pre-workout fueling, recovery nutrition), host cooking classes and grocery store tours, and assist with fueling options surrounding competitions.

HUSKERS & FLIK

Flik athletics specializes in fueling athletes. Flik Athletics currently fuels over 25 professional teams across NFL, NBA, WNBA, MLB, MLS and USL Championship league. Nebraska will be the first college athletic program they have partnered with. In partnership with team dietitians, trainers, and coaches, Flik's team of chefs and dietitians create customized hospitality services and programming that elevate the athlete's culinary experience.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie “R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity” category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 18 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. Being in the Big Ten Academic Alliance gives Nebraska several advantages, including: access to library collections across the conference, reduced costs through tech collaborations, lower student costs on course materials through collective purchasing and licensing, and study abroad partnerships and course-sharing agreements — students can take courses across Big Ten institutions.

MATT RHULE

[HEAD COACH]

2ND YEAR | 12TH YEAR AS A HEAD COACH

[HONORS & AWARDS]

- » 2019 Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- » 2019 AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year
- » 2019 Big 12 Coach of the Year

Matt Rhule is in his second season as Nebraska's head coach entering the 2024 campaign. The 31st head coach in school history, Rhule led the Cornhuskers to a 5-7 record in 2023. Rhule has more than a decade of head coaching experience having previously served as head coach of the Carolina Panthers in the National Football League with successful collegiate stints leading the Baylor and Temple programs.

The 2023 season marked Rhule's 12th season as a head coach and his 27th season as a full-time coach. Highly regarded as a program builder and player developer, Rhule has a proven track record of collegiate success.

The 49-year-old Rhule orchestrated quick rebuilds at both Baylor and Temple. Temple won only two games in Rhule's first season but in year three, the Owls set a school record for victories and played in the conference championship game. After leading Temple to a conference title the next season, Rhule moved on to Baylor with similar success. The Bears won only one game in Rhule's first season but in his third year, Baylor won a school-record 11 games and played in the Big 12 Championship Game and the Sugar Bowl. Rhule experienced greater success in his first season at Nebraska, guiding the Huskers to five victories.

HEAD COACHING CAREER

NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS: Rhule led Nebraska to a 5-7 record in his first season in 2023, tying for the program's most victories in seven seasons. In the final year of Big Ten divisions, Rhule led the Huskers to three West Division wins, matching NU's total from the previous three seasons combined. NU also went undefeated in the month of October for the first time since 2001.

Rhule and his staff helped Nebraska rank among the nation's 15 most-improved teams in rushing defense, rushing offense, total defense and scoring defense. The Huskers also showed improvement in special teams, ranking second nationally with four blocked kicks. Individually, Rhule and his staff helped 10 Huskers earn All-Big Ten honors, including seven returning players who were recognized for the first time in their careers.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Following successful stints as the head coach at Baylor and Temple, Rhule moved on to the National Football League as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers. Rhule coached the Panthers for two-plus seasons, posting an 11-27 record.

Rhule inherited a Carolina team that had lost eight straight games to finish the 2019 season. He led the Panthers to a 3-2 start in 2020 before finishing with a 5-11 record that included eight one-score losses.

Carolina won its first three games of the 2021 season before injuries at the quarterback position contributed to a 5-12 record. Rhule then led the Panthers to a 1-4 record through the first five weeks of the 2022 season.

BAYLOR: Rhule produced an impressive turnaround in three seasons as Baylor's head coach from 2017 to 2019, guiding the Bears to a 19-20 record.

Baylor won only one game in Rhule's first season in 2017 but two years later, the Bears went 11-3, becoming the first team from a Power Five Conference to go from 11 losses to 11 wins in two or fewer seasons.

Baylor finished 1-11 in 2017 but eight of the losses were by 14 points or less, including four one-score losses. But Rhule was successful in creating a strong culture and developing players, including quarterback Charlie Brewer, who was named the Big 12 Co-Offensive Freshman of the Year.

In his second year, Rhule guided Baylor to a 7-6 record in 2018 capped by a Texas Bowl victory over Vanderbilt. Baylor's six-win improvement from the 2017 to the 2018 season ranked third nationally and led all Power Five programs. His staff's player development was on display again, as wide receiver Jalen Hurd was named the 2018 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

Rhule delivered a record-breaking season in his final year in Waco in 2019. Just two years after a one-win season, Rhule led Baylor to a school-record 11 victories in 2019. The Bears began the season 9-0 to mark the best start in school history, and the season ended with Baylor playing in its first Big 12 Championship Game and its second Sugar Bowl. With a second straight bowl appearance, Rhule became only the second coach in Baylor history to make a bowl game in two of his first three seasons.

With an 11-3 record in 2019, Baylor finished with a No. 13 ranking, the Bears' second-highest final ranking since 1951. The only losses in Rhule's final season were a pair of three-point defeats to a top-10 Oklahoma squad and a 12-point Sugar Bowl loss to a top-5 Georgia team.

Sixteen Baylor players earned all-conference honors in 2019, and defensive tackle James Lynch was named the 2019 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year.

TEMPLE: Rhule's first head coaching job came at Temple, where he led the Owl program to new heights in four seasons from 2013 to 2016. Rhule guided Temple to a 28-23 record, including 20-7 over his final two years.

Rhule once again laid the foundation in his first year, when Temple finished 2-10. The final record did not tell the tale of his first season however, as after an 0-6 start, the Owls went 2-4 over the final six games of the season and never trailed entering the fourth quarter in any of their final six games.

With an emphasis on closing out games entering Rhule's second season, his team succeeded by allowing only 23 fourth-quarter points in 12 games in 2014. The strong finishes helped Temple achieve bowl eligibility with a 6-6 record.

With a solid culture and foundation in place, Temple tied its school record with 10 victories in Rhule's third season in 2015, and the Owls again won 10 games in 2016. He led Temple to back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in program history, as the Owls had produced only one 10-win season before Rhule's appointment as head coach. Temple also played for the conference title in both 2015 and 2016.

In 2015, Rhule led his team to a conference division title and Temple beat Penn State for the first time in 73 years. The Owls started the year 7-0 and achieved a national ranking for the first time in 36 seasons. Temple spent eight weeks ranked in 2015, accounting for half of the 16 all-time weeks the Owls have been ranked entering the 2024 season.

Rhule's final season culminated with another 10-win campaign and the program's first conference title in nearly 40 years, as Temple defeated No. 20 Navy, 34-20, in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game. The Owls set school records for season passing yards and total offense.

Following the AAC Championship Game victory over Navy, Rhule accepted the head coaching position at Baylor.

ASSISTANT COACHING CAREER

NEW YORK GIANTS: Rhule's most recent season as an assistant coach came in the NFL, as he was an assistant offensive line coach with the New York Giants in 2012. The Giants finished 9-7 that season, and Rhule's work with the offensive line helped New York have a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

TEMPLE: The longest stop of Rhule's assistant coaching career came at Temple, where he was on the staff for six consecutive seasons from 2006 to 2011. He joined the Owls as the defensive line coach but moved to coaching quarterbacks the next season. Rhule served as Temple's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2008 to 2010, and he was the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach for his final season on staff in 2011.

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and won their first bowl game since 1979. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, Temple set a school record for single-season rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. The previous year, Rhule directed an offense that saw a school-record six offensive players earn All-Mid-American Conference accolades.

Temple originally set school records for season rushing yards and offensive all-conference selections in 2009, when Rhule was in his second season as offensive coordinator. That year, Temple also set a program record with nine consecutive wins during the season.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2008, Rhule's unit helped the Owls to their most wins (5) in nearly two decades. Temple outscored its opponents for the first time in 18 seasons, and Bruce Francis established school records for career receiving touchdowns, highlighted by a school-record four touchdown catches against Eastern Michigan.

Rhule spent his first season at Temple coaching the Owls' defensive line.

In addition to his coaching duties, Rhule served as Temple's recruiting coordinator in 2007 and 2011. The Owls landed the No. 1 recruiting class in the MAC in each of Rhule's two seasons as recruiting coordinator.

WESTERN CAROLINA: Rhule coached at FCS Western Carolina from 2002 to 2005, holding a variety of titles during his time as a Catamount. He was the assistant head coach for his final three seasons on staff, as Rhule took on additional duties while head coach Kent Briggs battled cancer.

Rhule coached the offensive line, special teams and linebackers during his tenure, while also serving as the running game coordinator in 2005. Western Carolina ranked 12th in the FCS in total defense in 2004, led by Rhule's linebackers who occupied the top five spots on the team in tackles. As the special teams coach, Rhule's unit led the FCS ranks in kickoff return average (27.4) in 2005.

UCLA: In an impressive rise up the ranks, Rhule landed a Power Five assistant coaching position in just the fourth season of his coaching career. Rhule was the assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001, when the Bruins started 6-0 with four wins over ranked opponents. UCLA ranked in the top 25 nationally in total defense in Rhule's lone season on staff.

BUFFALO: Rhule coached the linebackers at the University of Buffalo for two seasons in 1999 and 2000, which marked the Bulls' first two seasons transitioning to the FBS level from the FCS ranks.

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE: One year after he was finished playing college football, Rhule landed his first full-time coaching job as the linebackers coach at Albright College in Pennsylvania in 1998.

PLAYING CAREER (PENN STATE)

Rhule was a linebacker at Penn State from 1994 to 1997. He helped the Nittany Lions to a 41-8 record in his four seasons with one Big Ten title, three bowl victories and a top-20 final ranking every season.

PERSONAL

A native of New York City, Rhule earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Penn State and his master's in educational psychology from Buffalo. He and his wife Julie have three children, Bryant, Vivienne and Leona.

A HISTORY OF IMPROVING PROGRAMS

Matt Rhule has a proven ability to improve programs after laying a strong foundation in year one. He owns a collegiate record of 52-50, but that mark improves to 44-22 when excluding his first seasons at Temple (2013), Baylor (2017) and Nebraska (2023).

- At both Temple and Baylor, Rhule led his team to a school-record victory total in just his third season at the school.
- Rhule took Temple from two wins in his first season to a school-record 10 victories in both his third and fourth seasons. He then took Baylor from one win in his first season to a school-record 11 victories in his third season.
- Over his last five collegiate seasons (2015-19), Rhule has won three division titles and produced three years with double-digit wins.

RHULE TOOK TEMPLE TO NEW HEIGHTS

In his tenure at Temple from 2013 to 2016, Rhule took the Owls to new heights.

- In Rhule's second season in 2014, Temple posted the program's first win over an SEC team since 1938, its first win over a ranked opponent in 16 seasons and the program's largest margin of victory in nearly 50 years.
- Rhule won 10 games in both 2015 and 2016. He is responsible for two of the three 10-win seasons in Temple's 124-year history.
- He also took the Owls to back-to-back bowl games in 2015 and 2016, the first time Temple played in a bowl in consecutive seasons.
- In 2015, Rhule led Temple to the American Athletic Conference Championship Game, the first conference title game in program history.
- The next season, Rhule guided the Owls to their second conference title in program history and the first in nearly 40 years.
- Temple has spent a total of 16 weeks ranked in the 87-year history of the Associated Press top-25 poll. More than half of those top-25 rankings (9) came under Rhule in 2015 and 2016.
- Individually, linebacker Tyler Matakevich was Temple's third consensus All-American and its first in nearly 30 years. Matakevich also became the second Owl to win a major award, as he was the winner of the 2015 Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy.

AN ENCORE PERFORMANCE AT BAYLOR

At Temple, Rhule led the Owls to their highest season win total in program history, their first conference championship game appearance and an impressive run in the national rankings. He produced an encore by accomplishing each of those same feats in three seasons at Baylor.

- Baylor finished with 11 losses in Rhule's first season in 2017 but two years later, he guided the Bears to 11 wins in 2019. It was a remarkable turnaround, as Baylor became the first Power Five program to go from 11 losses to 11 wins in two or fewer seasons.
- Baylor won its final two games of the 2018 season and its first nine games of the 2019 campaign. The 11 straight victories marked the second-longest winning streak in school history, while Baylor's 9-0 start in 2019 was the best start in program history.
- In 2019, Rhule led Baylor to its most wins (11) in school history, the Bears advanced to their first Big 12 Championship Game and played in the Sugar Bowl for only the second time in program history.
- Baylor finished with a No. 13 ranking in 2019, the Bears' second-highest final ranking since 1951.

FROM THE NFL TO NEBRASKA

Rhule is one of only four FBS head coaches who boast experience as a full-time NFL head coach.

- Rhule coached 38 games in two-plus seasons as head coach of the Carolina Panthers. Among active FBS head coaches, only Bill O'Brien (100 games) and Jim Mora Jr. (64) served as an NFL head coach for more games than Rhule.
- Excluding Rhule, five former full-time NFL head coaches led a Power Five program in 2023. Those four coaches guided their teams to a combined 49-18 record in 2023, with three of those coaches guiding their teams to top-10 finishes.

Tony White is in his second season as Nebraska's defensive coordinator in 2024. In his first season in Lincoln, White guided the Blackshirt defense to its best statistical season since NU joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011.

In his 18th season of coaching, White boasts previous Power Five experience at Syracuse, Arizona State and UCLA. White is in his fifth season as a defensive coordinator in 2024, and he held the title of defensive coordinator and defensive passing game coordinator at Arizona State and recruiting coordinator at San Diego State.

White has been one of the nation's top defensive coordinators the past three seasons (2021-23). His defenses have ranked in the top 25 nationally in total defense each of the last three years. From a scoring standpoint, White's defenses at Syracuse and Nebraska limited opponents to 20 or fewer points 19 times over the last three seasons, including nine times in 12 games in 2023.

White was a 2022 and 2023 nominee for the Broyles Award. He has a demonstrated ability to develop players, as four Orange defenders earned freshman All-America honors in his three seasons. At Nebraska, eight Blackshirts were All-Big Ten selections in 2023.

NEBRASKA (2023)

White produced impressive results in his first season as Nebraska's defensive coordinator in 2023. The Huskers ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense. The Blackshirts also ranked among the nation's five most-improved teams in rushing defense and total defense while boasting the 11th most-improved scoring defense.

Nebraska ranked eighth nationally by allowing only 92.9 rushing yards per game, the program's fewest rushing yards per game since 1999. The Blackshirts were 11th nationally in total defense, allowing the program's fewest yards per game (303.5) since 2009. Nebraska also allowed only 18.3 points per game, ranking 13th nationally in that category while allowing the program's fewest points per game since 2010. Nebraska held nine of its 12 opponents to 20 or fewer points, limited six opponents to fewer than 300 total yards and held eight opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards. The Huskers also posted their highest sack total (32) since 2014 and most tackles for loss (76) since 2016.

Individually, eight Blackshirts were recognized as All-Big Ten performers, including six returnees who were honored for the first time in their careers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SYRACUSE: White was the defensive coordinator at Syracuse from 2020 to 2022, and he also coached linebackers in his final season on the Orange staff. While the pandemic disrupted White's first season in 2020, he helped Syracuse rank among the nation's top defenses in both 2021 and 2022. From the 2020 to the 2021 season, Syracuse had the most improved defense in the country, moving up 93 spots in the total defense rankings.

Syracuse was one of only 12 schools to rank in the top 25 nationally in total defense in both 2021 and 2022. With White leading the defense, Syracuse allowed 20 or fewer points 10 times in those two seasons, while surrendering 10 points or less five times. The Orange also ranked in the top 10 nationally in defensive touchdowns twice in White's three seasons, while four Syracuse defenders earned freshman All-America honors.

In 2022, the defense was a major reason why the Orange earned a top-25 ranking and qualified for a bowl game. Syracuse ranked in the top 40 nationally in five major defensive categories. The Orange ranked 12th in defensive touchdowns (3), 14th in passing defense (184.8), 21st in total defense (328.6) and 40th in scoring defense (23.1) and sacks (2.5).

In 2021, White led Syracuse to its best total defense mark in a decade, ranking 19th nationally by allowing 330.3 yards per game. Syracuse also ranked 16th nationally in sacks (3.1) and 26th in both passing (204.2) and rushing (126.1) defense. The Orange were one of only eight schools to rank in the top 30 in both passing and rushing defense. Individually, five Syracuse defenders earned all-conference accolades.

In White's first season in 2020, Syracuse ranked seventh nationally with three defensive touchdowns. Three Orange defenders earned freshman All-America honors, as Syracuse started as many as six freshmen on defense.

ARIZONA STATE: White coached for two seasons at Arizona State in 2018 and 2019, serving as the Sun Devils' cornerbacks coach and defensive passing game coordinator. In his first season, White helped Arizona State post dramatic improvement in its pass defense. The Sun Devils ranked 120th in pass defense in 2017 before White's arrival, but he helped ASU move up 49 spots nationally in that category in 2018.

The improvement continued in 2019, when ASU ranked 12th nationally in passes defended (65) and 25th in interceptions (13). Three of White's cornerbacks earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2019. He was promoted to interim defensive coordinator for the Sun Devils' Sun Bowl victory over Florida State, when ASU scored a defensive touchdown and allowed just 14 points.

SAN DIEGO STATE: The longest stop of White's coaching career came at San Diego State, where he spent nine seasons. He joined SDSU as cornerbacks coach for the 2009 and 2010 seasons and added the title of recruiting coordinator for his final seven seasons (2011-17) on staff.

In White's nine seasons, SDSU won three Mountain West Conference titles and went to eight bowl games. White was twice named the Mountain West Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com (2011, 2013), and he was recognized as the top recruiter among non-Power Five schools by Rivals.com in 2014.

Defensively, the Aztecs boasted one of the nation's top secondaries during White's tenure. SDSU ranked in the top five nationally in interceptions in two of his final three seasons, while ranking in the top 10 in defensive passing efficiency in both 2014 and 2015.

San Diego State ranked 15th nationally in passing yards allowed per game (178.7) in his final season in 2017, one year after the Aztecs led the country with 26 interceptions in 2016. In 2015, San Diego State ranked second nationally in interceptions (23) and 10th in passing efficiency defense. The Aztecs were even better in 2014, ranking third nationally in defensive passing efficiency. In 2011, both of San Diego State's cornerbacks were first-team all-conference selections.

Damontae Kazee was the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year in both 2015 and 2016, becoming the first cornerback in conference history to be a two-time league defensive player of the year. Kazee was also a second-team All-American and was selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft. Leon McFadden was a third-round NFL Draft pick in 2013, while Larry Parker earned honorable-mention All-America honors under White's tutelage, and J.J. Whittaker was a three-time all-conference selection.

NEW MEXICO: White coached at New Mexico in 2008 under Rocky Long, the first of 10 straight seasons White served on Long's staff. White coached the linebackers in his lone season on the Lobo staff. He produced two all-conference selections and helped New Mexico rank 26th nationally in rushing defense.

UCLA: White's first collegiate coaching job was as a graduate assistant for football operations at UCLA in 2007. With the Bruins, he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program, including recruiting administration.

ST. GENEVIEVE HIGH SCHOOL: White began his career as the head coach of St. Genevieve High School in Panorama City, Calif. In his only season at the school, White led the team to its best record in 13 seasons and two of his players earned first-team All-CIF accolades.

PLAYING CAREER (UCLA/CFL)

White was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starting linebacker at UCLA from 1997 to 2000. He totaled nearly 200 career tackles and was a captain in 2000, when he won a team award for best leadership. White played four seasons in the Canadian Football League.

PERSONAL

White earned his bachelor's degree in history from UCLA in 2002. He and his wife Angela have one son, Anthony III, and one daughter, Ava.

season-ending injuries. Injuries also forced Nebraska to use three starting quarterbacks in 2023, when three quarterbacks each started multiple games for the first time in at least 50 years.

Nebraska's offense was fueled by explosive plays in 2023. NU led the Big Ten in runs of 40, 50, 60 and 70 yards, while ranking ninth nationally in runs of 40 yards or longer. Nebraska also ranked second in the Big Ten in offensive plays of 50 yards or longer, which included three touchdown catches of 58 yards or longer from true freshmen. On the season, 60 percent of Nebraska's passing and receiving yards came from players who entered the year with zero career pass attempts or receptions. The Huskers also saw 44 percent of their rushing yards come from players who did not have a career carry prior to the season.

Two Husker offensive linemen - Bryce Benhart and Ben Scott - earned All-Big Ten recognition, while Thomas Fidone II caught four touchdown passes, the most by a Husker tight end since 2010.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

SOUTH CAROLINA: Satterfield was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Carolina in 2021 and 2022. In 2022, his offense posted the third-most passing yards in school history (3,380), the fourth-most points (418) and the sixth-most total yards (4,925). The Gamecocks combined for 94 points and 1,008 yards of total offense in back-to-back wins over No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in his final two games. South Carolina racked up 606 yards in a 63-38 rout of the Volunteers before compiling 402 yards in a 31-30 upset over the Tigers.

Marcus Satterfield is in his second season as Nebraska's offensive coordinator in 2024. In addition to his play-calling duties, he coaches the Husker tight ends.

Satterfield is in his eighth season on Matt Rhule's staff in 2024, having coached under Rhule with the Carolina Panthers, Baylor and Temple. Satterfield is serving as Rhule's offensive coordinator for the fifth season having previously been Rhule's offensive coordinator for three seasons at Temple.

Satterfield is in his 13th season as an offensive coordinator and his 26th season overall. In addition to previous experience as a coordinator, Satterfield also served as the head coach of Tennessee Tech for two seasons in 2016 and 2017.

The son of a high school head coach, Satterfield helped South Carolina post impressive numbers during the 2022 season. The Gamecocks finished with the third-most passing yards in school history, the fourth-most points and sixth-most total yards. He dealt with a multitude of injuries in his first season at Nebraska but still helped the Huskers post the second-best rushing offense in the Big Ten. In addition to his work as a coordinator, Satterfield has excelled as both a tight ends coach and as a quarterbacks coach, a group he tutored at Nebraska in 2023.

NEBRASKA (2023)

Nebraska averaged 176.8 rushing yards per game to rank second in the Big Ten in rushing. The Huskers also had the 14th most-improved rushing offense in the country despite losing their top two running backs and two starting offensive linemen to

With more than three decades of coaching experience, Ed Foley owns a robust and diverse resume in his second season as Nebraska's special teams coordinator in 2024. Foley has served on Matt Rhule's staff for 10 of Rhule's 12 seasons as a head coach.

Foley's experience includes stints as a collegiate head coach and an NFL assistant. He is an accomplished special teams coach and possesses strong recruiting ties to the Northeast, specifically New Jersey, which has produced some of the greatest players in Nebraska history. In Foley's tenure at Temple, more than 20 Owls who played high school football in New Jersey went on to NFL careers.

A New Jersey native himself, Foley is in his 12th straight season coaching special teams in 2024, including three seasons in the NFL. His special teams have been ranked in the top 25 nationally in four of his last six seasons at the collegiate level.

Baylor was rated as the 13th-best special teams in the country by Pro Football Focus in 2019, while the service rated Temple's special teams as the No. 3 unit nationally in 2018 and No. 5 in 2016. Foley also guided Temple to a No. 23 special teams ranking by Football Outsiders in 2015. In 2023, Nebraska ranked second nationally in blocked kicks, continuing Foley's impressive track record in that category. Foley's teams have blocked 34 kicks in his eight seasons as a collegiate special teams coach with six seasons ranked in the top five nationally in blocked kicks.

Foley helped Nebraska's special teams show improvement in several areas in his first season in 2023. Most notably, NU ranked second nationally with four blocked kicks, the program's highest total in nine seasons. The Huskers returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown for the first time since 2014 and blocked two field goals in a game for the first time since 2005.

Nebraska also recorded the program's highest kickoff return average in six seasons, while posting the second-best kickoff return defense at NU in the last 17 seasons. Individually, Marco Ortiz was one of three national finalists for the Patrick Mannelly Award (nation's top long snapper), while place-kicker Tristan Alvano had a 55-yard field goal, the second-longest field goal in Nebraska history and the longest ever by a freshman.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Foley was an assistant special teams coach with the Carolina Panthers from 2020 to 2022. In his first season in 2020, Carolina ranked seventh in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.3) and kickoff return defense (20.6 yards per return) and eighth in field goals (29). In 2021, the Panthers were eighth in the NFL in field goal percentage (89.7).

TEMPLE: In addition to ranking in the top five nationally in blocked kicks four times, Foley's Temple teams ranked in the top 25 nationally in punt return defense in three of his six seasons, including fifth in 2014. In Foley's final season at Temple in 2018, the Owls ranked in the top 25 nationally in punt returns and kickoff return defense, in addition to a No. 5 ranking

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Top 25 special teams in four of his last six collegiate seasons
- Nebraska ranked second nationally in blocked kicks in 2023
- Baylor ranked 13th nationally in special teams in 2019
- Temple scored six special teams touchdowns in 2018
- Temple ranked 3rd nationally in special teams in 2018
- His special teams have blocked 34 kicks in his eight seasons
- Six times his units have ranked in the top five in blocked kicks
- Two-time interim head coach at Temple
- Experience as a college head coach and NFL assistant
- Coached nearly 40 future NFL players in the last 15 seasons in blocked kicks. The Owls also scored six touchdowns on special teams in 2018 with two punt return touchdowns, two fake kicks for scores, one punt block for a touchdown and one kickoff return for a score.

Individually, Temple specialists thrived under Foley. Isaiah Wright became the first player in school history to return both a punt and kickoff for touchdowns in consecutive seasons en route to first-team All-America honors in 2018, when he was named the American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year. In 2015, Jahad Thomas tied a Temple record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and Austin Jones set the school record for field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (113).

Foley's Temple resume extended beyond his work as a special teams coach. In a testament to his reputation and coaching ability, Foley worked for five different head coaches in 11 seasons at Temple. In addition to his work with the special teams, Foley spent time coaching the offensive line and tight ends, and Foley was the Owls' recruiting director from 2008 to 2010 and the director of football operations in 2011 and 2012. During his time at Temple, the Owls set school records for victories in a season (10) and had the longest single-season winning streak in program history (9 games).

Foley also served two stints as Temple's interim head coach. He led the Owls in the 2016 Military Bowl and the 2018 Independence Bowl becoming the first head coach (interim or permanent) to coach in multiple bowl games at Temple.

HOFSTRA: Prior to Temple, Foley was the assistant head coach for two seasons at Hofstra in 2006 and 2007. He coached the offensive line in 2006, when the Pride offense increased its yardage total by 119 yards per game and its scoring output by 10 points per game from the previous season. Led by the line, Hofstra also had its best rushing season (145 yards per game) in six seasons. Foley was also the offensive coordinator in 2007.

FORDHAM: Foley went to Hofstra after coaching at Fordham for seven years, including his final two seasons as the Rams' head coach. Foley guided Fordham to a 7-16 record in 2004 and 2005, including a 5-6 record in 2004 when four of the Rams' six defeats came in one-score games.

Before becoming head coach, Foley spent five seasons as Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 to 2003. He helped the Rams to a 10-3 record in 2002, when Fordham won its first-ever Patriot League title and won a game in the FCS playoffs. In his final season as coordinator in 2003, the Rams set school records for season rushing yards (1,657) and pass completions (255). In 2002, Fordham set a school record for most points (418) in a season. A year earlier, Foley's offense produced Fordham's first 1,000-yard receiver and the program's first 1,000-yard rusher at the FCS level.

JACKSONVILLE UNIVERSITY: Foley arrived at Fordham after coaching at Jacksonville University in 1997 and 1998. With Foley as the offensive coordinator in 1998, the first year the school fielded a football team, the Dolphins averaged more than 30 points per game with a perfectly balanced attack of 190 rushing and 190 passing yards per game.

PENN: Foley had two coaching stints at the University of Pennsylvania. He coached the tight ends and offensive tackles from 1991 to 1993, then returned to coach the same positions from 1995 to 1996. In 1993, the Quakers finished 10-0 and were the Ivy League champions.

WILLIAMS COLLEGE: In between his two stints at Penn, Foley coached the offensive line at Williams College in 1994.

ALBANY: Foley began his career as the offensive line coach at Albany for two seasons (1989 and 1990).

PLAYING CAREER (BUCKNELL)

As a player, Foley was a three-year starting offensive lineman at Bucknell. He started at offensive guard for one season and spent two seasons as the starting center. Foley was named Bucknell's top lineman as a junior before serving as a team captain as a senior.

PERSONAL

Foley earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and his master's degree in educational psychology from Albany in 1991. He and his wife Becky have two sons, Charlie and Luke, and one daughter, Sara. Foley's brother Glenn was a quarterback for six seasons in the NFL, playing with the New York Jets (1994-98) and Seattle Seahawks (1999).

E.J. Barthel is in his second season as Nebraska's running backs coach in 2024. Barthel is in his fifth season on Matt Rhule's staff, having previously coached under Rhule with the Carolina Panthers and at Temple.

Barthel is in his 11th season of coaching in 2024, and he has put together a diverse resume having served in recruiting and player development roles in addition to being a running backs coach. Barthel has Big Ten experience at Nebraska, Rutgers and Penn State, and he coached for two seasons in the National Football League.

A New Jersey native, Barthel has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the Northeast and specifically the New Jersey area. In his lone season at Penn State, he helped the Nittany Lions secure the No. 6 recruiting class in 2018, according to 247 Sports. As a running backs coach, he has helped both Nebraska and UConn rank in the top 35 nationally in rushing each of the past two seasons.

NEBRASKA (2023)

Nebraska's running back room was hit hard by injuries during Barthel's first season in 2023. Despite the injuries, the Huskers averaged 176.8 rushing yards per game, ranking second in the Big Ten in rushing.

Gabe Ervin Jr. and Rahmir Johnson - the top two running backs on Nebraska's depth chart - were both lost to season-ending injuries in the third game of the year. Ervin and Johnson each averaged more than 5.0 yards per carry in their three games, which included two road games against Power Five opponents. Following the injuries to Ervin and Johnson, Barthel helped Anthony Grant and Emmett Johnson each rush for more than 400 yards. Johnson rushed for 411 yards on 90 carries after entering the year with zero career carries. Barthel also helped Joshua Fleeks make a mid-season transition from wide receiver to running back, and Fleeks produced a 77-yard touchdown run against Michigan, the first run of 70 yards allowed by the Wolverines in four seasons.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

UCONN: The UConn Huskies went 6-6 in the regular season in Barthel's lone year as the running backs coach on Jim Mora's staff in 2022. The six wins were a marked improvement, as UConn had not won more than three games in a season since 2015.

Barthel's running backs helped UConn rush for 2,339 yards with 18 rushing touchdowns in 12 games. The Huskies ranked 33rd nationally in rushing offense. Individually, Victor Roza and Devontae Houston each rushed for more than 500 yards. Roza ranked 33rd nationally with 11 rushing touchdowns, while Houston was 14th nationally with an average of 6.88 yards per carry.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Barthel coached with Rhule for two seasons with the Carolina Panthers in 2020 and 2021. Barthel assisted the coaching staff, focusing on the running backs and offensive line, while also spending time in the personnel department.

WILLIAM & MARY: Barthel spent one season at William & Mary as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 2019. He made an immediate impact on the running game during his time with the Tribe, as William & Mary was the most improved rushing team in the FCS in Barthel's lone season.

The Tribe ranked 30th nationally in rushing offense in 2019, an increase of 93 spots from the previous season, when the team ranked next-to-last (123rd) in the FCS in rushing.

William & Mary's yards-per-carry average improved from 1.8 in 2018 to 4.2 in 2019, and the Tribe rushed for 26 touchdowns in 2019 after running for only five scores in 2018. William & Mary also set a school record with 462 rushing yards against Rhode Island during the 2019 season.

ALBANY/HOWARD: After a short stint at Albany during the offseason, Barthel transitioned into a coaching role as the running backs coach at Howard in 2018. Under his direction, the Bison led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in rushing with 192.8 yards per game. Additionally, he helped standout freshman Dedrick Parson garner MEAC Rookie of the Year and second-team All-MEAC accolades. Parson led the league in yards per carry (5.65), and he ranked second in rushing touchdowns (9) and third in rushing yards per game (70.6).

PENN STATE: Prior to his season at Howard, Barthel served as recruiting coordinator for one season at Penn State in 2017. He helped the Nittany Lions secure the nation's No. 6 recruiting class, according to 247 Sports.

Barthel was a running back at Rutgers for three seasons from 2003 to 2005, before transferring to UMass for two seasons in 2006 and 2007. After graduation, he was offered a tryout with the New York Giants in 2009 and later became a running back for the United Football League's Las Vegas Locomotives.

PERSONAL

John Butler is in his first season at Nebraska in 2024, serving as the Huskers' secondary coach and pass game coordinator. He is in his first season coaching under Matt Rhule.

Butler brings an impressive resume to the Husker staff. He is in his 30th season as a coach, and his experience includes 20 years in college football and 10 seasons in the National Football League.

Butler's collegiate resume features four stops at power conference schools with experience in the Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC. He has 11 seasons of experience as a special teams coordinator and was Penn State's defensive coordinator in 2013.

In the NFL, Butler had a history of working with winning teams. In his 10 seasons in the National Football League, Butler's teams won six division titles and made seven playoff appearances.

He has also proven to be an outstanding secondary coach. In his six seasons coaching the Buffalo Bills' defensive backs from 2018 to 2023, the Bills had a top-five pass defense five times.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

BUFFALO BILLS: Butler came to Nebraska after spending six seasons with the Buffalo Bills from 2018 to 2023. Butler coached the defensive backs in each of his six seasons with the Bills and added the role of passing game coordinator in his final two seasons.

The play of Butler's defensive backs helped Buffalo reach the AFC playoffs in each of his final five seasons, and the Bills captured the AFC East divisional title in each of his last four years. During his six seasons at the helm of the Buffalo secondary, cornerback Tre'Davious White and safety Jordan Poyer were first-team All-Pro selections, while safety Micah Hyde and nickel Taron Johnson were second-team honorees.

Buffalo was among the top defenses in the league throughout Butler's time on the coaching staff. From 2018 through 2023, the Bills' defense ranked first in the NFL in total yards per game, passing yards allowed per game, passing yards allowed per attempt, touchdown passes allowed, opponent passer rating and passing first downs allowed. The stifling pass defense propelled Buffalo to rank second in the NFL in points allowed over Butler's six seasons on staff, during which time the Bills won at least 11 games four times.

Butler helped the Bills boast a top-five pass defense in five of his six seasons in Buffalo. The Bills had the NFL's top pass defense rating in 2021 while ranking third in both 2018 and 2019, fourth in 2022 and fifth in 2020. During his six seasons, the Buffalo defense had nearly as many interceptions (99) as passing touchdowns allowed (111).

In 2023, the Bills were one of only six NFL teams to allow fewer than 200 passing yards per game, and Buffalo ranked second in the NFL in touchdown passes allowed and third in interceptions. The Bills ranked fourth in the league in interceptions in 2022 and third in 2021. Buffalo allowed the fewest completions in the league in 2021, the lowest completion percentage, the fewest passing yards per game and per attempt and the fewest touchdown passes.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 10 seasons of experience as an NFL assistant coach
- Helped Buffalo make the NFL playoffs in each of his final five years
- The Bills won the AFC East Division in each of his final four years
- Buffalo allowed the fewest passing yards in the NFL from 2018-23
- The Bills had a top-five pass defense rating in five of his six seasons
- Buffalo had the NFL's top pass defense rating in 2021
- Helped Houston win two AFC South Division titles in three seasons
- The Texans had a top-three passing defense twice under Butler
- Prior to the NFL, was Penn State's defensive coordinator in 2013
- Helped South Carolina to the school's first 10-win season in 2011

HOUSTON TEXANS: Before his time in Buffalo, Butler was the secondary coach on Bill O'Brien's Houston Texans staff from 2014 to 2017. During his four seasons leading the Texans secondary, Houston captured a pair of AFC South crowns, and the defense allowed the fourth-fewest passing yards per game (238.1 ypg) in that time frame.

In 2016, Houston ranked first in total defense and allowed the second-fewest passing yards per game and second-fewest completions. In 2015, the Texans ranked third in the league in passing yards allowed and fifth in opponent completion percentage. Houston was also third in the NFL in interceptions in 2015 and fourth in opponent completion percentage.

PENN STATE: Prior to Nebraska, Butler's most recent position in college football was on O'Brien's staff at Penn State in 2012 and 2013. Butler served as the secondary coaching in 2012, before taking over as the Nittany Lion defensive coordinator in 2013.

With Butler leading the defense, Penn State ranked 19th nationally in first down defense in 2013. In his first year at Penn State, the Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten and 16th nationally in scoring defense. Butler's secondary unit helped PSU rank 28th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

SOUTH CAROLINA: Butler spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at South Carolina under Steve Spurrier. In his lone season, Butler helped the Gamecocks to an 11-2 record, the first 11-win season in program history. South Carolina finished with a No. 9 ranking, the first top-10 final ranking in school history. South Carolina ranked second in the country in passing defense, third in total defense and 10th in scoring defense.

MINNESOTA: Butler's first experience in the Big Ten came as Minnesota's special teams coordinator and linebackers coach for four seasons from 2007 to 2010. In 2009, the Gophers ranked sixth nationally in punt returns and ninth in net punting. Minnesota was 15th in kickoff returns in 2008 and 24th in 2007.

HARVARD: Butler was the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Harvard for three seasons from 2003 to 2006. In 2004, he helped the Crimson win the Ivy League title with a 10-0 record.

TEXAS STATE: Butler spent the 2001 and 2002 seasons as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach at Texas State. In 2001, the Bobcats' starting punter and place-kicker each earned all-conference honors.

MIDWESTERN STATE: Butler's first full-time position came as the defensive coordinator at Midwestern State in 1999 and 2000, where he also coached the linebackers and safeties.

TEXAS: Butler's first coaching job in the FBS ranks came as a graduate assistant at Texas in 1997 and 1998. In his final season, the Longhorns won the Cotton Bowl and finished with a No. 15 ranking.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY: Butler began his career at his alma mater, The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996 after coaching the secondary as a first-year coach in 1995.

PLAYING CAREER (CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY)

Rob Dvoracek is in his second season as Nebraska's linebackers coach in 2024. Dvoracek came to Nebraska after spending two seasons coaching in the National Football league, and he has spent six of his eight seasons on Matt Rhule staffs.

A promising young coach, Dvoracek has experience at two Power Five programs in addition to being an NFL assistant. He also boasts previous experience in being part of a program rebuild, as Dvoracek spent two years at Baylor during the Bears' three-year turnaround from a one-win season in 2017 to an 11-win season in 2019.

In his first season at Nebraska in 2023, Dvoracek and his linebackers helped NU finish with its best rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense in the Big Ten era (since 2011).

NEBRASKA (2023)

Dvoracek's linebackers were a key part of a stout Nebraska defense in 2023. The Blackshirts ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing the program's fewest rushing yards per game (92.9) since 1999. The Husker defense also ranked 11th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense, posting the program's highest national finish in those categories since 2010 and 2011, respectively.

The Husker linebacking corps featured four of Nebraska's six leading tacklers in 2023. Luke Reimer, a third-team All-Big Ten selection, battled injuries to record 48 tackles in 2023, including 7.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks. Javin Wright flourished under Dvoracek's coaching, ranking second on the team with 51 tackles after entering the year with nine tackles in his first four seasons. John Bullock saw similar success, totaling 50 tackles after recording six tackles in his first four seasons. Nick Henrich added 42 tackles before suffering a season-ending injury. The quartet of Reimer, Wright, Bullock and Henrich combined for 191 tackles, 16.0 TFLs and 9.0 sacks.

Princewill Umanmielen also shined as a true freshman under Dvoracek. Umanmielen recorded 22 tackles with 4.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Dvoracek spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as part of Rhule's staff with the Carolina Panthers. Dvoracek served as a coaching assistant in 2021 and a defensive assistant in 2022. His work with the Panther defense helped Carolina rank second in the NFL in total defense in 2021.

LEHIGH: Dvoracek spent the 2019 and 2020 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at Lehigh. In 2019, the Mountain Hawks allowed 14 fewer points and 100 fewer yards per game than in 2018 while recording 14 more sacks. Lehigh ranked 10th in the FCS in first downs allowed, 20th in scoring defense (21.4), 26th in rushing defense (130.5) and 28th in total defense (346.3). Individually, Dvoracek helped defensive end Mikhari Sibblis earn freshman All-America honors.

The 2020 season was cut short due to the pandemic, as Lehigh played only a three-game schedule in the spring of 2021, when the defense allowed only 252.7 yards and 15.3 points per game.

BAYLOR: After playing one season for Rhule at Temple and then serving as a student assistant for the Owls, Dvoracek followed Rhule to Baylor. He spent two seasons on the Bears' staff as a defensive quality control coach. Dvoracek helped Rhule lay the foundation for Baylor's resurgence in his two seasons. After a 1-11 season in 2017, the Bears went 7-6 in 2018 with a bowl victory.

NEBRASKA (2023-24)

» Assistant Coach (DL)

Terrance Knighton is in his sixth coaching season in 2024 following an outstanding NFL career. He is serving on Matt Rhule's staff for the fourth consecutive season, after also serving on Rhule's Carolina Panthers staff.

In his brief coaching career Knighton has already served as both a collegiate and NFL assistant, spending two seasons at Wagner before joining the Panthers. He will coach the defensive line for the sixth straight season in 2024. Knighton was a standout defensive lineman at Temple and went on to be a third-round NFL Draft pick. He played in more than 100 games during his seven-year professional career. Knighton tallied 231 tackles from 2009 to 2015, ranking in the top 15 of all NFL defensive tackles during that time frame.

Knighton has a personal understanding of what it takes to succeed at the collegiate and professional levels at one of the sport's most demanding positions. He is able to use his first-hand experience to teach and develop, and Knighton's coaching ability is enhanced by his relatability to his players since he is less than a decade removed from his playing career. He made a major impact on Nebraska's defensive line in his first season in 2023, when three defensive linemen earned All-Big Ten accolades while helping Nebraska post its top statistical defensive season since joining the Big Ten in 2011.

Knighton's defensive line was a strength for a vastly improved Blackshirt defense in 2023. The play of his line helped Nebraska rank eighth nationally in rushing defense. The Huskers allowed only 92.9 rushing yards per game, their lowest total since the 1999 season. NU held eight of its 12 opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards. Knighton's defensive line also helped Nebraska rank third in the Big Ten with 32 sacks, the program's highest total in 10 seasons. Knighton's group was key in Nebraska posting its top defense in the Big Ten era, as the Huskers allowed their fewest yards per game (303.5) since 2009 and fewest points per game (18.3) since 2010.

Nebraska's defensive linemen combined for more than 150 tackles, as Knighton developed great depth on the line. All 13 defensive linemen who recorded a tackle in 2023 set career highs in tackles, a testament to Knighton's development ability. Three of his defensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors - Nash Hutmacher, Ty Robinson and Jimari Butler - with each player earning the first recognition of his career. Hutmacher had 40 tackles, 8.0 TFLs and 4.5 sacks after entering the season with 15 career tackles in his first three seasons. Robinson finished with a career-high 29 tackles, and he broke up six passes and had 11 quarterback hurries. Butler was perhaps the biggest beneficiary of Knighton's coaching, as Butler had 34 tackles with 8.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks. He led Nebraska in TFLs and sacks after recording just nine tackles and 1.5 TFLs in his first two seasons combined.

Nebraska's returning defensive linemen weren't the only ones to impress in Knighton's first season. Seven newcomers found their way into the defensive line rotation, including three true freshmen. Cameron Lenhardt recorded 16 tackles with 5.0 TFLs and 3.0 sacks as a true freshman. Classmate Riley Van Poppel finished with five tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss and a half sack. First-year transfers Chief Borders and Elijah Jeudy had the most productive seasons of their careers, while junior college transfer James Williams recorded two sacks in four games while redshirting.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NU ranked in the top 15 in rushing, total & scoring defense in 2023
- Helped the Huskers post their best defense in the Big Ten era
- Two years of NFL coaching experience
- Helped Carolina rank 2nd in the NFL in total defense in 2021
- Coached two future NFL defensive linemen at Wagner
- Seven-year NFL career as a defensive lineman
- Played in 108 career NFL games with 96 starts
- Totaled 231 tackles, 34 TFLs and 14.0 sacks in his career
- 3rd-Round NFL Draft pick & NFL All-Rookie Team member
- Two-time Team Defensive MVP at Temple

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CAROLINA PANTHERS: Knighton spent two seasons on Rhule's staff at Carolina in 2021 and 2022, serving as a coaching assistant who helped with the defensive line. In 2021, Carolina limited its opponents to only 4.1 yards per carry, ranking ninth in the NFL in that category. The work of Knighton's defensive line helped the Panthers rank second in the NFL in total defense during the 2021 season.

WAGNER: Knighton began his coaching career at Wagner, an FCS program in New York. He spent two seasons as the Seahawks' defensive line coach in 2019 and 2020. Knighton's final season at Wagner was cut short due to the pandemic, as the Seahawks played only a two-game spring schedule.

In his only full season on staff in 2019, three of Knighton's defensive linemen earned all-conference honors including Cam Gill, who was the conference defensive player of the year and an FCS All-American. Gill posted 60 tackles with 20.0 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks, while his defensive line teammate Chris Williams recorded 62 tackles with 11.5 TFLs and 4.0 sacks.

Gill and Williams became the first defensive players from the Northeast Conference to earn invites to the East-West Shrine Bowl, and both went on to play in the NFL.

PLAYING CAREER (TEMPLE/NFL)

Knighton was an outstanding defensive lineman at Temple who went on to a successful NFL career. In college, Knighton was a four-year letterwinner from 2005 to 2008 who was Temple's Defensive MVP in both 2007 and 2008. He played in 46 games as an Owl with 34 starts.

Knighton recorded 184 tackles at Temple with 26.0 tackles for loss, 6.0 sacks, 12 passes defended, four blocked kicks, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery that he returned 66 yards for a touchdown. He was the first Owl to earn first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 2008.

In the NFL, Knighton played seven seasons, appearing in 108 games with 96 starts for Jacksonville, Denver and Washington from 2009 to 2015. He was a third-round draft pick of the Jaguars in 2009 and played in 61 games over four seasons with the franchise, totaling 140 tackles, 7.5 sacks and 20 tackles for loss. Knighton then spent two seasons with the Denver Broncos – playing in Super Bowl XLVIII – before ending his career as the starting nose tackle for Washington in 2015.

An NFL All-Rookie team selection in 2009, Knighton posted 231 career tackles with 34 TFLs and 14.0 sacks. He also forced three fumbles, had two fumble recoveries and 11 passes defended with one interception. His 231 tackles ranked among the top 15 of all NFL defensive tackles during his seven seasons in the league.

PERSONAL

A Connecticut native, Knighton earned his degree in criminal justice from Temple in 2009.

» Coaching Assistant (2021)

Garret McGuire is in his second season as Nebraska's wide receivers coach in 2024. McGuire coached in the National Football League before joining the Cornhuskers, serving on Matt Rhule's Carolina Panthers' staff for two seasons.

McGuire was one of the youngest coaches in the NFL, earning a role immediately after a four-year playing career at Baylor. Coaching runs in Garret's family as his father, Joey, won 142 games as a high school head coach in Texas before leading Texas Tech to 15 wins in the past two seasons as Texas Tech's head coach.

Garret dealt with injuries to his wide receiving corps in 2023, but McGuire was able to develop three true freshmen who accounted for nearly one-quarter of Nebraska's receiving yards. The Husker wideouts also played a key role in a run game that ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game.

NEBRASKA (2023)

McGuire demonstrated an ability to quickly develop players in his first season at Nebraska in 2023. Eighty-four percent of the receiving yards from McGuire's group came from wideouts who had never caught a pass for Nebraska entering the season. Both of the Huskers' two returning wide receivers with a career reception suffered a season-ending injury, opening the door for contributions for graduate transfer Billy Kemp IV and a quartet of underclassmen.

Kemp led Nebraska with 35 catches and 310 receiving yards in 2023, when the Huskers had three different quarterbacks start multiple games. Alex Bullock started eight games and caught 15 passes for 221 yards and one touchdown after playing only two games on special teams in his first two seasons with the program. Ty Hahn added four catches for 36 yards, the first receptions of his four-year career.

McGuire's developmental ability was most noticeable with true freshmen Jaylen Lloyd, Malachi Coleman and Jaidyn Doss. Each of those freshmen did not join Nebraska until the summer, but McGuire was able to implement them into the offense quickly and by season's end, Lloyd and Coleman were two of Nebraska's top receivers. Lloyd finished with six catches for 237 yards and three touchdowns, averaging 39.5 yards per reception with each of his three touchdowns covering at least 58 yards. Lloyd and Ohio State's Marvin Harrison Jr. were the only two Big Ten receivers with at least three 50-yard receptions in 2023. Coleman started six games as a true freshman and caught eight passes for 139 yards with a 44-yard touchdown. Doss played in only four games while preserving his redshirt, but he caught two passes for 20 yards.

CAROLINA PANTHERS: McGuire was on Rhule's Carolina Panthers' staff for two seasons in 2021 and 2022. McGuire served as an offensive assistant in 2022 after a role as a coaching assistant in 2021.

In 2022, McGuire assisted with a balanced Carolina offensive attack. The Panthers were one of only eight NFL teams to have more than 3,200 passing yards and 2,200 rushing yards. The success came despite injuries that forced Carolina to have three different quarterbacks start multiple games. Despite the use of different quarterbacks, wide receiver DJ Moore ranked 15th in the NFL with seven touchdown receptions in 2022.

In his first season at Carolina in 2021, McGuire helped the Panthers get off to the third-best start in franchise history.

Donovan Raiola is in his third season as Nebraska's offensive line coach in 2024. Raiola owns 13 years of coaching experience, including four years as an offensive line coach in the National Football League.

Raiola, who was retained when Matt Rhule was hired, joined Nebraska after spending four seasons as an assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears. He also coached offensive linemen at Aurora (Ill.) University, in addition to collegiate coaching stops at Notre Dame and Hawaii.

In addition to being in his 10th season as an offensive line coach, Raiola was an outstanding lineman himself. A three-time All-Big Ten selection at Wisconsin, Raiola went on to play six seasons in the NFL.

NEBRASKA (2022-23)

Raiola's offensive line was arguably the most improved unit on Nebraska's 2023 team. The group, which lost two starters to season-ending injuries, paved the way for a Husker rushing attack that ranked second in the Big Ten. Nebraska was able to consistently have explosive plays behind the play of the offensive line. Nebraska ranked ninth nationally in runs of 40 yards or longer, and NU was second in the Big Ten in offensive plays of 50 yards or longer.

Bryce Benhart and Ben Scott each earned All-Big Ten recognition under Raiola's development. Benhart also tied the Nebraska record for career starts by an offensive lineman with his 41st start against Iowa.

Raiola helped Nebraska's offensive line overcome many challenges during the 2022 season, including a mid-season coaching change. Raiola's unit had plenty of adversity of its own, as one projected starter was lost before the season began and another starter was lost for the year in game three. Starting right guard Broc Bando also missed time due to injuries, while first-year transfer Kevin Williams Jr. worked his way into a starting role by the fourth game of the season against Oklahoma, only to be lost for the season with an injury suffered against the Sooners.

Despite the injuries, the offensive line nearly paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver, something that has happened only once in the history of Nebraska football. Trey Palmer set a Nebraska single-season receiving record with 1,043 yards, while Anthony Grant had five 100-yard rushing performances and ran for 915 yards, the highest total by a Husker in four seasons.

Behind the play of the line, Nebraska had two games in 2022 where the Huskers had a 300-yard passer, a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver. Entering the year, Nebraska had accomplished that feat only seven times in its first 132 seasons.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

CHICAGO BEARS: Raiola helped the Bears to two playoff appearances in his four seasons on staff from 2018 to 2021. In his first season in Chicago assisting offensive line coach Harry Hiestand, the Bears posted a 12-4 record and captured the NFC North Division title. The Bears offensive line allowed just 33 sacks, tied for the third fewest in the NFC, while Chicago averaged 26.3 points per game, the fourth-best average in the NFC.

In the 2020 season, Raiola helped tutor an offensive line that featured six different starting combinations. Raiola assisted in helping develop a pair of rookie undrafted free agents (Sam Mustipher and Alex Bars) into starters late in the season, as the Bears reached the NFC playoffs. The Bears rushed for more than 2,000 yards in 2021, ranking seventh in the NFC in rushing.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Nebraska ranked second in the Big Ten in rushing offense in 2023
- Nebraska had a 1,000-yard receiver & 900-yard rusher in 2022
- Four seasons of experience as an NFL offensive line coach
- Helped the Chicago Bears to two playoff berths in four seasons
- 2018 Bears' line allowed the third-fewest sacks in the NFC
- Coached at two of the 10 winningest teams in college football history
- Developed seven Notre Dame linemen who went on to NFL careers
- Notre Dame averaged more than 32 points per game in his two years
- Was a three-time All-Big Ten offensive lineman at Wisconsin
- Played six seasons as an NFL offensive lineman

AURORA UNIVERSITY: Raiola spent the 2017 season as the offensive line coach at Aurora University in Illinois. Raiola's line helped the Spartans average more than 200 yards rushing.

NOTRE DAME: Raiola was an offensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 2015 and 2016 assisting offensive line coach Harry Hiestand, helping develop six Fighting Irish offensive linemen who went on to play in the NFL. In 2015, the Fighting Irish finished with a 10-3 record and averaged more than 34 points per game. Notre Dame again averaged more than 30 points per game in 2016.

HAWAII: Raiola's first collegiate stop was in his home state of Hawaii as an offensive intern in 2014. At Hawaii, Raiola worked under Head Coach Norm Chow, an accomplished offensive coordinator who helped USC to a pair of national titles in 2003 and 2004.

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS-KAPALAMA: Raiola began his coaching career with two seasons at Kamehameha Schools-Kapalama in 2012 and 2013. At Kamehameha Schools-Kapalama, Raiola coached the offensive line and organized clinics for offensive linemen throughout the state of Hawaii.

PLAYING CAREER (WISCONSIN & NFL)

Raiola spent parts of six seasons playing in the NFL, signing contracts with the Rams, Steelers, Seahawks, Cardinals, Bears, Buccaneers and Commanders. Raiola started 39 games at center for Wisconsin and was a three-time honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection from 2003 to 2005. He helped the Badgers to top-20 finishes in each of his final two seasons.

TOM OSBORNE

HEAD COACH, 1973-97
RECORD: 255-49-3 (.836, 6TH ALL-TIME)

The field inside Memorial Stadium is called Tom Osborne Field in honor of a man, who in 25 seasons, built a total program based on more than winning.

Osborne's coaching career came to a poetic end in the 1998 Orange Bowl. In his final game, the Huskers defeated No. 3 Tennessee, 42-17, giving him a share of a third national title in his final four seasons. The victory left Osborne as the first coach in college football history to retire as a reigning national champion, along with the nation's best active winning percentage (.836, 255-49-3), which ranks sixth all-time among Division I coaches.

Osborne guided the Huskers to back-to-back titles in 1994 and 1995, then capped his career by sharing the 1997 title with Michigan. Nebraska's back-to-back national titles in 1994-95 made Osborne the first coach to accomplish that feat since Bear Bryant in 1978-79. Under Osborne, NU became just the second school all time to post back-to-back perfect national championship seasons. In fact, Osborne's last five Nebraska teams put together the best five-year run in collegiate football history with an amazing 60-3 record.

Osborne-coached Nebraska teams captured 13 conference crowns and all 25 of his Husker teams won at least nine games and went to a bowl. Achievements of that magnitude earned Osborne an immediate ticket to the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1998, after it waived the customary three-year wait for entrance into the hall. The Memorial Stadium field was re-named Tom Osborne field in 1998.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne served Nebraska for three terms in the U.S. House of Representatives. Osborne served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 through 2012.

BOB DEVANEY

HEAD COACH, 1962-72
RECORD: 101-20-2 (.829, 12TH ALL-TIME)

One man tops the list of people responsible for the success of the University of Nebraska athletic teams – Bob Devaney. For 35 years he was the driving force behind the University of Nebraska championships, first as a Hall of Fame football coach (1962-72), then as Athletic Director (1967-93) and Athletic Director Emeritus (1993-96). Devaney retired in 1996 and lived in Lincoln until he passed away at the age of 82 on May 9, 1997.

Devaney's mark will remain forever. The memories of the storybook national championship seasons of 1970 and 1971 will continue to inspire generations of Husker fans for years to come. His commitment to building one of the nation's best athletic programs is reinforced with every athletic and academic honor earned by Husker student-athletes.

From the time he took over athletic director duties in 1967, to his final year in 1993, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for an .829 winning percentage. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973. Today, he ranks 13th on the all-time list, seven spots behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his Husker gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships (1970, 1971) and went to nine bowl games. He had three straight Orange Bowl wins, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

NEBRASKA'S NATION-LEADING 18 NCAA TODAY'S TOP TEN AWARDS

The highest honor the NCAA can bestow on a student-athlete is The NCAA Today's Top 10 Award. The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities. Nebraska earned its NCAA-leading 18th Top 10 Award in January of 2020 when men's gymnast standout Anton Stephenson was recognized at the NCAA honors dinner.

The Husker football program has nine of Nebraska's 18 Top 10 Award winners, the most of any single sport in NCAA history. The most recent football player to earn a Top 10 Award was All-America rush end Grant Wistrom, who was a 1998 honoree. Wistrom's selection gave Nebraska nine overall Top 10 honorees in the 1990s. Two Huskers received the award in both 1990 and 1991, marking the first two times that a school had more than one student-athlete honored.

In the 1990s, six Husker football players were awarded the Top 10 honor, including Aaron Graham (1996), Rob Zatechka (1995), Trev Alberts (1994), Pat Tyrance (1991) and Jake Young (1990). Randy Schleusener (1981) was the first Husker to win the award, followed by Dave Rimington (1983) and Mark Traynowicz (1985).

Nebraska's success in the classroom also extends to other sports. Along with nine football players who have won the Top 10 Award, four Husker volleyball players (Sarah Pavan-2008, Virginia Stahr-1990, Janet Kruse-1992, Nancy Metcalf-2002), three men's gymnasts (Tom Schlesinger-1989, Patrick Kirksey-1991, Stephenson-2020), one women's gymnast (Richelle Simpson-2005) and one women's tennis player (Mary Weatherholt-2014) have also claimed the honor.

VARSIY LETTERMAN LIST

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Corrections and additions will be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Lettermen lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons. Players are listed by hometown and the last position they played at Nebraska.

134 YEARS OF NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances below are at game time, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. If a slash is alone, neither team was ranked at game time. Early-season games from 1936 to 1949 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and 1968 to 1988, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

 W.C. "King" Cole took over the reins after playing football under Fielding Yost at Michigan. His final season as coach marked NU's first unshared Missouri Valley Conference title. His last game as coach was a 119-0 win over Haskell, which still ranks as the most points a Cornhusker team has ever scored.

COACH EWALD O. "JUMBO" STIEHM

(Wisconsin, 1909) 35-2-3 (.913), 1911-15
 Under Ewald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm's direction, Nebraska won or tied for the Missouri Valley Conference championship every season. His winning percentage of .913 ranks as the highest in school history. His teams recorded a 34-game unbeaten streak, the longest in school history. Also Nebraska's basketball coach, he was the only coach in Big Eight history to win football and basketball titles in the same academic year. He was the first year-round coach in school history, but he went to Indiana University after NU refused to increase his salary to $4,250.

Ernest E. Bearg won Nebraska's first Big Six title in 1928 when his team went 7-1-1. NEBRASKA IN THE POLLS

The Associated Press poll began in 1936 and Nebraska came in at No. 15 in the first-ever regular-season poll on Oct. 24. The Huskers finished with a No. 9 national ranking that year. From 1936 through 1949, the AP polls did not come out until October. Beginning in 1950, AP polls were issued weekly throughout the entire regular season. Until 1964, all final rankings were based on regular-season finishes and did not include bowl game results. In 1965, the AP final rankings became post-bowl rankings (with the exception of 1966). In 1974, the UPI final ranking also became post-bowl, and since then all final rankings have included bowl results. The AP has tracked its all-time poll rankings based on finish in each of its final polls. NU checks in at No. 7 in the All-Time AP Poll and has appeared in more than 60 percent of all AP polls since 1936.

COACH BOB DEVANEY

(Alma, 1939) 101-20-2 (.829), 1962-72
 Bob Devaney won back-to-back national titles in 1970 and 1971 and eight Big Eight crowns. He retired in 1973 with a career record of 136-30-7 (.806), which left him as the winningest active coach in the nation. In 1971, he was named coach of the year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington Touchdown Club. Devaney was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1981 and into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976. His 11-year stint as head football coach is the second longest in school history behind Tom Osborne. He was Nebraska's athletic director from 1967 to 1992 and served as athletic director emeritus for four years, before retiring June 30, 1996. Devaney passed away on May 9, 1997.

COACH TOM OSBORNE

(Hastings, 1959) 255-49-3 (836), 1973-97

Tom Osborne was hand-picked by Bob Devaney as his successor and served as assistant head coach in 1972. Osborne is credited as the offensive genius behind Devaney's national championship teams and served as a full-time assistant from 1967 to 1972. Osborne won back-to-back national championships in 1994 and 1995, and a third national title in 1997. During his 25 seasons, Nebraska won 13 conference championships and went to 25 consecutive bowl games, including 17 "major" bowls. His teams won nine or more games every year and 11 national rushing titles. His athletes won six Outlands, three Lombardis, one Heisman, one Butkus and one Johnny Unitas Award. He reached 200 (21 seasons) and 250 wins faster than any coach in college football history. In his last five seasons, Osborne's teams posted a 60-3 record, the most wins in a five-year span by any team in collegiate history. He served as Nebraska's Athletic Director from 2007 to 2012.

COACH FRANK SOLICH

(Nebraska, 1966) 58-19 (.753), 1998-03
 Frank Solich was named Tom Osborne's successor on Dec. 10, 1997. He guided NU to a 12-1 record, Big 12 Championship and No. 2 final ranking in the coaches poll in 1999. In 2001, Solich led the Huskers to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the BCS title game in the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Solich coached Nebraska to a 9-3 regular-season record, but did not coach NU in the Alamo Bowl, as defensive coordinator Bo Pelini served as interim head coach. Solich was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2024. Solich was a member of Bob Devaney's first recruiting class in 1962. As a fullback, Solich earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game.

COACH SCOTT FROST

16-31 (.340), 2018-22

Scott Frost returned to his alma mater in 2018 as the fifth former Husker player to return as Nebraska's head coach. Frost came to Lincoln with two years of head coaching experience at UCF, where he posted the greatest two-year turnaround in college football history. Frost inherited an 0-12 UCF team and took the Knights to a perfect 13-0 season in his second and final year, when he was the national coach of the year. Previously, Frost spent seven seasons at Oregon - including three as the Ducks' offensive coordinator - and two years at Northern Iowa.

Note: The 2020 season was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The original 12-game schedule was changed to a 10-game conference-only schedule on Aug. 5 before the season was postponed on Aug. 11. On Sept. 16, a nine-game schedule was released, and the Huskers played eight games, as the Wisconsin game was canceled by the Badgers due to COVID-19.

The Big Ten prohibited ticket sales for the entirety of the 2020 season, with attendance limited to players' and coaches' families. As a result of that decision, Nebraska did not keep attendance figures for the season and paused its then-375-game home sellout streak.

* Interim President

Jeffrey P. Gold, M.D., became the ninth president of the University of Nebraska System on July 1, 2024, following a national search by the Board of Regents.

As president, Gold leads a four-campus university system that enrolls nearly 50,000 students and employs 16,000 faculty and staff on campuses in Lincoln, Omaha and Kearney, plus academic divisions and research and extension centers across the state. He serves as chief spokesman and chief executive officer for the system, which operates on a $3 billion annual budget and includes a flagship Big Ten institution, a world-renowned academic health sciences center, Division I athletics programs, and preeminent institutes focused on water and agriculture, national security and defense, infectious disease and early childhood education.

He is a nationally recognized higher education and health care leader and advocate. He was the chancellor of the University of Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) and board chair for the Nebraska Medicine Health System from 2014 to 2024. As UNMC's chief operating officer, Dr. Gold was responsible for all aspects of campus leadership, program quality and operation—including 7 colleges, 37 institutes and centers, 5,429 faculty and staff and 4,700 health professions students.

In July 2021, Dr. Gold was named the Provost and Executive Vice President of the University of Nebraska System in addition to his ongoing UNMC/Nebraska Medicine responsibilities. In this role, he served as the chief academic officer of the University of Nebraska System and liaison to the Board of Regents for academic affairs. From May 2017 through June 2021, Dr. Gold served as the chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, the state's only public metropolitan university—a role he held concurrently with being UNMC's chancellor.

He holds tenured faculty appointments in UNMC's College of Medicine and in the College of Public Health, where his research interests in health care policy, population health and epidemiology are concentrated. He has authored over 200 peer-reviewed manuscripts, 350 national presentations, 40 books and chapters and engaged in over 300 invited professorships and keynote presentations.

Dr. Gold is a first-generation student; he graduated from the Cornell University College of Engineering with a bachelor's degree in Theoretical and Applied Mechanics. He earned his M.D. from the Weill Cornell College of Medicine and completed his general surgery residency at The New York–Presbyterian Hospital and Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. He completed his cardiothoracic surgical fellowship training at the Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston, with additional training in pediatric cardiac surgery at the Boston Children's Hospital, both of the Harvard Medical School.

He has been certified by the American Board of Surgery and by the American Board of Thoracic Surgery, specializing in adult and pediatric cardiac surgery. Dr. Gold is licensed in Nebraska, Ohio, New York and New Jersey.

Dr. Gold leads several key economic development boards for the State and the University System, including the Greater Omaha Chamber, University Tech Development Corp, the University Tech Transfer Corp, and UNeTech Corp.

His national leadership roles have included more than 50 national professional committees and more than 100 national organizations, volunteer boards, government and public health councils. He has worked extensively with national- and state-level elected and appointed governing and administrative bodies as an advisor and trusted resource in the areas of higher education, research and clinical care.

Dr. Gold has been married for more than forty years to a medical school classmate. He has two adult children and two grandchildren.

UNIVERSITY BOARD OF REGENTS

The Board of Regents consists of eight voting members elected by district for six-year terms, and four non-voting student Regents, one from each campus, who serve during their tenure as student body president. The board supervises the general operations of the university, and the control and direction of all expenditures. The board also includes a corporation secretary who manages all records including agendas, minutes, notices, policies and bylaws. Those documents can be found on the web at nebraska.edu/board.

The board meets regularly, primarily in Lincoln but also in Omaha and greater Nebraska. Persons wishing to provide information to the board or to appear before it should contact: Corporation Secretary, University of Nebraska, Varner Hall, 3835 Holdrege, Lincoln, NE 68583.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN ADMINISTRATION

RODNEY BENNETT

[CHANCELLOR]

SCOTT FUESS JR.

[FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE]

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett began his work as the 21st chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Nebraska's flagship, Big Ten research institution on July 1, 2023. He is a 30-year veteran of higher education with a track record of growing research, increasing student success and building impactful partnerships.

In his first year as Chancellor, the University experienced rising retention and graduation rates, demonstrated positive signs related to enrollment, and expanded its research and creative activity efforts.

- In Fall 2023, almost 4,700 first-time freshmen enrolled at UNL—an increase of 1.3 percent from 2022. 75.4 percent of those first-time freshmen are from Nebraska.

- Spring 2024 overall enrollment reversed a trend of five straight years of spring enrollment declines.

- Over the last five years, UNL retention from first to second year has increased 2.3 percentage points and four-year graduation rate has increased more than 8.5 percentage points.

- In 2023, the university's total research expenditures grew to $366 million, a 37 percent increase over the past decade. UNL has also experienced tremendous growth in externally sponsored federal funding, increasing to a record $163 million in 2023.

Chancellor Bennett came to Nebraska after nine years of successful leadership at the University of Southern Mississippi. During his tenure as president, USM was reclassified from a Carnegie R2 to an R1 university, signaling growth in research prestige and funding. Dr. Bennett also invested in programs to support student recruitment, retention and outcomes, including for the 30 percent of USM students who were first-generation. His efforts led to an improvement in the university's six-year graduation rate.

Prior to his role at the University of Southern Mississippi, Dr. Bennett served at the University of Georgia for more than a decade. He was the senior administrator for student programs and services for Georgia's 34,000-plus students; oversaw $150 million in capital projects; and made key staff and programmatic investments in extracurriculars, mental health programs and other areas to better support students.

Dr. Bennett has also been the dean of students at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina, and associate dean of student life at Middle Tennessee State University.

Chancellor Bennett values community leadership and service. He has served on numerous boards, including the Mississippi Aquarium, Northeast Georgia Girl Scouts of America, Catholic Health East (Philadelphia), and St. Mary's Health Care System in Athens, Georgia. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity and Past Sire Archon for Sigma Pi Phi fraternity, The Boulé.

Dr. Bennett earned a bachelor's degree in mass communication, a master's degree in educational administration, and an education specialist degree from Middle Tennessee State. He earned his Doctor of Education degree from Tennessee State University.

He and his wife, Temple, are the parents of two adult daughters, Colby and Logan.

Scott M. Fuess Jr. is in his fifth year as Nebraska's Faculty Athletics Representative, having started on July 1, 2020.

As faculty athletics representative, Fuess serves as a liaison between the Office of the Chancellor and Athletic Department. He also serves on the Athletic Department's Executive Staff. His areas of focus in the role include the welfare of student-athletes, NCAA and Big Ten Conference compliance, maintaining the positive relationship between athletics and faculty, developing and responding to NCAA legislative proposals and representing the university at related NCAA and Big Ten Conference meetings. This past year he was appointed to a four-year term on the NCAA DI Committee on Academics.

The half-time position - which was restructured to an expected term of five years - reports directly to the University of Nebraska System President and consults with Director of Athletics Troy Dannen. He splits time between faculty representative duties and academic responsibilities.

Fuess, the Steinhart Distinguished Professor of Business and former chair of the College of Business' economics department, has worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since 1986. He serves on the Faculty Senate's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, having chaired the committee for 2018-19 and a sub-committee in 2017-18. He also has served on numerous Big Ten Conference committees, including the Sports Management Committee, the Compliance and Reinstatement Committee and the Legislative Review Committee. From 2022 to 2024, he served as Chair of the B1G Compliance and Reinstatement Committee.

Fuess earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware, as well as master's and doctoral degrees from Purdue University. His research interests are labor economics, the economics of collegiate sports, and the economy of Japan. He has earned numerous "Distinguished Teaching" awards. In 2016 he received the UNL College of Business "Distinguished Service" award.

*Interim Co-Directors

Troy Dannen, a leading voice in collegiate athletics with extensive experience as an athletic director and deep ties to the Midwest, is in his first year as Nebraska's Director of Athletics. Dannen was hired on March 20, 2024, and has hit the ground running in Lincoln.

Nebraska Athletics enjoyed success during Dannen's first championship season, as the Husker baseball program won its first Big Ten Tournament title and reached the 40-win plateau for the first time since 2014 while the Husker track teams put together impressive showings. The Husker men won the Big Ten Outdoor title and earned their best NCAA Championship finish since 2016 with a 13th-place finish, while the Husker women posted their second straight top-10 NCAA finish and placed ninth at the national meet. Nebraska finished 22nd in the final 2023-24 Learfield Director's Cup, the program's highest finish since 2010.

Dannen has been a leader in charting the course for a new era of collegiate athletics, serving from 2021 to 2023 as a member of the NCAA Constitution Committee and the Division I Transformation Committee. Dannen also previously served as the chair of the NCAA Football Competition Committee and was an Executive Committee member of the Football Oversight Committee. In total, Dannen has served on seven NCAA committees.

In 2022, Dannen was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, and he received the Distinguished American Award from the Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Dannen came to Lincoln after serving as Director of Athletics at the University of Washington. He helped guide the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten Conference and oversaw a football program that reached the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in January of 2024.

He arrived at Washington in the fall of 2023 after serving as Director of Athletics at Tulane University since 2015. While at Tulane, Green Wave student-athletes earned 49 All-America honors, a national championship, 21 conference championships and 41 postseason appearances.

In 2022-23, Tulane football won its first American Athletic Conference football championship and won the Cotton Bowl over USC, which was ranked ninth in the nation at that time. The men's basketball program won 20 regular-season games for the first time in two decades. Additionally, men's tennis advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament in seven years, both bowling and beach volleyball finished ranked in the top 20, and baseball won the conference championship.

Tulane's football program participated in an unprecedented three consecutive bowl games from 2018 to 2020, winning back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 128 years of football at the University.

In the classroom, Tulane student-athletes excelled at a high-level. At the end of the 2022-23 academic year, over 68 percent of Green Wave student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or better, with a 93 percent Graduation Success Rate and a record-setting department Academic Progress Report of 992, with seven teams earning a perfect 1000 APR score.

Dannen spearheaded fundraising efforts and numerous capital projects at Tulane. He helped secure the largest unrestricted gift in Tulane Athletics history, an endowment gift that funded the operation of a new sport (sailing), and a $10 million lead gift for capital renovations, which was the second-largest gift in department history. In addition, marketing and licensing revenue grew four-fold, and in 2022-23, Tulane football, basketball and volleyball set ticket sales and revenue records. Under Dannen's leadership, the Green Wave Club Annual Fund grew by 40 percent in terms of donors, and 45 percent in terms of dollars.

Increases in fundraising and major gift donors positively impacted capital project development and completion. A $13 million renovation to the Reilly Natatorium, home of the swimming and diving program, as well as $8 million in renovations to locker rooms and the sports medicine area inside the Wilson Center were completed in 2023. Dannen also oversaw construction of a new dining facility, weight room, basketball and volleyball locker rooms. Tulane also completed a $2.4 million academic center renovation and a $5 million television and digital production center.

Dannen came to Tulane after serving eight years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) from 2008 to 2015. During his tenure, the Panthers enjoyed success at both the conference and national levels, highlighted by an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010 by the UNI men's basketball team. During his eight-year tenure, UNI was recognized with 39 All-Americans, 13 Coaches of the Year and nine Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Players of the Year. UNI football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball and softball combined to reach 15 NCAA tournaments and 20 postseason berths during that stretch. For his efforts, Dannen was recognized as NACDA's FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014.

Prior to his time at UNI, Dannen served as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union's Executive Director for seven years, overseeing 400 high schools and 10 sports.

Dannen grew up on a farm just outside Marshalltown, Iowa, and graduated from UNI in 1989 with a degree in communications. He is married to Amy, and has four children: Elle, Emily, Holly and William.

NEBRASKA MEDIA SERVICES

COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

The Nebraska Communications Office is available to assist the media with coverage of the Nebraska football program. The Communications Office is located on the third floor of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex in the North end of Memorial Stadium.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics and other media inquiries, please call the Communications Office at (402) 472-2263, visit Huskers.com or e-mail Director Keith Mann (kmann@huskers.com), Senior Associate Director Shamus McKnight (smcknight@huskers.com) or Associate Director Matt Smith (msmith@huskers.com). Below are guidelines for covering Nebraska in-season. Additions or changes to these policies can be found at Huskers.com/media.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Nebraska utilizes an on-line credentialing system. Directions regarding the application process will be sent to media members or can be accessed at Huskers.com/media. Out-of-state media can contact Vicki Capazo in the Communications Office at (402) 472-7769 or vcapazo@huskers.com for assistance.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) writers from news outlets covering for same or next day publication; (2) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (3) press and TV working photographers; (4) sports editors/reporters of Nebraska daily newspapers; (5) official school student daily newspaper; (6) approved special coverage as space allows. Visiting freelance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials, except by approval of the Nebraska Communications Office.

MEDIA ACCESS

The game-day entrance to Memorial Stadium for the media is at the Media Gate 7 entrance on street level on the west side of the stadium (main lobby of West Stadium). The working press area is on Level 6 (Don Bryant Media Facility) with the photo and television deck on Level 7. Level 3 (West Stadium Club) and Levels 4 and 5 (Skybox Suites) of the West Stadium and Level 7 of the North and East Stadium Suites are not open to the media or public.

Single-game media credentials can be picked up at West Stadium Lobby Media Will Call on game days, beginning five hours prior to kickoff. Those picking up credentials must show a photo I.D., and all credential holders (season or single game) must receive a wristband to accompany their credential in order to be admitted into Memorial Stadium. Bag check and tagging will also occur in the West Stadium lobby.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking at Memorial Stadium is at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is divided among several lots around Memorial Stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to Lot 4 (South Stadium lot) later than 90 minutes before kickoff.

Each approved media outlet will receive one complimentary parking pass. Media outlets

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Each Monday during game weeks, Nebraska will hold a press conference featuring Head Coach Matt Rhule. The press conference will be held in the Hawks Championship Center media room.

Media may not provide live coverage of any press conference on any digital platform or website. The only live coverage that is permitted is live television coverage. A free, live video stream will be available on Huskers.com and streamed on other social media platforms. Shortly following the press conference, a press conference video will be made available to media members followed by a written transcript.

INTERVIEW POLICY

During the season, Matt Rhule is available in person at a Monday press conference and briefly after practice on Thursdays of game week. Any other interviews with Coach Rhule must be arranged through the Communications Office at least one day in advance.

Nebraska players and coordinators are available for interviews in person on Tuesdays. Player interviews can occasionally be set up for other times with at least one day advance notice. All requests for player and coach interviews must go through the Communications Office. Post-practice interviews with players and coaches should not be streamed live online.

No interviews are to be conducted in the Osborne Legacy Complex or Nebraska Student Life Complex.

DAILY PRACTICES

During the season, practices are normally conducted either in Memorial Stadium, in the Hawks Championship Center or on the Ed and Joyanne Gass Practice Fields northeast of the stadium. Practices are generally closed to the media and public. Media arriving to conduct interviews with Nebraska players and coaches should arrive to the designated post-practice interview area shortly before the end of practice.

Opportunities for media members to shoot photos and video of practice will be communicated to the media. As a general rule, these opportunities will only be during fall camp and not during the season. During open practice times, media are prohibited from streaming practice live and no interviews should be conducted during this time period. Media are also asked to refrain from live practice reports until after the conclusion of the open period. This includes social media, radio reports, video reports, etc.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Matt Rhule and requested players will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. Nebraska's assistant coaches are not available following games.

For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to team locker room areas, but Coach Rhule and requested personnel will be brought to Hawks Championship Center media room. Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. To access the room, media may use one of three routes

1) If coming directly from the press box, you can exit West Stadium, walk around the north side of Memorial Stadium and enter at the Hawks Center main doors

2) If exiting from the northeast corner of the field, media may exit the stadium at Gate 15, walk down the sidewalk to the front doors of the Hawks Center and enter in that location.

Wednesday	Nebraska Football Radio Show (6-7 p.m.)
Thursday	Post-Practice Interview (A.M.) Coach Rhule

The Hawks Media Room will close approximately two hours after the press conference has concluded.

For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Interview requests, home and away, will be taken by Keith Mann and the Communications staff at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as needed.

Nebraska players and coaches will not do interviews on the field after the game other than the broadcast partners.

The visiting locker room at Memorial Stadium is located underneath the South Stadium. The visiting team interview area is just off the main tunnel leading to the visitor's locker room.

Live coverage of any press conference on any digital platform or website is prohibited, including post-game press conferences, both home and away, with the exception of live television coverage. A live stream will be available on Huskers.com and a complete video will be made available to the media following the press conference.

If media are planning to do live shots on the field after the game, they should make advance arrangements with the Communications Office, as well as contact Scott Guthrie in HuskerVision (402-472-4645).

SIDELINE POLICIES

The Big Ten Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as safe as possible. All sideline photographers must have a photo vest and a photo credential, and both must be clearly visible. Vests will be issued beginning three hours before game time. Vests will be issued to media members with a photo credential who will be shooting still photos or video during the game. Media without a photo vest may access the sideline during pre-game and in the final five minutes of the game. Special exceptions to this also include interviews with special guests on the field at halftime, quarter breaks, etc. All other media should work from their assigned location on Level 6 or Level 7.

Those individuals receiving a photo vest will be asked to sign a waiver concerning the usage of photos at the time they check out the vests. Vests may be returned to one of four locations following the game: Nebraska post-game interview room, opponent post-game interview room, press box, photographers work area.

The photographers work area is available on field level, just off the southeast corner of the playing field.

Additional sideline policies include: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, website, magazine, television station or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication may be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo credential. (2) Media outlets with same or next day publication will be given preference for sideline credentials (Special requests must be submitted to the Communications Director for review). (3) Assistants, equipment carriers, etc. will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials and vest at all times. (5) University personnel will be present on the sideline to ensure that all credentials are properly displayed. Those possessing bench credentials must remain inside the team bench area (between the 20-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers should not congregate in the writers' section of the media facility during halftime, during or after the game.

FACILITY USE RESTRICTIONS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access or use the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

BIG TEN CREDENTIAL POLICY & RESTRICTIONS

This working credential is subject in all respects to the Media Credential Criteria and Policies set forth by The Big Ten Conference, Inc. as in effect from time to time. This working credential is issued for the sole purpose of providing facility access to an accredited agency's employee who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in conjunction with this event. Any alteration, assignment, duplication, modification, sale, or transfer of this credential is expressly prohibited. Violation of the foregoing or any other unauthorized use of this credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the facility and prosecution for criminal trespass, in addition to all other rights or remedies available to the Big Ten Conference, Inc. By using this working credential, the bearer and accredited organization voluntarily assume any and all risks, hazards, and dangers in connection with or incidental or ancillary to this event, including, without limitation, the risk of personal injury, death, exposure to communicable disease, virus, bacteria, or illness, and lost, stolen, or damaged property, and release, waive, and agree to jointly and severally indemnify The Big Ten Conference, Inc. from and against any claim, damage, expense, liability, or loss arising out of or otherwise related to the same. Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without The Big Ten Conference, Inc.'s prior explicit written approval. Nothing in these terms and conditions allows, authorizes, or grants the bearer of these credentials any right in or to the trademarks, copyright or any other proprietary rights of The Big Ten Conference, Inc. and its member institutions, each of which are expressly reserved. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the seven (7) days following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

Non-originating radio stations or other outlets may not provide play-by-play coverage, live or delayed, but may provide short news updates provided such news update is one minute or less occurring no more than once per hour.

Media are also prohibited from live coverage of any Nebraska press conference on any digital media platform or website, with the exception of live television coverage.

INTERNET/WIRELESS

Media will have use of wireless internet in the Memorial Stadium press box.

Media members using wireless frequencies at Memorial Stadium will be asked to register that equipment in advance. Media will be prompted to complete a frequency coordination form when they fill out their on-line credential application. (Note: This does not apply to those registering for wireless internet access).

Information such as statistics, postgame quotes, play-by-play, etc., will be available online at Huskers.com. If arrangements are made in advance, postgame notes, quotes and game statistics may be e-mailed.

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on January 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Southern California to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition will begin for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama. The experience was so transformational for all involved that the Big Ten returned to Selma and Montgomery in 2023, not just for the Big Life Series visit, but also a separate trip for a youth tennis clinic featuring conference student-athletes and staff.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On August 4, 2023, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective August 2, 2024, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington would also join the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

BIG TEN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 14th annual Big Ten Football Championship Game is scheduled for Dec. 7, 2024, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. The game will be televised to a national audience on CBS with kickoff set for 7 p.m. Central. The game will match the top two teams in the conference standings, and the winner of the contest will be presented the Stagg Championship Trophy.

During the first 13 seasons, Wisconsin (2011, 2012), Michigan (2021, 2022, 2023), Michigan State (2013, 2015), Ohio State (2014, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020) and Penn State (2016) have captured titles. Nebraska made its first title game appearance in 2012 and lost to Wisconsin.

While a member of the Big 12 Conference, Nebraska participated in the league title game six times. Nebraska captured Big 12 crowns in 1997 and 1999, and was also the North Division representative in the game in 1996, 2006, 2009 and 2010.

2024 BIG TEN BOWL LINEUP

The Big Ten features the largest and most diverse postseason lineup in conference history. COMMITMENT TO COMPLIANCE

On behalf of the University of Nebraska student-athletes, coaches, and Athletic Department staff, I would like to express my appreciation for your continued support of our entire athletic program. The University of Nebraska is known for its loyal, passionate, and knowledgeable fans. It is this type of fervent support that not only assists Nebraska student-athletes in reaching their full potential on and off the playing field, but also draws the next generation of student-athletes to our campus. However, as a University of Nebraska donor, alumni, or fan, please remember that you are also required to know and follow NCAA regulations.

Our coaches, student-athletes, and Athletic Department staff members are knowledgeable about NCAA regulations because they receive ongoing education. But, to truly attain the excellence the University of Nebraska strives for, we also need our supporters to be educated about these same regulations. In turn, you will be assisting us with protecting the eligibility and well-being of our current and future student-athletes.

Please review the information listed below, which includes some of the most important and frequently asked questions about NCAA regulations and the link to new information about policies pertaining to the NCAA's new Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) rules. Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

What is an "extra benefit"?

An "extra benefit" is any benefit provided to a student-athlete or a student-athlete's relatives or friends that is not authorized by NCAA legislation or available to the general student body. The following list is not exhaustive, but includes examples of "extra benefits" that jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility:

- Free or discounted: food, merchandise, housing, tickets, repairs, haircuts, tattoos, golf/gym memberships, jewelry, etc;
- Use of a car, boat, or ATV; and
- Gifts, loans, money, or gift cards.

Can I contact prospective student-athletes (recruits) for the Huskers?

No. It is not permissible for boosters to contact recruits. This restriction applies to, but is not limited to, the following forms of contact:

- Face-to-Face Meetings;
- Phone Calls, Zoom, or any other type of videoconferencing;
- Emails/Text Messages/DMS; and
- Facebook, Twitter, and all other forms of social media communication.

Although we recognize that some donors, alumni, and fans may have preexisting relationships with student-athletes through family and friends, please contact our staff prior to providing any benefit to a current student-athlete. It is important that the nature of the relationship and proposed benefit is disclosed in advance to ensure the student-athlete's eligibility is not jeopardized. In addition to answering questions directly, our staff can work with the NCAA and Big Ten Conference to confirm whether a benefit is permissible. Please contact our office at (402) 472-2042 or compliance@huskers.com with any questions.

DEVANEY LEGACY SOCIETY

For 35 years, Bob Devaney was the driving force behind Nebraska Athletics. The endowment and planned giving program with the Huskers Athletic Fund is proudly named in his honor. By establishing a scholarship endowment, program endowment or planned gift with Nebraska Athletics, you will support our student-athletes by funding expenses directly related to education, personal development and sports performance.

ENDOWMENTS

Nebraska Athletics provides the maximum number of scholarships allowed for our student-athletes across 24 sports. New scholarship and program endowments start at $100,000 and are payable over five years.

PLANNED GIVING

Establishing your legacy through a planned gift can impact the student-athletes of today while building a lasting tradition of support for the student-athletes of tomorrow. Many planned gifts provide substantial tax advantages and other unique benefits. If you have considered including Nebraska Athletics in your will, please contact the Huskers Athletic Fund at (402) 472-3111 or email nebraska@huskers.com.
