Travis Hunter

Travis Hunter officially played in 131 snaps against North Dakota State. He played all 69 snaps on defense and 55 of 57 offensive plays with one of those being mandated that he come out after his helmet came off after gaining a first down. Adding to his total he played seven special teams plays between punt return, field goal block, and kick return. If you count plays that had penalties negate a play he finished with 135 total plays.

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur Sanders became only the second quarterback in the last 20 years to throw for at least 400 yards and four touchdowns in back-to-back season openers joining two-time NFL MVP and three-time Super Bowl champion Patrick Mahomes.

After throwing four touchdowns against North Dakota State Shedeur became one of only two active quarterbacks to have thrown at least 100 career touchdown passes, joining Miami's Cam Ward.

With his combined FCS and FBS stats he is near the top of every statistical category for players in the past three seasons of college football, and accomplishing that for the most part in less attempts.

He ranks fifth in passing yards with 10,948, second in passing touchdowns with 101, has thrown the least amount of interceptions of any QB with at least 1,200 attempts. In the last three seasons he is the only FBS/FCS QB with at least 70 touchdowns and fewer than 20 interceptions.

Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders

Known as "Prime Time" during his Hall of Fame playing career, Deion Sanders and has since transitioned into "Coach Prime," and was named the 28th full-time head football coach at the University of Colorado, athletic director Rick George announced Saturday, Dec. 3, 2022.

Coach Prime put the Buffs back on the map, as CU was the center of the college football world through September in his first season. Despite finishing 4-8, Colorado was the most watched team in the nation until the final week of the regular season and finished sixth despite not making the postseason. CU was on network television a record five times and had eight games on either network TV or the flagship ESPN.

In two recruiting cycles, he has recruiting three five-star prospect to the Buffs, matching the total from the previous 21 seasons combined. CU's first five games of 2023 ended up being in five of the top 25 most watched games in college football through the bowl season and playoffs, and five of the top 13 rated games in CU history.

Coach Prime joined the Buffs from Jackson State University, where in three seasons the Tigers compiled a 27-6 record and won back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference championships and Celebration Bowl appearances competing on the FCS level; that mark included a 12-1 record this season. This year, Jackson State defeated Southern, 43-24, in the SWAC title game but fell in overtime to N.C. Central, 41-34, in the Celebration Bowl.

At Jackson State, Sanders achieved tremendous success on and off the field as a fierce advocate for additional exposure and a level playing field for all Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Sanders brought national attention to HBCUs, pushing for opportunities to highlight its talent and the culture. In March 2022, Sanders held a Pro Day featuring athletes from four other schools in the state of Mississippi to provide a platform in front of 22 NFL teams and the Canadian Football League. In April 2022, Jackson State became the first HBCU to have its spring football game televised live nationally on ESPNU.

Sanders was named the 21st head coach in Jackson State history on Sept. 21, 2020, but had to wait to coach his first game until COVID-19 restrictions were lifted and several FCS schools opted to play a delayed schedule in the spring. Exactly six months to the day later (Feb. 21, 2021), he led the Tigers to a 53-0 win over Edward Waters (Fla.) to begin the "Coach Prime Era." It was considered the touch point of the elevation of JSU football and the University into becoming one of the most impactful and recognizable brands nationwide.

JSU was 4-3 in the pandemic-delayed 2020 season before rolling to an 11-2 record in 2021, winning the SWAC title with a 27-10 win over Prairie View A&M in the title game. The Tigers lost to South Carolina State in the Celebration Bowl; otherwise their only other losses over his last 26 games was a 12-7 setback at FBS Louisiana-Monroe in Sept. '21 and this year's bowl.

Seven of his players on the 2021 JSU roster earned a professional opportunity in the NFL, CFL or USFL, including James Houston IV, who was drafted in the sixth round by the Detroit Lions. He also signed cornerback Travis Hunter, considered the top high school prospect in the nation, to an NLI in December 2021, the highest ranked prospect to ever sign with an HBCU or an FCS program.

Sanders was voted the SWAC's Coach of the Year for a second straight season; 12 of his players earned some level of All-SWAC honors. For the 2021 campaign, he also garnered honors for the FCS Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year, BOXTOTOW National Coach of the Year and Black College Hall of Fame Coach of the Year.

Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks at Jackson State, Sanders had been involved in coaching for over a decade. He was the offensive coordinator at Trinity Christian School (Cedar Hill, Texas), leading the Tigers to three straight Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) titles and a 42-3 record.

A two-time unanimous first-team All-American at Florida State, he won the third annual Jim Thorpe Award in 1988, presented to the nation's top defensive back. That same year, he finished eighth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his Seminole football career with 14 interceptions, three returned for touchdowns; those are still tied for third in the FSU record book. He owns the longest interception return in school history when he raced 100 yards for a TD against Tulsa as a freshman. Sanders also racked up a still-school record 1,429 punt return yards with three more scores. Playing for the late Hall of Fame coach Bobby Bowden, FSU was 36-9-1 in his four seasons as a Seminole, finishing as the nation's No. 2 team as a junior in 1987 and No. 3 his senior season in 1988.

He also played one season of baseball for FSU (as a sophomore in 1987, batting .267 with three home runs, 21 runs batted in and 27 stolen bases) and ran sprints and relays in track (he was the 1988 Metro Conference outdoor champion in the 100- and 200-meter dashes). He was inducted into Florida State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the College Football Hall of Fame in its 2011 class.

Sanders is the only athlete ever to play in both a Super Bowl (twice) and the World Series.

He appeared in 188 regular season games (157 starts) in the National Football League with five teams: Atlanta (1989-93; the Falcons selected him as the fifth overall pick in the first round in the '89 Draft), San Francisco (1994), Dallas (1995-99), Washington (2000) and Baltimore (2004-05). He was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year for 1994, was named to its 1990s All-Decade Team and to the NFL's All-Time Team in 2020, the latter as part of the league's 100th season celebration.

"Prime Time" made 53 interceptions over the course of his career, with 512 tackles, 19 forced fumbles and 13 recoveries. He amassed 7,838 all-purpose yards, primarily through returns (2,199 punt, 3,523 kickoff). He also caught 60 passes for 784 yards and three touchdowns as in 1996, he became just one of two, two-way starters in the NFL since the platoon days of the 1950s. He set an NFL record with 19 career touchdowns on returns, nine coming via interception returns with six on punts, three on kickoffs and one fumble run back.

In Major League Baseball, he was drafted out of high school in the sixth round of the 1985 draft by the Kansas City Royals and then selected in the '88 draft by the New York Yankees.

Sanders played a total of 11 seasons in professional baseball, nine in the major leagues with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta (1991-94), Cincinnati (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco (1995). In 641 major league games, he owned a career batting average of .263 with 39 home runs, 168 runs batted in and 186 stolen bases.

With Coach Prime and Warren Sapp, the staff has two gold jackets and a combined 35 playoff appearances.

There are 12 former NFL players on staff and of those 932 games, 894 are regular season games and include 580 starts. Nebraska leads the all-time series by a 49-21-2 count, which includes a 26-9 advantage in Lincoln and a 23-12-2 edge in Boulder; some CU highlights:

- 🏈 The two first met in 1898, making it the second oldest rivalry in CU's books (the Colorado State series began in 1893). The winner of the CU-Nebraska game, even though not at the end of the year, wound up deciding the Big Eight champion in the conference's last seven years of existence, with CU winning the league crown in 1989 and 1990. The two shared the title in 1991 and Nebraska captured the last four (1992-95). Thus, it was only fitting that the pair met to determine the Big 12's first North Division champ in 1996 (Nebraska won, 17-12 in Lincoln). CU has faced Nebraska 18 times when the Huskers were either undefeated or had just one loss (nine times each); CU's had zero or just one loss on eight occasions, and both schools were ranked in the top 25 in every meeting from 1988 through 1996, as they were again in 2001.
- 🏈 The infamous 62-36 Colorado win in 2001 in Boulder knocked the Huskers out of the No. 1 spot in the BCS Standings and paved the way for CU's first and only Big 12 title, as the Buffaloes defeated Texas the following week in Dallas, 39-37.
- 🏈 Nebraska rallied for a 31-22 win in 2003 and knocked the Buffs out of a postseason bowl. CU returned that favor with bigger implications in 2004, as a 26-20 win in Lincoln dropped NU to 5-6 on the year and ended the Huskers' run of 35 straight bowl game appearances. Both schools were 5-6 entering the 2007 game, with CU's 65-51 win keeping Nebraska home; and in 2008, Nebraska did the same to the Buffs, scoring 10 points in the last 1:43, dropping CU to 5-7 and home for the holidays.
- 🏈 Coach Prime is 1-0 against Nebraska. Nebraska coach Matt Rhule is 0-1 against Colorado.

SIGNATURE ANNIVERSARY GAME

29th. In 1990, Colorado had rebounded from falling to No. 20 earlier in the year into the No. 9 spot, and with three top 10 teams already falling on Nov. 3, a cold and rainy day in many parts of the country, the Buffs could make up some ground if it could upend No. 2 Nebraska in Lincoln. After spotting Nebraska a 12-0 lead, with star TB Eric Bieniemy fumbling the ball five times in the first three quarters, CU appeared to be shooting itself in the foot. But the resilient Bieniemy battled back to lead the Buffs to a 27-12 by scoring four touchdowns in the fourth quarter. The win propelled the Buffs all the way into the No. 4 spot the next day, putting the Buffs in position to eventually finish the season ranked No. 1. Bieniemy ran for 137 yards, while Mike Pritchard caught three Darian Hagan passes for 90 yards, two setting up touchdowns. Greg Biekert and Ted Johnson led the defense with 14 tackles each, with Joel Steed adding 11. The Buffs' David Gibbs sniffed out a fake punt on a 4th-&-3 with Huskers down, 13-12; Rob Hutchins stopped Tim Johnk with a 2-yard gain, and CU capitalized five plays later on Bieniemy's third score to take a 20-12 lead with just 4:35 to go.

Mac Picks Nebraska As CU's Rival

An excerpt from David Plati's book, due to be out in spring/summer 2025.

Colorado's rivals for most of the century were Utah and Colorado A&M/State. But the CSU rivalry had been dormant since 1958 and the Utah one since 1962, and in that period, the Buffaloes were lacking a true rival. Air Force partially filled the void starting in the early 60s, but that series also went dormant after 1974. In comes Bill McCartney in 1982 and he kept asking those in the community, "Who is our natural rival? No one knew. Honestly if they had said Iowa State or Kansas, it would have been either of them. But when I got here, people talked about Nebraska and how they (fans) came and filled up our stadium."

Thus, he selected Nebraska as CU's designated rival and put the game on the schedule posted in the team house in red letters. But it was always based on respect, not animosity. He emulated the broad success of the program, on the field, in the classroom, doing things the right way (no NCAA probation issues) and graduating their players. "No one can look over Nebraska's shoulder and see deceit," Mac told the Lincoln Journal-Star in 1983. "(Coach) Tom Osborne is a great representative of that university. His leadership stands for all the things I believe in intercollegiate football. That's why we salute Nebraska, that's why we challenge them and why we want them to be our most significant rival, because of the way they structure their whole program. Very few programs of that stature are built on those principles."

Many in Nebraska took it the wrong way, but Mac had picked NU because it was an elite, clean winning program and emulated its design. If anyone should have been upset, it should have been Oklahoma fans. Tom Osborne and most Nebraska fans would never admit it was a rivalry, even though it was by nature since the two were in the same conference since 1948 and in bordering states.

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur Sanders Had One Of Best Seasons In School History

QB Shedeur Sanders turned heads in the 2023 season, particularly through the first half of the season. He finished the season in the top 10 in four major statistical categories and in the top 25 in three others. At the time of his injury, he led the nation in receptions per game at 27.1 and finished second, leading the Pac-12. He finished fourth nationally in passing yards (314.4, second in the league), eighth in completion percentage (69.3, third), 12th in passing touchdowns (27, fourth), 18th in total offense (286.6, fifth) and 24th in pass efficiency (151.7, fifth). His 9.0 touchdown/interception ratio was fourth best in the nation behind Oregon's Bo Nix (15.0, 45-3), Penn State's Drew Allar (12.5, 25-2) and LSU's Jayden Daniels (10.0, 40-4).

In terms of CU records, his 3,230 yards, 0.7 interception percentage, 9.0 touchdown/interception ratio, 151.7 quarterback rating and 69.3 completion percentage are all new school marks, and his 298 completions and 430 pass attempts both rank second all-time.

Shedeur Sanders Clutch Stats Among Top The Nation

Shedeur Sanders' season can't alone be explained by surface level stats, and when you look at clutch situations, a clearer understanding of his impact truly unfolds.

In the second half of games, he was 150-of-209 (.718) for 1,954 yards with 18 touchdowns and 1 interception. His 195.4 yards per game in the second half led the nation and his 18 touchdowns was third most, the only quarterback to have 18 or more in 10 games and his 18.0 touchdown/interception ratio also led the nation.

In the fourth quarter, he was 67-of-92 for 1,038 yards with 11 touchdowns and no interceptions. He's the only quarterback with more than six touchdowns in the fourth quarter with no interceptions and his yardage ranked second nationally and his QB rating of 207.2 was sixth-best but second best among quarterbacks with more than 60 attempts, and second behind Daniels for QB's with even 30-plus attempts.

On third-and-10-plus, he was 30-of-40 for 400 yards, two touchdowns and an interception with 16 first downs, the 16 first downs tied with Oklahoma's Dillon Gabriel for most in the nation. He is one of three quarterbacks to throw for 400-plus yards on third-and-10-plus.

On fourth-down he was a perfect 5-of-5 passing for 99 yards with two touchdowns. Three quarterbacks were perfect passing on fourth down with at least five attempts, but he is one of two that got a first down on every fourth down passing attempt along with Rice's A.J. Padgett. His QB rating on fourth down was 398.32, second best in the nation.

He is also great when the Buffs are trailing by one score, hitting on 71-of-99 (.717) passes for 592 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions and a QB rating of 153.1. His completion percentage in those situations is second nationally and best for quarterbacks with more than 20 pass attempts in that situation.

CU FOOTBALL HISTORICAL SNAPSHOT

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes continue their 135th season of intercollegiate football in 2024. Through week one of the 2024 season, CU has played in 1,304 games with an all-time record of 724-544-36.

In FBS, only 23 programs began earlier than the Buffs did in 1890 and only 13 programs have played more seasons than the Buffs (134) with the only Big 12 program ahead being Cincinnati starting its 137th season. Colorado ranks tied for second in the Big 12 with Kansas.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Starting from the top a family environment has been set for the Buffs have the most sets of brothers in the country with six in FBS Football. The brothers include Brandon and Colton Hood who are also joined by their cousin Trenton Hood, Kaleb and Cole Mathis whose dad Kevin Mathis is the cornerback coach, Chidozie and Chijoke Nwankwo, Shedeur and Shilo Sanders with their dad Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders, Destin and Keaton Wade, and Jaylen and LaJohntay Wester.

FATHER AND SON DUO

Not only are there multiple pairs of brothers on the team, Colorado is one of nine FBS teams with a father son pair as the head coach and player, Kennesaw State is the only other team with two sons playing with their dad. Shedeur Sanders is one of only two quarterbacks in the country with his dad as the head coach with Kennesaw State's Braden Bohannon.

NEW TOP DAWG

LaJohntay Wester transferred in from Florida Atlantic (FAU) where he consistently gave defenses problems on offense as well as a returner specifically a punt returner. Offensively he is the active NCAA leader in career receptions with 257 as well as the highest returning from last season where he caught 108 passes. Once he got the ball he made things happen currently sitting at seventh with 2,752 receiving yards, seventh for yards after catch with 1,345, and tied for tenth in touchdowns with 21. His newest teammate from Vanderbilt Will Sheppard is also tied for tenth among active players with 21 career receiving touchdowns.

Among all the stats that Wester finds himself at the top of to start the 2024 season, he is currently second with 38 straight games with a reception dating back to his freshman season. The only player with a longer streak is running back Jo'Quavious Marks previously at Mississippi State, but will play this season at USC.

BACK TO THE PORTAL

Once again Colorado attacked the portal with the second most scholarship newcomers with 50 behind only North Texas who had 54. The Buffs will also see the second fewest overall returning players as well as scholarship players with 51 and 31 respectively behind North Texas in both regards. This season there will be zero players in their final year of eligibility who started their college career as a Buff.

2024 Colorado Football Anniversaries

- 1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).
- 1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912.
- 1924 (Oct. 11) The 100th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.
- 1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.
- 1949 (Oct. 29) The 75th anniversary of perhaps the wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.
- 1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players, including tri-captain Bill Collins, while the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time.
- 1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting for 45 years between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-6.
- 1979 (Sept. 8) The 45th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.
- 1984 (Sept. 15) The 40th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver.
- 1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer.
- 1994 The 30th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.
- 2004 (Oct. 16) Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60-yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State.

Travis Hunter

Travis Hunter is revolutionizing the way college football is played, starting both ways each of the first three games at both cornerback and wide receiver in the 2023 season and recording the top two scrimmage snap games in CU history before leaving the CSU game at halftime with an injury after a late hit. He missed three-and-a-half games and returned for the Stanford game, where he set a new high with 160 total snaps (168 counting penalty plays) and 149 snaps from scrimmage. FOX Sports put together a list of the Top 10 two-way performers in the last 30 seasons.

In chronological order, they are Champ Bailey, Georgia, Charles Woodson, Michigan, Chris Gable, Ohio State, Owen Marecic, Stanford, Shaq Thompson, Washington, Nick Vigil, Utah State, Myles Jacks, UCLA, Jabrill Peppers, Michigan and Adoree' Jackson, USC.

Awards Season

Hunter is the first known player to be named to a preseason watch list of both the Biletnikoff Award and Thorpe Award since Champ Bailey going into the 1998 season. Award watch lists were not as common, but it is known that Georgia pushed Bailey for both awards so Hunter could be the first to ever be on both lists. As the season progressed Bailey advanced to as a semifinalist for the Thorpe but not the Biletnikoff.

Players With 50 Receptions, 3 INTs

Against Utah in 2023, he surpassed the 50 catch mark and became the first player in at least the last 25 years of FBS with 50 receptions and three interceptions. Only Champ Bailey accomplished the 40 catch and 3 interception mark.

BUFFS BACK IN PRIMETIME

The 2024 season began like much of the 2023 season, with the entire country on the edge of their seat watching the Colorado Buffaloes. The marquee match-up on ESPN to kickoff week one of the 2024 season did not disappoint. Against a FCS powerhouse in North Dakota State the game averaged 4.8 million viewers which was the most for a Thursday night opener on ESPN since 2017 and up 49% from a year ago in the same time slot. Not only that but the game peaked at 5.6 million viewers.

Last season on the strength of a September to remember, the Colorado Buffaloes were one of the top teams in the country for total and average viewership. Through the first five weeks of the 2023 season, the Buffs had double the viewership of any team in the country, and led the country until the final week of the regular season, rivalry week. Even through conference championships and bowl season, the Buffs ended up No. 8 for total viewership and No. 6 for average viewership for the full season.

CU was part of five of the 25 most watched games of the 2023 season and of those games, only Alabama was in more, appearing in six of the 25, which included both the SEC title game and the Rose Bowl. Ten of the 25 games were in the post season, meaning CU had five of the 15 most watched games of the regular season, most in the nation. Further proof of the Buffs watch power, four of five CU opponents only appearance in one of the top 25 games were against the Buffs. Only Alabama, Texas and Ohio State had more than one opponent who's only appearance in one of those games was against them, each with two such opponents.

Those same five games also rank in the top 13 in CU history for most watched games, and if you take out the postseason games from that list, CU had five of six most watch games in regular season history, with all six games only behind the 1989 Nebraska game in a Nos. 2-3 match-up.

Those five games were also the first five of the season, when the Buffs had doubled up every other college football team in terms of viewership, having the most or second-most watched game each of the five weeks.

In terms of Pac-12 teams, CU ended up finishing behind national runner-up Washington for total viewership and average viewership with the Huskies competing in the Pac-12 title game and two playoff games. Looking ahead to teams that will comprise the Big 12 in 2024, CU led the way by a large margin, more than double any other team with Oklahoma State (24.6 million viewers, 2.05 average viewership) and Utah (21.4 million viewers, 2.68 average viewership) next up on the two lists.

Buffs In The NFL

NFL Buffs

In 2024, the Buffs have 10 players in the NFL, on an active or practice squad roster. Xavier Weaver brings the total to 283 players that have made an NFL roster in CU history and those players have played a combined 1,358 seasons. CU has had 278 players drafted, including 25 in the first round, and 33 players in the first 32 picks (what today would be the first round). The Buffs had the most players in the NFL for the 1999 season with 39 and have twice had runs of 30-plus players in the league, first from 1977-81 and again from 1995-99, and have two other seasons in 2002 and '05 with 30-plus players on NFL rosters.

Super Bowl Buffs

A total of 67 former CU players have accumulated 97 Super Bowl appearances and 37 former players have a combined 55 Super Bowl rings. A total of 38 of the 58 Super Bowl games have featured at least one former Buff and the most Buffs in a single Super Bowl came in Super Bowl XXX when six Buffs played for the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2020, 247Sports put together a list of the 54 Super Bowls to date and compiled a list of the all-time college leaders. At that time, CU ranked tied for 10th with 93 players and tied for 21st in Super Bowl scoring among college teams with 37 points. Cliff Branch (18), Mason Crosby (7), Cullen Bryant (6), Boyd Dowler (6) have scored in Super Bowl games.

NFL Stadiums

CU has played 42 games in 14 different NFL stadiums, and 25 games in six current NFL venues. CU is 15-10 in current NFL stadiums, including 12-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-1 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara. CU has also played in former NFL stadiums in San Diego, Irving, Seattle, Houston, Miami, Tempe, Anaheim and Los Angeles. Four times the Buffs have played in two NFL stadiums in the same season, in 2002 (Denver, Houston), 2004 (Kansas City, Houston), 2008 (Denver, Jacksonville) and 2016 (Denver, Santa Clara).

NFL Scouts

Since 2000, a total of 1,303 NFL Scouts have attended Colorado games (home, road and neutral). The record for a single game is 31 scouts from 20 teams against UCLA in 2016. The record was tied against North Dakota State with 31 scouts from 18 teams.

In 2023, CU has had 112 scouts from 31 teams (all but Houston) in attendance at its games: Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Carolina, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dallas, Denver, Detroit, Green Bay, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kansas City, Las Vegas, LA Chargers, LA Rams, Miami, Minnesota, New England, New Orleans, New York Giants, New York Jets, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Washington. Against USC, a total of 26 scouts from 18 teams were in attendance, one of the better attended games in CU history.

A Game-by-Game Look In 2024: Week 1vs North Dakota State: 31 scouts and personnel from 18 NFL teams tying the record set in 2016 against UCLA.

1994 Buffs/1995 NFL Draft

All 11 offensive starters from the 1994 CU team played in the NFL, with 10 being drafted, and another six from defense played in the NFL, making 17 of the 22 starters from that team playing in the NFL. The 1995 NFL Draft was a special one for CU, when 10 Buffs were drafted. CU is one of just 14 schools who have had 10 players drafted in a single draft in the seven-round era (1994-present).

CFL & UFL Buffs

Five current Buffs played in the UFL in 2024 after the USFL and XFL combined. Delrick Abrams (Memphis Showboats), Devin Ross (Michigan Panthers), Drew Lewis (and Carson Wells (St. Louis Battlehawks), Robert Barnes (San Antonio Brahams). Mustafa Johnson continues to play in the CFL for the Montreal Alouettes where he has racked up 72 tackles and 11 sacks the last three seasons and helped the Alouettes to a Gray Cup victory in 2023.
